SNOW BLOCKS IOWA TRAIN.

Heavy Fall Delays Transportation and Storm Is Still Raging. Freezing Weather.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MASON CITY (Iowa) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A heavy fall of snow has already delayed all railroad trains and the storm is still raging. A passenger train on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad was stalled for hours in the snow drifts east of here today. Plows have been ordered into service all along the line. Reports from northern Wisconsin say the snowfall is heavy and that all traffic is delayed. The temperature is just at the freezing point and the snow is very wet and heavy.

USE CLUBS TO DISPERSE HOWLERS WHO ATTACK SHOPS WITH STONES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Encouraged by the addition to their ranks of some society women, striking clothing makers today precipitated four serious riots, one policeman was badly hurt, being knocked senseless by a brick, trampled upon and stabbed in the thigh. Six rioters and a 17-year-old girl were arrested and many injured persons were dragged out of the fray and hidden by their friends. The society women suffered many dislocations of millinery and apparel, heard a lot of new profanity and obscenity and came out of their experiences with their dignity sadly ruffled.

With bricks and stones flying in all directions and a howling, cursing mob charging through the streets, threatening destruction to anybody or anything in its path, the police did not stop to inspect calling cards and the society women took their chances with the rioters.

Mobs of 500 or more strikers and sympathizers, after listening to the customary exhortations of Socialist agitators, started to raid the clothing manufacturing district. After surrounding the plants, they began hurling stones through the windows and trying to break down the doors to get at the workers inside. Four times riot squads of police collided with the mobs and a fierce-free-for all battle ensued in one instance. Windows were smashed and the residents of the district generally terrorized by the fighting.

The final attack of the day was made on the plant of A. Tieson & Co., in West Division street. Here the mob exceeded 1000 and the signal of its intention was given when a stone was deftly thrown through a window, striking a tailor on the head and knocking him senseless. The mob howled with glee, and every window in the establishment was given a shower of stones and bricks.

The rioters were attacking the doors and threatening death to every person inside when the police charged. In this battle Officer Endlemeyer was knocked down and stabbed. Several men and women among the rioters were badly hurt, but all were spirited away.

POLICE CHARGE MOBS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Mounted policemen charged threatening mobs of striking garment workers and made numerous arrests today in three sections of Chicago, only to be dumfoundtd when met by obdurate groups of well-known club and society women, who produced engraved calling cards at police stations in lieu of bail bonds.

It was a new experience for the police and plainly confused them. A score of these women champions of the garment workers who faced today's rioting were taken into custody. They were immediately released, however, when their identity became known to the police.

One of them was injured when struck by a policeman's club, but her name did not become known, as she was hurriedly placed in an automobile and taken to her home.

DISGUISE THEMSELVES.

Most of the women of prominence involved in today's demonstrations were garbed as working girls, and for this reason the police could not have distinguished them from strikers until after arrests had been made.

Riotous and spectacular scenes developed in the downtown district, on the North Side and on the West Side. More than 500 men and women engaged in a downtown demonstration, which was broken up by the police, after considerable trouble. As they left their headquarters in La Salle street, the strikers and their sympathizers clanged bells, blew whistles and tooted horns.

The downtown line of march proceeded into the wholesale district near the river, passing near large tailoring establishments, where employees were beckoned to join the strikers. More than 2000 took part in one of several demonstrations on the West Side. In each instance women headed the crowds of strikers and their friends.

Miss Geraldine Farrar, who, when asked yesterday if she were to wed a Duke, said she never saw one that "was worth a ding."

"DUKES NOT WORTH DING."

American Soprano Comments When Asked About Her Reported Engagement.

[Associated Press Night Report.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Geraldine Farrar, the American opera singer, is evidently not going to marry a titled foreigner. The soprano was informed on her arrival today on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, that it was reported that she would wed a duke.

"Dukes?" asked Miss Farrar. "I've met many of them and believe me, taking them individually and collectively they are not worth a ding."

"DOING NOTHING."

"I would take oath that we were doing absolutely nothing beyond the law," said Miss Ellen Starr, one of the club women who has become a strike picket.

"The only persons who were violating the law were the policemen, who treated us roughly and hurt dreadfully with their clubs some of the poor boys we were leading peacefully past the shops. If there had been a real riot this morning—and it would not have taken much to have made one—it would have been incited altogether by the police."

Miss S. M. Franklin, another of the volunteer pickets, was indignant because of the manner in which she had been treated by the police.

"I know they would not have let me go if I had not presented my card," said Miss Franklin. "They seemed to think I was a particularly dangerous character. Perhaps it would have been a good plan to let them take me to jail and just prove to them how little legal foundation they have to stand on."

Promises from well-to-do women to open their homes to destitute striking girls, volunteers for picket service from among women well known as social and club leaders, and pledges of any assistance within their power from many other women were received by Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the Womens' Trade Union League, today.

FURTHER PLANS.

Helen M. Todd, a deputy factory inspector, who addressed a meeting of strikers today, volunteered to address a meeting of University of Chicago girls tomorrow night. Mrs. Robins will speak on the subject of the strike to the members of the Chicago Kindergarten Institute. In this manner it is expected to carry the fight of the striking garment workers into every quarter of the city, and to secure valuable aid for the cause.

Mrs. Robins declared at least fifty volunteer pickets from women's clubs and other sources, outside the working girls, will be actively engaged tomorrow, when further demonstrations are expected.

"We cannot give their names at this time," said Mrs. Robins. "We found it advisable in New York, and I am sure we will here, to keep the police guessing as to who our pickets are."

Striking girls, clubwomen and leaders in the Womens' Trade Union League will meet at a breakfast at a local restaurant tomorrow to discuss the strike. Among those who will be special guests is Miss Catherine Coman, former professor of history at Wellesley College.

Although several tailoring establishments where strikebreakers are being employed were stoned today, only a few persons were injured, and there were no fatalities.

KIDNAPERS CHASED BY POSSE INTO THE WILDS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 1.—The fate of Grace Rolph, the sixteen-year-old Nebraska girl who was kidnaped by Mexicans several days ago from a ranch in the State of Tamaulipais, was still in doubt tonight. No word has come from the posse that went in pursuit of the kidnapers.

The country into which the kidnapers and pursuers have plunged is wild and sparsely settled, and the absence of facilities for communication, it is said, make it doubtful thta anything can be heard of them until the men are captured or the posse returns baffled.

In the meantime the Mexican authorities have taken active steps to aid in the capture. Squads of rurales, the Mexican mounted national police, have been sent into the Huasteca district from the opposite direction, with instructions to search the country thoroughly.

REVOLUTION IN SPAIN REPORTED IN EUROPE.

First News Comes From Paris to Same Effect—Details Are Unobtainable and It Is Not Known How Far Revolt Has Progressed. Telegraph Offices Believed to Have Been Seized by Either Rioters or Government Troops, if Latter Are Successful.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Wednesday, Nov. 2, 5 a. m.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The long expected revolution in Spain has broken out, according to meager dispatches received here this morning, from Madrid.

Details are as yet unobtainable, and it is not known how far the revolution has progressed.

The first report of the disorders was received from Paris, but neither there nor here has any specific account of the trouble been received.

It is supposed, however, that scenes similar to those enacted in Portugal a few weeks ago are taking place.

One reason why no additional report has been received is believed to be that the telegraph offices have been seized by either the rioters or the government troops, if the latter have remained loyal to Alfonso.

Whether the disorders are merely local in Madrid and are being combated successfully by the King and his officials, or whether the long-smoldering spark of discontent, the result of personal unpopularity of the Queen, the drastic methods used by the King in quelling the Barcelona riots and the popular disapproval of the execution of Ferrer, has been fanned into a flame of insurrection that is sweeping the entire country, is merely a matter of conjecture.

DESPERATE EFFORTS.

Although desperate efforts are being made to determine the exact state of the peril which confronts the royal family, they have been futile so far.

It is not known whether King Alfonso and Queen Ena are prisoners in the royal palace, the latter besieged by a blood-mad mob of revolutionists, or whether they have been spirited out of the country in safety.

Much alarm is felt, however, for the safety of the rulers. It is an open secret that since the Ferrer execution the anarchistic party has been spreading its propaganda broadcast and that it has been receiving recruits daily.

If the anarchists have been successful in bringing to their aid dissatisfied officials of the government, it is felt that the throne of Alfonso is tottering.

If, however, the ministry remains loyal it is believed that he may yet weather this, the most serious storm he has been called upon to face in his troubled reign.

It is felt that the absence of news from the Spanish capital bodes ill for the King. Had the disturbances been merely local in Madrid it is thought that some word to that effect would have long since been sent.

The move of King Alfonso, when, in October of this year, at one slash, he cut loose the state from the church, brought down a torrent upon his head. Throughout the world the matter was gravely discussed. In Rome the Pope advised his followers to be calm and to let matters take their course.

The move culminated in a stirring scene at the meeting of the Spanish Senate on October 7, when Premier Canalejas reiterated his intention to adhere to his anti-clerical programme, including the "padlock" bill. He criticised the Episcopate and the reactionary elements for their attacks upon him and declared that his defamers would be held responsible.

"We will win or die together," was his assertion in strenuously denying that discord existed in the Cabinet.

At the same session a request was ordered sent to France asking that the Carlist leader, Tirzo Olodabal, who was residing at St. Jean de Luitz, France, be made to fix his domicile several hundred miles distant from the Spanish frontier. This move exposed the extreme nervousness of the government of Spain, which, on one hand, was apprehensive of a recrudescence of republican agitation and outbreaks in Catalonia and on the other, fears of the conspiracies of Carlist leaders in the north, who were credited with ambitions to embarrass the dynasty during the political anxiety.

Meanwhile the revolution in Portugal was stirring the inhabitants of the country to a wild pitch. The reports of the war across the border were received with much anxiety and in several districts open demonstrations took place.

KANSAS WOMEN PRAY.

W.C.T.U. Members Observe Day of Fasting and Prayer in Aid of Prohibition.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Today was observed with fasting and prayer for prohibition by members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in Kansas City and elsewhere throughout the State. Hourly meetings were held and those women who could not attend because of illness or other reasons, prayed at home. A visitor went to W.C.T.U. headquarters this morning while one of the hourly meetings was in progress. The visitor remained and listened to the prayers and the singing. "We are doing this so prohibition may win in Missouri," said Mrs. Fannie L. Taylor, the leader. "We know we will be victorious. This is our text for the day: 'And ye shall go and pray unto me and I will hearken unto you.'"

ROYAL TOUR.

HALF OF AQUEDUCT PARTY STARTS HOME.

Those of "The Times" Excursionists Who Stayed Over to See Upper End of Valley Are More Than Gratified. Cement Friendly Relations.

BY R. H. WILLSON.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDEPENDENCE (Cal.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Times party is divided tonight for the first time. Half of those who started are here and the other half are on their way back to Los Angeles.

Those who stayed over to see Bishop and the upper end of the valley are more than gratified over the day's trip. They saw a wonderfully rich agricultural district, were entertained by the Inyo County Good Roads Club at a wild duck dinner, and took part in cementing the friendly commercial relations of Los Angeles and the Owens Valley.

The Times pilot car, a little twenty-horse Ford, with a load of 780 pounds live weight, was the first car in Bishop. All the cars here are in splendid shape for the run back to Mojave tomorrow.

L. A. Nares left Independence this morning to make the record of the trip, running into Los Angeles tonight. Others who started down were: Dr. and Mrs. Walter Lindley, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Cochrane, ex-Mayor Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Dellover, C. T. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark, G. Y. Ridenbaugh, Andrew Jung, E. T. Wright, A. E. McDermot, P. Janss, R. M. Allen, Samuel Sparrow, S. P. Eastman, John B. Dawson, John N. Powell, George Dickinson, Walter E. Brown, Warren Wilson, F. H. Metcalf, A. J. Koll, Walter Koll, Charles Off, R. D. Wade and Leroy Seely.

They should be in Mojave tonight, arriving in Los Angeles tomorrow about noon.

Mayor Alexander, Chief Engineer Mulholland, A. W. Ryan and W. R. Rowland, who went to Bishop, are at Lone Pine. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Briggs and R. W. Bainhour are with them. In the party here are Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hailburt, Charles Cassat Davis, Reese Llewellyn, Dr. G. Del Amo, Miss Mary Carson, Miss Lucy Carson, George R. Murdock, Earl Osborne, C. J. Fox, Jr., Mrs. G. W. Tape, and Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Patterson.

The trip to Bishop opened some of the most magnificent scenery of the Sierras. The road wound around the foot of a forty-mile range of mountain peaks, twelve to fourteen thousand feet high, mantled in snow. The wheels scattered the golden autumn leaves that are falling in the valley and frequently dipped down into the crystal streams of water that cross the path.

The first stop was made at Black Rock Springs and the aqueduct intake, where 10,000 inches of spring water are waiting for Los Angeles consumption.

Between Black Rock Springs and the Eaton ranch The Times pilot car ran into a herd of eight fine, fat doe of unusual size. They evidently felt doubly secure in not having antlers and in knowing the season closed yesterday. They stood perfectly still and let the machine run close up to them. They objected, however, to having their pictures taken and when the photographer fairly fell out of his seat to snap them they bounded away so fast that a moving picture machine would have been frustrated.

At Eaton's ranch the 10,000 hens were visited and the products of the orchard sampled.

The dinner in Bishop at the Hotel Isalia included luxuries not to be found on the best tables of Los Angeles. After dinner the Good Roads Club had automobiles in waiting to show the visitors some of the beautiful farms in that vicinity.

In spite of long, hard trips every member of the party is in excellent spirits and ready for any experience that tomorrow brings out. Over 600 miles will have been covered before Los Angeles is reached, about Thursday noon.

driver of the National racer, who was killed in an automobile accident at Atlanta, Ga., yesterday afternoon. Livingston was a Los Angeles boy who earned a reputation as a driver of fast motor cars at Ascot Park.

While Going at Ninety Miles an Hour on Atlanta Speedway, Al's Car Loses Rear Wheel, and He Later Dies at Hospital—Oldfield's Tribute to Fellow Racer.

BY WILLIAM PICKENS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Al Livingston of Los Angeles, famed as one of the great automobile racing pilots in America, is dead.

The game fellow, who thrilled throngs of spectators at the old Ascot Park track and the Motordrome by his intrepid driving and reckless abandon, paid the penalty for defying death late this afternoon, when his sixty-horse-power National racing car lost a rear wheel and turned turtle while going at a speed of ninety miles an hour on the Atlanta speedway.

Livingston's head was horribly crushed both in front and at the base of the skull and although attended by five skilled surgeons, he died at 10 o'clock tonight at Grady Hospital.

Livingston arrived here a week ago with a new car which the factory had built for him to be used on the Coast this winter. He was accompanied by his wife, and later joined by his mother and sister, whom Al had not seen since he gained fame as a driver.

The unfortunate man was the last to try the track, and it was nearly dark when he drove out from his garage on the infield of the speedway. He covered two miles faster than any of the other drivers, and had signaled as he passed the repair pits that he would stop the next time around.

Livingston shot into the lower turn on his last mile, and was just straightening up for the entrance to the back stretch when a rear wheel collapsed. The machine swerved to the outer edge of the track and then bounded toward the inner rail, bursting a front tire when it landed.

Then the car turned over with Al underneath. Barney Oldfield and other drivers rushed to the spot and assisted in removing Livingston from the wreck.

Mrs. Livingston was in the official's stand, but was told that her husband was not hurt and came to town in a touring car, not learning of the terrible result until an hour later.

Livingston was unconscious with the front part of his skull caved in and a fracture at the base in addition, it is believed. Rushed to the hospital, doctors there stated he had only the barest chance for life.

He was known as a dirt track star. For years he had raced on the Pacific Coast, claiming Los Angeles as his home. Last year he was requisitioned by the Chicago branch of the National and entered in the Elgin races. He won the first race for the small cars and came in second in the second race, Ralph Mulford winning by a narrow margin.

The drivers here are downcast over the death of Livingston. Barney Oldfield said, "Al had been talking of nothing but what he hoped to do with his new car in Los Angeles this winter He was a game fellow and we all loved him. He has been a star in the East this summer and it seemed to be his ambition to go home with his new car which today proved to be his executioner."

Livingston was a native of Buffalo before he went to Los Angeles. Funeral arrangements will be announced tomorrow.

MARINETTE (Wis.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Three bloodhounds straining through the snow at the leashes held by a party of the expert cruisers of the I. Stephenson Company, burst through the spruce edging of the Menominee River near Newhall, Mich., only to find the object of their search, little 4-year-old Rene Chailie frozen in the thin ice in the edge of the river.

The little lad strayed away from home in Newhall last Thursday. As soon as the alarm was sounded hundreds of the residents of Newhall and the lumber jacks and woodsmen of the large camps near by began their search of the woods

DEFENDANT'S COUNSEL TELLS HOW THE TRAP WAS SET AND SPRUNG.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Dagelbert Tiemendorfer, accused of being the go-between in seeking a bribe of $2000 for George W. Yeandle, who was drawn as a juror in the case of W. Edward T. Rosenheimer, a wealthy merchant charged with murder, offered to plead guilty to an indictment returned against him late today.

As Tiemendorfer was not represented by counsel when arraigned, Dist.-Atty. Whitman asked Justice O'Gorman not to accept his plea. Tiemendorfer and Yeandle, who also was indicted, were then held in $25,000 bail each, for examination tomorrow.

Yeandle entered a plea of not guilty. His arrest and that of Tiemendorfer halted temporarily the trial of Rosenheimer, who is accused of causing the death of Grace Hough, when his automobile ran down a carriage in which she was riding.

Both Rosenheimer's car and the damaged carriage are to be made exhibits in the trial under the present plans of the prosecution.

Workmen were put to work today removing the casements of the doors of the Criminal Court building, so that the large touring car can be taken into the courtroom for the inspection of the jury.

Yeandle's arrest was made after $500, it was alleged, had been given to him by George A. Knoblock, one of Rosenheimer's lawyers. The money, it was learned in court, was paid over to him on instructions from Justice O'Gorman and was on account of a total sum of $2000.

VISITED OFFICE.

According to James W. Osborne, chief of Rosenheimer's attorneys, Tiemendorfer visited him in his office after the Rosenheimer jury had been selected and made the proposition that for $2000 Yeandle would vote for Rosenheimer's acquittal, no matter what the evidence might be.

To prove Yeandle's value, Mr. Osborne says Tiemendorfer told him that Yeandle had been one of the jurors in the first Nan Patterson murder trial, and had "hung" the jury after holding out against a verdict of guilty for seventeen hours.

Osborne asked for time to think the proposition over. He then laid the matter before Justice O'Gorman, who advised that a trap be set for the juror.

A meeting for this morning was arranged through Tiemendorfer, Mr. Osborne said, and George A. Knoblock, of the Osborne law firm, kept the appointment.

The money, $500 "on account," was paid over on a street corner on Madison avenue. Both Yeandle and Tiemendorfer were there, the actual payment, the attorney declared, being made to Tiemendorfer, whom Yeandle motioned to take the roll of bills.

Yeandle protested to Magistrate Murphy, before whom he was arraigned, that the whole matter was a mystery to him. The examination was set for Thursday.

Another juror was selected in Yeandle's place.

ACCUSED OF POISONING WIFE.

GREENSBURG, (Kan.), Nov. 1.—Dr. G. H. Buck was arrested at Pratt, Kas., last night, charged with having poisoned his wife in this city. Mrs. Buck died two weeks ago. The physician was released on $1000 bond and his preliminary hearing set for November 14.

Heir to German Throne Ignores Dickinson's Suggestion That He Visit Philippines.

[Associated Press Night Report.]

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—The official programme of the far eastern tour of Crown Prince Frederick William was published here today. It does not provide for a visit to the Philippines as had been suggested by American Secretary of War Dickinson to Emperor William.

The Crown Prince and the Crown Princess Cecile will leave tomorrow for Genoa, where they will embark for the Far East.

The Prince will spend two months in India, going from there to Siam, the Dutch East Indies, Hongkong, Canton, Shanghai, Kiao-Chau, Peking and Tokio, returning to Berlin by way of Siberia in the middle of May. The Prince has an entourage of twenty-five.

PROMISES THAT STIMSON WILL FIGHT FALSE INFLATION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BUFFALO (N. Y.) Nov. 1.—The Republican party is not responsible for the high cost of living, Theodore Roosevelt asserted in a campaign speech here tonight. The causes of high prices in the main, he said, were international.

Col. Roosevelt declared in some instances trusts had forced up prices and pointed to the record of Henry L. Stimson, the Republican candidate for Governor, as a prosecutor of corporations which had violated the law as proof that if elected, he would do all the Governor of the State could do to prevent artificial inflation of values.

Col. Roosevelt's declaration on this subject was made first at Niagara Falls, and then at Buffalo at the close of his last speaking tour in the present State campaign.

In his speech here tonight, Col. Roosevelt said:

"Fourteen years ago I was in Buffalo speaking in the campaign for Mr. McKinley against Mr. Bryan, and at that time our opponents held the Republicans responsible because prices were too low. You remember that Mr. Bryan's great complaint was that we never could get wheat up to the dollar limit. Now, fourteen years after, the complaint is that prices are too high.

"As Mr. Stimson pointed out the other night, there has been a world-wide movement toward higher prices in the last few years, a movement due to various causes, some of which undoubtedly will be changed in time."

Col. Roosevelt spoke of Mr. Stimson's prosecution of the trusts while United States District Attorney in New York and said, as a result, "every big financial corporation of the type that we speak of as a trust, is now doing all it can to back up Mr. Dix, and to oppose Mr. Stimson. If Harry Stimson were not a menace to the big trusts, you would not find every big trust-controlled newspaper of New York City against him. If Mr. Dix was not wanted in office by the great corporations you would not find them supporting Mr. Dix as eagerly as they are in this campaign.

"It was not until I became President that the first really serious effort was made to enforce the anti-trust law. And while, as was perfectly inevitable in the beginning of a crusade of that kind, we sometimes failed, and while it was physically impossible for us to take up more than a small fraction of the cases that we would have to take up, yet we did accomplish a great deal.

"Who have been the people who attached me most violently? The plain people, or the men who represent the trusts? It is the representatives of great corporations, their representatives in the press, their representatives in public life, their representatives in private life, the big corporation lawyers."

JAIL HEAD OF COMPANY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Col. Christopher Wilson, president of the United Wireless Telegraph Company, was sent to the Tombs today by Judge Lacombe of the United States District Court on a presentment of the Federal grand jury, for contempt of court in refusing to surrender to the court a letter press book which the board of directors had been subpoenaed to produce.

Certain officers of the company are charged with fraudulently using the mails in furtherance of an alleged scheme to defraud investors.

Wilson's counsel applied this afternoon to Judge Coxe in the United States Circuit Court for a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Coxe granted the writ and fixed bail at $100.

JUDGE QUASHES INDICTMENTS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ROCK ISLAND (Ill.) Nov. 1.—Indictments against K. M. Whitham of Aledo, Ill.; Dr. A. L. Craig and C. E. Hatfield of Chicago; S. S. McIlvaine of Auburn, Ill., and Thomas Wilson, M. H. Carber, C. H. Walters and George W. Kenyon of Springfield, charging embezzlement and conspiracy in connection with alleged fraternal insurance frauds were quashed by Judge Gest in the Circuit Court today on technical grounds. Those named in the indictments were connected with the Fraternal Tribunes and American Home Circle merger of two years ago which was followed by the alleged looting of the Tribune's reserve fund of $55,000.

TIMES AUTO RUN.

OWENS RIVER LOCO MAKES RUN FROM INDEPENDENCE.

DR. EDWIN JANSS and a party in a Locomobile came through from Independence last night, the first of The Times automobile tourers to return from the Owens River country. The Loco "forty" made the run of 256 miles from early morning yesterday until dark last night and Janss spent much of the time at the wheel. Robert M. Allen and Dr. P. Janss were the other members of the Loco party besides the chauffeur.

Through the San Francisquito the Locomobile made excellent time as the forty horse power machine bounced through the fords of the long and winding stream. This was nothing though to the wonderful country visited in the vicinity of Independence, according to Janss, who took all the ride trips. He covered more than 1000 miles since leaving with the other autos Saturday morning.

According to Dr. Janss the automobile trip through the Owens River Valley is one of the most interesting that can be arranged. He says the plans for the entertainment of the auto tourists worked like a charm. There was plenty to eat, gallons of gasoline to spare, tires aplenty, and enough oil to supply every machine.

The roads in places were rough, but the cars got through. Janss says his Loco was only one of five of the same make of cars that made the journey successfully. He had one blowout and two punctures. He is enthusiastic over the journey and returns with a healthful tan and is in good spirits after his rough fast ride of yesterday, when he made the run from Independence.

Dr. Walter J. Lindley in his Packard is doing well, Janss says, and the car is bouncing along in splendid shape. Former Mayor Henry T. Hazard is coming through most of the time on "high gear" with his Stoddard-Dayton.

Halloween night was a memorable one in Independence, says Janss. The autoists took the youngsters for rides in the machines. For many of the boys and girls it was their first ride in an automobile.

Janss was anxious to go to Bishop with The Times party yesterday, but was obliged to return home. He has taken many trips, but says the Owens River run is the best ever.

LAD'S MISTAKE CAUSES FIRE.

Indiana Urchin Brings Gasoline for Vinegar—Woman Pours it on Stove.

[Associated Press Night Report.]

EVANSVILLE, (Ind.), Nov. 1.—When Mrs. Louise Voelkel sent her small son to a grocery store today to get vinegar he brought back gasoline instead. Mrs. Voelkel poured the gasoline over pickles on a hot stove, flames filled her kitchen and the house caught fire. She seized the pickel pot, ran out of the house with it and threw the contents over the fence setting the house next door, afire. Firemen turned streams on the two houses, the pickle pot and Mrs. Voelkel, who is uninjured. The small boy disappeared for the day.

CHICAGO STRIKE.

in the metropolitan district in sympathy with the walkout of the express companies' employees, rests upon the decision of William H. Ashton, general organizer, and Valentine Hoffman, vice-president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

Authority to call such a strike at a moment's notice, whenever they deem such a course necessary, was vested in them by the joint executive council of the brotherhood at a meeting tonight.

"Mayor Gaynor can keep the strike going indefinitely or end it," said Mr. Ashton, after the meeting. "If Mayor Gaynor wants to avoid a general strike, let him take the police off the trucks. In many places the police guard, so-called, is acting as driver.

"If we are compelled to call a general strike, we will take out mail wagon drivers, street cleaning department drivers and stablemen.

"We will give Mayor Gaynor tomorrow to think it over. There will be no general strike called tomorrow so far as I can see."

In event a general strike is called, the claim is made by the strike leaders that 30,000 men will be affected, and that all traffic in the city will be tied up.

The demands of the strikers were put into written form tonight for the first time and will be presented to the companies tomorrow.

Heads of the companies here have complained so far that the men had presented no grievances as a basis for negotiations.

RE-TAKE RICH JAP'S SON.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

RENO (Nev.) Nov. 1.—Local officers this afternoon captured S. Auki, a demented Japanese whose father is a member of the Japanese parliament. Auki escaped from E. J. Cassidy who was appointed by the United States government to accompany him to Japan and was at large from late yesterday afternoon until captured today. When captured the Japanese was endeavoring to get a local Methodist clergyman to send a letter and a drawing of a water wheel to President Taft.

Auki, whose father is one of the richest men in Japan, is demented and was being taken from New York City to San Francisco. Onraku, a college chum of Auki, also accompanied the party.

Yesterday afternoon, Auki made his escape from the train while it was between Sparks and Lawton. His absence was detected at Lawton and Cassidy and Onraku left the train at Verdi and returned to Reno.

Auki is an engineer and while traveling Switzerland became imbued with an idea that Lake Geneva could be made to develop tremendous water power without ruining the beauty of the lake. He came to the United States and attempted to gain an audience with President Taft on this subject but was denied admission to the White House. He then went to New York and was confined in a hospital for some time with brain fever.

The fever left him with his mind deranged and the United States government appointed Cassidy as a guardian to accompany him to Japan.

RICH WIDOW SELLS PROPERTY..

Mrs. Harriman Receives $5,000,000 for Interests Near Augusta, Ga., Which Includes Hotel.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Equities Securities Company, it was learned here today, has purchased the Harriman property located at North Augusta in South Carolina, just across the Savannah River from Augusta.

Mrs. Edward H. Harriman is said to have received $5,000,000 for the property, which includes an electric railroad fifty miles in length, and electric light plant, 3000 acres of land, and the Hotel The Hampton Terrace.

Henry C. Frick owns a home near the property, while John D. Rockefeller has his own suite in the hotel, which is near a private golf links. It is the intention of the Equities Company to hold and develop the property.

Fire yesterday destroyed several large cotton sheds at Alexandria, Egypt, and 6000 bales of cotton. The loss was $1,000,000.

LONG REACH.

LOOKS MORE LIKE EVANS.

FURTHER IDENTIFICATION OF ACAPULCO PRISONER.

VICE-PRESIDENT OF BANK TO ASK EXTRADITION.

TELLER BELIEVED TO HAVE HAD NO ACCOMPLICES.

Movements in official circles here yesterday confirmed the belief that one of the men arrested on board the power schooner Kate at Acapulco last Saturday is Wilson B. Evans, absconding teller of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank.

This identification has been made so certain that Asa Keyes, Deputy District Attorney, left last night to take the depositions of Capt. Emrick of the tug Northern Light and Capt. Osterhaus, who was on the tug when the mysterious "Bisbee" was taken to Drake's Bay to board the Kate, September 24. These depositions will be used as the basis for extradition of the Acapulco prisoner.

That Evans has been positively identified is found in the fact that T. T. Newlin, vice-president of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, yesterday informed the District Attorney's office that he will ask the extradition of the prisoner. It seems that the Pinkerton agency furnished sufficient identification to justify this course.

About the same time a message was received by the District Attorney from Gov. Gillett, asking if it is his desire to hold the Kate and the "other two men" pending extradition proceedings. This query will probably be answered in the negative by Keyes from San Francisco today.

At Sacramento last night the Governor's private secretary, Mr. Mitchell, declined to give out any information concerning the situation except to say that no extradition had been begun and that one might be asked for today.

THOSE "TWO OTHERS."

The developments yesterday clarifies the atmosphere and leaves it sure that the only fugitive caught on the Kate is Evans. The "two others" alluded to in the Governor's dispatch are O. Carlson, a sailor, and Dan Archer, a cook. Evans is supposed to be the seaman registered as H. Han. Besides these three, Capt. Engdall and A. Adolphson, the owner, were on board.

It is not believed any of the crew could be held for complicity in aiding a criminal to escape. Such an offense is not within the scope of the extradition treaty and besides it is probable that there is no evidence showing that they knew Evans or his crime when they arranged the mysterious trip.

But there was a sixth man, who said he was "Bisbee's" brother, who did participate in the arrangements and he may be brought into the case. He did not go with the schooner but directed the arrangements up to her departure from the wharf at San Francisco.

Another reason for not detaining the "two other men" now in custody at Acapulco is the belief that Evans had no accomplices in his crime.

SLOW PROCESS.

After Keyes obtains the depositions he is seeking in San Francisco today he will present them to the Governor with the application of Dist.-Atty Fredericks for an order to the State Department at Washington demanding the return of the fugitive to this country. How long this will take is not known but it may require weeks before Evans is brought to Los Angeles to face a trial.

The actual amount of the defalcation has not been announced by the bank but some of those who were interested in the pursuit of Evans were led to believe that it ran into high figures before the examination of his accounts was completed.

Evans had an ingenious method of escape which would have undoubtedly proved a success but for the worldwide suspicion that was aroused by the search for The Times dynamiters.

THE OPERA.

CAMPANA IS RARE BARITONE.

HIS GREAT VOICE SENSATION OF LAST EVENING.

"Cavalleria Rusticana" and "I Pagliacci" Given in Good Style at the Auditorium—Sacchetti Sings Two Difficult Tenor Roles—Francini's Fine Work.

Ettore Campana was the discovery of last evening at the Auditorium, and his voice thrilled the audience as did the voice of Regina Vicarino on the evening before.

Campana was the Tonio in Bevani's production of "I Pagliacci," and his voicing of the prologue demonstrated a voice of melting warmth and superb power, used in the main with good style, though in places the singer might have exhibited a little more finesse.

Campana is a baritone of whom any operatic organization, of any price and prestige, might be proud. His Prologue, while possibly lacking in some of the fine points of artistry, was more satisfying than Scotti's of the other evening. Scotti reached our intellects, but Campana caused our hearts to beat faster, for his voice has that which has gone from Scotti's—the fire of youth.

Anna Frery, a French soprano of exceptionally powerful voice, was the Santuzza in "Cavalleria." Her voice has brilliant coloring and the true dramatic force of compulsion. She is also an actress of vigorous emotionality, and her climaxes are well managed. Her voice production, however, is somewhat uneven and marred at moments by a very hard stroke of the glottis.

Sacchetti has a beautiful light tenor voice and in the lyric passages sang with exquisite grace and sentiment.

Secci Corsi, a pleasing light baritone, was the Alfio.

The great Leoncavallo music gave exploitation to the talents of Giuditta Francini as Nedda. Signora Francini is a pretty young woman, with a soprano voice of quality and verity to pitch, but quite lost by its owner's very bad production. At times she seems to be completely swallowing her tones.

Campana thrilled in the Prologue and Sacchetti, as Canio, did his best work in the lighter lyrics which precede the great air of the first act.

The orchestra, under Francini, was masterfully handled.

The chorus was as bright and pleasing and resultful as ever, and several very effective bits of new "business" were introduced into the first act of "Cavalleria."

Tonight "Rigoletto" will be given, with Alberti in the title part and Battain as the Duke.

STAMPED IN WRONG PLACE.

Locomotive Engineer, Sued for Divorce, is Banged on the Head With a Notarial Seal.

A notarial seal applied to the head last night was not to the liking of M. S. Roberts, who wanted the seal put on legal papers before he was served with them. Hence Roberts is threatening to obtain a warrant today for the arrest of the erratic seal worker.

Roberts, who is a locomotive engineer living at No. 856 Maple avenue, is being sued for divorce. He was served with some papers, but objected to the service because, as he said, the papers were not properly sealed. He went to the lawyer's office in the Bryson Block, and there it is said proceeded to expound his views on the law and the proper manner in which divorce papers should be served. The papers were not served even then, but the lawyer struck Roberts over the sconce with the seal, and Roberts went to the Receiving Hospital where a big gash in the back of his head was stitched.

Roberts said the man who struck him was Attorney J. E. Matterson, but to the police he asserted his assailant was W. J. Rittson, the manager of the Pacific Law and Collection Agency. Neither Matterson nor Rittson could be found last night.

ALONG THE PAC

RE-ENACTED.

OLD DAYS ARE REVIVED.

HUNDREDS IN RUSH FOR LANDS IN THE NORTH.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SPOKANE (Wash.) Nov. 1.—Scenes of the old days were re-enacted at Tekoa, Wash., Missoula and Kalispell, Mont., and Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, last night and today when hundreds of "sooners" swarmed around the land office doors for the purpose of taking a chance at securing land on the Flathead and Coeur d'Alene Indian reservations.

One woman, over 80 years old, remained in the line at Missoula for hours. Last night a special train was chartered by five men to run from Ravelli, Mont., to Missoula to be in time for the filing.

Before midnight twenty-five persons, including half a dozen women, were in the corridor of the land office at Kalispell. They camped on benches, stools and boxes, some playing cards, others reading and all anxiously waiting for 8 o'clock when the first "sooners" who made residence after 12 o'clock were to arrive.

Trouble looms for the prospective settlers on the Coeur d'Alene reservation. While nearly 500 home seekers are rushing on to the claims and have begun to break the land, about 150 are lined up at the Coeur d'Alene land office waiting their turn at filing. As there are only approximately 300 good claims remaining on the reservation, a legal fight is promised.

EXCITEMENT.

RIVAL GUSHER NEAR LAKEVIEW.

FORTUNE REFUSED BY OWNERS FOR HALF INTEREST.

Maricopa Thirty-Six Brought in Few Hundred Feet South of World-Famous Well and is Under Control. Flowing Nearly Thousand Barrels, but not Spectacular.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Another gusher was brought in a few hundred feet south of the Lakeview today by the Maricopa Thirty-six. At last reports tonight it was flowing between 500 and 1000 barrels and is under perfect control.

The new well is so near the Lakeview that when the latter was brought in the Maricopa Thirty-six, which was then drilling, had to suspend operations on account of danger of igniting the gas.

The new gusher, it is believed, may put the Lakeview as a money-maker, though it will not be allowed to run wild will, therefore, never be as spectacular as the world-famous giant. The ground on which the new well is drilled belongs to M. J. Laymance who was leased, forty acres of it, to Moore and Tryon, who are operating one twenty and leased the other twenty to the Maricopa Thirty-six. It is said that an offer of $300,000 for half of the forty-acre lease was turned down just after the new well was brought in.

ASK STATE FOR AID.

SEVENTEEN SPEND ALL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 1.—Seventeen citizens and property owners of Shasta and Tehama counties have sent a petition to Secretary of State Curry urging him to take up their fight against the Northern California Power Company. They point out that for years they have owned and tilled a strip of fertile land thirty miles long and twenty miles wide and that more recently the power company, by a net work of ditches, has not only usurped their water rights but destroyed the value of the property as well. They insist that they have fought the power corporation until their funds have become exhausted and now ask the State for aid.

TAX ASSESSOR GIVES FIGURES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LAKEVIEW (Or.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Figures compiled by County Assessor Foster of Lake county, who has just submitted his 1910 tax roll, shows the valution of all taxable property in the county to be $7,944,225. As the population of the county is 4000, the valuation per capita is almost $2000. Among the facts shown in the tax roll are that the number of cattle in the county is 27,732, valued at $567,052, and sheep 120,240, valued at $297,746.

Washington Food Commissioner Asks for Order to Destroy Cold Storage Consignment.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 1.—Application was made to the Superior Court today by State Food Commissioner Davies for an order to destroy a ton of turkeys and five tons of smelts, salmon, crabs and lobsters, shipped here last May by a California firm to be placed in cold storage and held for the fall trade. The consignment was seized last week. Analysis showed that the smelts contained 415,000,000 bacteria per gram and the turkeys 189,000,000 per gram. Much putrid food was found in other cold storage warehouses.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO (Nev.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Myrtle M. Kriebel has spent the past year in Reno but Los Angeles was granted a decree of divorce from Mahlen H. Kriebel by Judge Orr today on the ground of desertion and non-support. Although the ground of cruelty was included in the complaint, it was not touched on as it was being proven by the milder charges. The defendant in the case is manager of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company at Salt Lake City and interposed an answer containing a general denial of the allegations made by the plaintiff. Mrs. Kriebel is an orphan, but has a step-father at Ogden, where he is a ship

RE-ENACTED.

OLD DAYS ARE REVIVED.

HUNDREDS IN RUSH FOR LANDS IN THE NORTH.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SPOKANE (Wash.) Nov. 1.—Scenes of the old days were re-enacted at Tekoa, Wash., Missoula and Kalispell, Mont., and Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, last night and today when hundreds of "sooners" swarmed around the land office doors for the purpose of taking a chance at securing land on the Flathead and Coeur d'Alene Indian reservations.

One woman, over 80 years old, remained in the line at Missoula for hours. Last night a special train was chartered by five men to run from Ravalli, Mont., to Missoula to be in time for the filing.

Before midnight twenty-five persons, including half a dozen women, were in the corridor of the land office at Kalispell. They camped on benches, stools and boxes, some playing cards, others reading and all anxiously waiting for 1 o'clock when the first "sooners" who made residence after 12 o'clock were to arrive.

Trouble looms for the prospective settlers on the Coeur d'Alene reservation. While nearly 500 home seekers are rushing on to the claims and have begun to break the land, about 150 are lined up at the Coeur d'Alene land office waiting their turn at filing. As there are only approximately 200 good claims remaining on the reservation, a legal fight is promised.

RIVAL GUSHER NEAR LAKEVIEW.

FORTUNE REFUSED BY OWNERS FOR HALF INTEREST.

Mariposa Thirty-Six Brought in Few Hundred Feet South of World-Famous Well and Is Under Control, Flowing Nearly Thousand Barrels, but not Spectacular.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Another gusher was brought in a few hundred feet south of the Lakeview today by the Maricopa Thirty-six. At last reports tonight it was flowing between 500 and 1000 barrels of oil under perfect control.

The new well is so near the Lakeview that when the latter was brought in the Maricopa Thirty-six, which was then drilling, had to suspend operations on account of danger of igniting gas.

The new gusher, it is believed, may make the Lakeview as a money-maker, though it will not be allowed to run wild, therefore, never be as spectacular as the world-famous giant.

The ground on which the new well is supposed belongs to M. J. Laymance who has leased forty acres of it, to Moore and Tryon, who are operating on one twenty and leased the other twenty to the Maricopa Thirty-six.

It is said that an offer of $300,000 for half of the forty-acre lease was turned down just after the new well was brought in.

The defendant in the case is manager of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company at Salt Lake City and has filed an answer containing a general denial of the allegations made by the plaintiff.

Mrs. Kriebel is an orphan, but has a step-father in Toledo, where he is a wealthy property owner. During most of her stay here, Mrs. Kriebel has been engaged in dress-making and has established a strong clientele in the divorce colony.

Since August of 1909 she has made several trips to Los Angeles, where she has many friends.

The couple were married at Corvallis, Ore., December 1897.

Married to a priest by an Episcopal minister in Jersey City, N. J., several years ago. Mrs. Ellen F. McGinn will file a complaint for divorce from Father Louis McGinn tomorrow. Both husband and wife were ex-communicated from the Roman Catholic church after their marriage, she stated yesterday, but both have been reinstated again. She believes that her husband is in a monastery as she is unable to locate him for the service of the necessary papers.

Mrs. McGinn instituted a suit for divorce at Freehold, New Jersey, three years ago, before the laws of that state were changed and she has received word that she must show sufficient causes why that should be dismissed before the Jersey courts give over jurisdiction to the Nevada courts. The plaintiff is a Brooklyn woman, who owns valuable real estate in the borough. She will allege desertion and non-support and states that she also has cruelty charges.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is feared that the Democratic majority in the Constitutional Convention is reversing itself and going back upon campaign promises. This morning the convention refused to recommend for passage a provision for the protection of the cattle industry of the State by a constitutional clause decreeing against black leg, rinderpest, Texas fever and a number of other bovine disorders and plagues.

Even Delegate Winsor was illogical enough to state that "very complete laws are already on the Arizona statute books covering these very things." The matter was disposed of in most unusual manner by an affirmative vote that it do not pass.

The recall is almost into the Constitution. Three of the recall propositions were eliminated, the fancy of the majority apparently settling upon one which provides for petitions of at least 25 per cent. and includes all State and county officers, including even the judiciary, for the benefit of disgruntled litigants. Within it is the scant mercy that no recall petition shall be filed until the office holder shall have been in office at least sixty days.

San Jose Clubman Drops Contest of Will of Half-Sister on Receiving Ten Thousand.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN JOSE, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Pierre De Saisset, bon vivant and local clubman, today accepted $10,000 in cash from his sister, Isabel, and dismissed the suit he recently filed contesting the will of the late Miss Dolores A. Sunol, his half-sister. The parties are descendants of one of the oldest families here. The estate involved is worth $150,000 to $200,000.

Miss Sunol died as the result of an automobile accident at Alum Rock less than six months ago, and by a will executed about one year previous to her death, gave all her possessions to her half-sister, Isabel. No provision was made for the half-brother, Pierre. The latter started a contest alleging that his sister, Isabel, who had been living with Miss Sunol for ten years or more, had influenced her.

Considerable surprise was manifested today when it became known that the case had been compromised as the skirmishes in the suit have been bitterly contested.

NEW PROMOTIONS ANNOUNCED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Announcement was made today that John C. Stone, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, has been promoted to chief clerk in the San Francisco office and his place in Sacramento will be filled by James O'Gara, now city ticket agent. Stone will succeed Eugene W. Clapp, who was recently appointed general agent for the freight department on the Sunset route. Harry S. Fenton will fill the place formerly held by O'Gara. Fenton is now employed in the up-town offices as ticket seller. Walter P. Van Sickler, agent at Fresno, becomes traveling freight agent for the Sunset route, and C. P. Jasper, agent at Bakersfield, succeeds Van Siskler at Fresno. C. W. Know, contracting agent at Riverside, is appointed district freight agent for the Sunset route at Los Angeles, and F. D. Ogden, formerly freight adjuster in this city, becomes contracting freight agent for the Sunset route offices in San Francisco.

DOCTOR ON TRIAL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

FRESNO, Nov. 1.—Judge Conley this morning swept aside all legal objections on the part of the attorneys for the defense and the trial of Dr. Jackson L. Martin is now well under way.

Mrs. Brittan, sister of the deceased wife of the accused physician, occupied the witness stand the entire forenoon. Her evidence was all to the effect that Dr. Martin neglected his wife after she took poison and thus allowed her to die.

The court room was again crowded with spectators, fully half being women. The attorneys for the defense, Everts and Ewing and C. W. Thomas, contested every point, and offered objections to almost every question of the District Attorney.

BARRY TAKES COMMAND.

REAR ADMIRAL DIRECTS FLEET.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Rear Admiral Edward B. Barry assumed command of the Pacific cruiser fleet today, relieving Rear Admiral Giles B. Harber, who is to leave for Honolulu next Monday. The cruiser West Virginia as a result of the change of command, becomes the flagship of the fleet, succeeding the California, which has been delegated to the position of flagship of the second division, assigned to Rear Admiral Chauncey Thomas. The fleet will sail for San Diego on Thursday to prepare for target practice, returning here November 17 to receive the Japanese training squadron which is now en route to this port. Later the cruisers will return to San Diego for the regular fall target practice.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Armed with a heavy potato masher, Mrs. White, wife of an Olympia carpenter, started in this morning, a la Carrie Nation, to wipe out the saloons of Olympia. After smashing in the windows of the White Front saloon, owned by John McIntosh, and starting for another one near by, she was apprehended and taken to police headquarters. After a consultation with Prosecuting Attorney Wilson, McIntosh refused to prosecute and the woman was released. At police headquarters she admitted she had mistaken the saloon, having started to clean up a place where it is alleged her husband and sons were spending their time and money. McIntosh stated he would not prosecute because he believed Mrs. White had just cause to complain.

BALANCE GOES ON WRONG SIDE

TREASURY DEFICIT SURPRISES EXPERTS.

OCTOBER SLUMP DUE TO CIVIL EXPENDITURES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The government's finances took a downward twist during the last three days of October, and tricked the experts who had been predicting a surplus for the month.

Exclusive of the Panama Canal charges, the receipts for the month were $55,266,441, and the expenditures were $58,560,322, which left a deficit in ordinary operations of $3,293,882. Add to that sum the month's cost of the work on the canal, and $5,295,083 stands on the wrong side of the ledger.

The close of September had shown a total surplus of more than $1,400,000, and it was the first time in the present fiscal year that the government took in more than it paid out.

SITUATION NOT UNUSUAL.

While the operations of the month bring the total treasury deficit for the fiscal year to more than $21,000,000—and the close of September saw it down to $15,000,000—the situation is not considered unusual.

Panama Canal expenditures in October show very nearly $3,000,000, which brings the sum spent this year to more than $13,000,000, as against $11,000,000 at the same time last year.

Even though the total deficit stands at $21,000,000, it was more than $37,000,000 at the same time last year, and to the difference treasury officials see reflected the economy policy of all government departments.

The civil expenditures for October were $2,000,000 more than in September, and in payments on the public debt took another $3,000,000.

It can be seen that the deficit for the month is easily accounted for by expenditures out of the ordinary.

EFFECT ON POSTAL BANKS.

It is now considered probable that deposits in the Postal Savings Banks may be converted into bonds bearing 2½ per cent. interest. The possibilities of revenue from this source, however, depend upon the promptness with which the banks are established in large numbers and the way deposits come in.

Twenty-two national banks came into existence in October with a total capitalization of $2,500,000. The majority were small banks with a capital of $50,000 or less.

The total national circulation is now $724,674,300, an increase of about $4,000,000 over last month.

The mints have been busy throughout the month coining more than $14,000,000, of which more than $13,000,000 was in gold.

The total cash in the treasury at the close of the month's business was $1,759,673,952, an increase of about $5,000,000.

TO RESUME NAVY DUTIES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Capt. Robert E. Peary, the Arctic explorer, returns to active duty in the Navy Department on November 3, as engineering expert for the Department of Justice, in cases before the Court of Claims involving construction work for the Naval Bureau of yards and docks.

This work was to the explorer's choice among several places offered him by Acting Secretary Winthrop. Peary would have preferred, it is said, to have been assigned to duty at the Naval Library to write of his travels in the frozen North.

The explorer has been on leave of absence from the department for ten years, during which time he has been engaged in Arctic exploration. Recently he was promoted to the rank of captain as the result of the death of a senior officer. A bill is now pending in Congress to make Peary a rear-admiral as a mark of recognition for his Polar exploits.

EXPECTS SHORT OLIVE CROP.

Spanish Bureau Informs Washington That Drought and Frosts Have Proven Disastrous.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—A very short olive crop is expected in Spain this year as a result of the cold spring and subsequent months of unbroken drought, which ended in heavy rains and hailstorms, according to an announcement of the Spanish Bureau of Agriculture, in a communication to the Department of Commerce and Labor.

The shortage has been to affect the price of olive oil and still further increase in quotations may be expected, it is said by those who are holding oil from the crop of last year, and they intend to keep their stocks in anticipation of higher prices.

CREDITORS GET DIVIDEND.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Creditors of the defunct Aetna Banking and Trust Company, which did business in Butte, Mont., and in this city, received today a final dividend of four per cent. by direction of the Comptroller of the Currency. Creditors have now received thirty-two per cent. of their claims. Butte creditors were involved to the amount of more than $306,000 and Washington creditors about $80,000. The company was closed by the Comptroller in 1906. It was incorporated under the laws of West Virginia.

COMPANY CHANGES HANDS

Nevada Consolidated, Which Earns Over $3,000,000 in Year, Elects New Board Members.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PORTLAND (Me.) Nov. 1.—Several changes were made in the directorate of the Nevada Consolidated Copper Company in the annual meeting here today, S. R. Guggenheim and J. N. Steele taking the place of James Phillips Jr., of Boston, and C. Hartman Kuh of Philadelphia. The board now consists of Murray Guggenheim, S. R. Guggenheim, S. W. Eccles, C. W. MacNeill; Charles Hayden, D. C. Jackling, W. E. Bennett, Judd Stewart, J. N. Steele, W. H. Smith and W. B. Thompson.

With the exception of Messrs. Bennett, Stewart, Steele and Smith, the members of the Nevada board are also directors of the Utah Copper Company which controls the Nevada.

President Phillips stated that the company's net profits for the year were $2,580,787 from which $2,982,644 was paid in dividends. During the year the company has acquired the Cumberland-Ely Copper Company and still holds an interest in the Nevada Northern Railroad and the Steptoe Valley Smelting & Mining Company.

RAILROAD RECORD.

AN IMPORTANT HEARING ENDS.

COMMERCE COMMISSION IS TO HEAR ARGUMENTS.

TRITE QUESTIONS HINGE ON DECISION.

MEMBER QUIZZES TRAFFIC MAN AT CHICAGO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Presentation of evidence in the rate hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission was closed this afternoon. Arguments on the evidence will be heard by the commission at Washington on December 14, and after due deliberation the commission will announce what it is generally considered will be the most important decision it has ever given.

The hearing was instituted at the instance of shippers, who rose in protest when western railroads announced that rates on fifty different commodities would be advanced. Opposition to this became general, and the railroads agreed not to put the new rates into effect until the Interstate Commerce Commision had conducted a hearing, at which the shippers should be heard as to the fairness of the proposed advances.

Hearings were held at New York and Chicago, conducted at first by an examiner, but later, owing to the paramount importance of the case, Commissioners Clark and Lane assumed the duty. It took the shippers only a few hours to introduce evidence, but an imposing mass of statistics and testimony went into the record for the railroads.

ATTACK ROAD'S EVIDENCE.

The shippers were represented by a number of attorneys, who confined their efforts largely to attacking the railway evidence rather than to original testimony for themselves. Railway men admitted that the advance in rates on the fifty commodities which formed the basis of the hearing was merely an entering wedge, the ultimate purpose being to advance rates all along the line.

According to the shippers, the final effect of this policy would be to place a tax of $400,000,000 on the consumers.

In a general way the argument presented by the railroads was that increased rates were necessary for the following reasons:

(1.) Increased wages to employees.

(2.) Increased cost of maintenance and operation.

(3.) Public demand for increased efficiency and expansion of transportation facilities.

The position taken by the shippers was that the railroads were receiving a generous return on their actual investment and among other things they sought to show on cross-examination that the low rate of earning shown in the statistics presented was due more to over capitalization than to low rates.

ASKS POINTED QUESTIONS.

During the examination of Stanley H. Johnson, assistant freight traffic manager of the Rock Island road, Commissioner Lane asked some pointed questions.

"I have found in my experience," he said, "that railroads find very little difficulty in raising rates without much justification and at any time they see fit. If there were no restraint placed on the railroads, could not the roads advance the rates without end?"

"Of course, if the railroads were utterly indifferent to public opinion and were not a body of fair minded men, the rates might be raised endlessly, but this would not be done, as the railroads only ask a fair profit," replied Mr. Johnson.

"Is it not a fact," asked Commissioner Lane, "that deep down in the mind of the traffic manager he knows that even the present rate is too high?"

This brought a laugh from the crowd during which the witness replied in the negative.

"In the course of his testimony Mr. Johnson admitted that no general advances in rates were made by the railroads in agreement with other competitors. "If they did," he added, "it would mean going out of business."

SAYS FARMERS EARN MORE.

Attorney Ellis, representing the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, introduced tables showing the effect which the proposed advances would have on traffic in South Dakota and North Dakota. The tables showed that the increased revenue on 1,824,667,806 pounds of wheat, coarse grain, flour and other mill priducts would amount to $246,675. His tables showed that of the proposed increase which on all commodities he estimated at $566,000, nearly half would come out of the farmers of the two Dakotas.

Mr. Ellis declared that while railroad rates have been standing still, the farmer has been earning $8.50 more per acre from his farm. The road, he declared, is asking only an increase of thirteen cents per acre for freight charges on farm products.

"That's not so bad," said the witness. "We helped the farmer to get that $8.50 and for our share we ask only thirteen cents."

SOCIETY TO HONOR CRAFT.

Daughters of War of 1812 Today Will Unveil Tablet on Oldest American Vessel Afloat.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Long deferred honor due to the Polly, a little two-masted schooner, said to be the oldest vessel afloat of American registry, will be paid tomorrow, when the National Society of United States Daughters of the War of 1812, will unveil in the schooner's cabin a bronze tablet which will serve to commemorate the service of the little vessel to the United States in battle.

Although the Polly is well past the century mark in age, having been built in 1805, she still is engaged in the coastwise trade. She was a factor of importance in the War of 1812, and passed through many thrilling experiences. At the moment war was declared, she proceeded to sea, and at the close of hostilities had a record of eleven vessels captured as prizes.

After the war the Polly made six trips to California by way of Cape Horn, the first in 1849. She has girdled the globe twice.

SAN FRANCISCO BLAMED.
NEVADA WANTS LOWER RATES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO (Nev.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Attorney General Stoddard has returned from Washington where, with the three Nevada railroad-commissioners, Henry Thurtell, H. F. Bartine and J. F. Shaughenessy he fought against any postponement of the time for the reducted class freight rates of Nevada to go into effect.

He declares that the recent meeting before the Interstate Commerce Commission, in Washington, showed that San Francisco is the real enemy to Nevada in fight for fair freight rates, and that in all probability the Southern Pacific Company would have granted Nevada better freight rates long ago but for the San Francisco jobbers.

When the Nevada Commissioners went before the Interstate Commerce Commission to argue against a postponement of the time set for the rates to go into effect, Attorney Seth Mann, representing San Francisco merchants, appeared and argued that the reduction of rates was unfair and that the time for them to go into effect should be set for a later date.

Road Raises Conductors' Pay.

BIRMINGHAM, (Ala.) Nov. 1.—Effective today, conductors on passenger and freight trains on the south and north divisions (main line,) the Birmingham Mineral and Alabama Mineral divisions of the Louisville & Nashville received an increase in wages, putting them on a par with the conductors on other divisions. Increases amounting from 12 1-2 to 17 1-2 per cent. are given.

HIS LAST FIGHT.

STORMY LIFE COMES TO END.

HEROIC FIGURE SUCCUMBS TO INVINCIBLE ENEMY.

After a Career Filled With Brave and Exciting Exploits on Many Battlefields, Maj. DeRudio Passes Away at His Home—Had Indomitable Fighting Spirit.

A gallant but hopeless struggle for life was brought to a close at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning when Maj. Charles C. DeRudio, U. S. A. (retired), passed away at his home, No. 1839 New England avenue. Dr. Bartolomeo Sasella, who returned from a four-months' tour of Europe in time to attend the last illness of his illustrious friend, assigned as the cause of death chronic bronchial catarrh, enfeeblement of the heart action and complications due to advanced age.

Maj. DeRudio died at the age of 78, after a life filled with heroic exploits in the service of his native and adopted countries, such as seldom fall to the lot even of a soldier.

At the age of 20 years a price was placed upon his head by the government of Austria because of his signal services to the liberator, Garibaldi, whom he served as an aide.

He was sentenced to the guillotine in 1858 for his part in the historic attempt upon the life of the third Napoleon. The sentence was commuted by the Empress Eugenie, and for several years DeRudio was a prisoner in the military prisons of Toulon and Saluto.

Escaping as by a miracle, he came to this country to give his services to the Union in the War of the Rebellion. Commissioned by President Grant for conspicuous bravery, he rose steadily in rank in the Second Infantry and the Fifth Cavalry, becoming a captain of the latter regiment in 1882.

DeRudio rendered distinguished services in the days of the reconstruction, and in a dozen campaigns against the Indians. He was with the Fifth Cavalry at the memorable battle and massacre of Little Big Horn, and saw service in seven posts in the wildest of the frontier days. Retiring in 1896, he was raised to the rank of retired major in 1904.

He leaves a widow, Mary Booth; two sisters, resident in Italy; a son, Hercules, of Singal, Ariz., and three daughters, Mrs. H. C. Scott, Mrs. N. B. Vickrey and Mrs. S. Z. Adair, all of this city.

The funeral services, to be held at the late residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, are to be private and under the auspices of the Liberal Club. Serving as honorary pall-bearers will be Col. C. C. Allen, Maj. E. F. C. Klokke, Maj. John A. Payne, Col. W. I. Sanborn, Gen. P. G. Wood and Charles S. Gravert, all companions of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion. The remains will be cremated.

WE BEAT THE BRITISH.

District Attorney Hare Hands Out the Punishment for Murderers Sooner Than in England.

Col. Tom Johnson, who has practiced law in the majority of the States, is a champion of the speedy justice of the American courts. He had a heated controversy yesterday with several of his friends in his endeavor to uphold his country on his pet subject.

He will be the recipient of several good dinners as a result of having proved to those who doubted his word that his praise of the courts was not based on facts.

To sustain his argument, Johnson cited the cases of American and English murderers.

"Look at the Crippen case; they don't deal out justice like that in this country," one of his friends told him.

"Los Angeles county's District Attorney hands out punishment to murderers quicker than that," was his retort. He set about to prove his assertion, and used the Figueroa murder case as an illustration.

Mrs. Belle Elmore disappeared in February. Crippen was arrested on July 29. He was found guilty of murder and sentenced on October 22 to be hanged.

Mrs. Figueroa was killed on May 22. Her husband was arrested on the next day. He was sentenced to death on July 29.

OCTOBER AHEAD.

Postoffice Business for the Month Shows Advance Over That of the Previous Year.

Postoffice receipts for October show a surprising increase over those of the corresponding period a year ago. The sale of stamps amounted to $129,391, while in October, 1909, only $107,385.39 was derived from this source. The increase is $22,005.61, or 20.49 per cent.

The monthly report shows that 454,056 pieces of mail incorrectly addressed or bearing no address were received. The correct addresses were found for 67,929 pieces, which should not have come to this city. The mail carriers delivered 82,058 pieces. The general delivery disposed of 396,059.

Callers at the general delivery numbered 165,381, exclusive of Sunday, averaging 6361 per day. Changes of address numbering an average of 949 were filed daily.

MYSTERIOUS MISS SMITH.

A woman who gave the name of "Miss Smith" entered the Receiving Hospital about 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning to have some cuts on her neck treated. She said that she lived at No. 305 South Spring street and that she was held up by a man who, after choking her, robbed her of $75. In the Ramona hotel, No. 305½ South Spring street, it was said that the woman was not known there. Miss Smith said when in the hospital that she was 35 years old and worked as a housekeeper.

USE POSLAM FIRST.

For Any Skin Disorder—Marvelous Results Are Quickly Seen.

Poslam appeared to Mr. George Perkins, Providence, R. I., to be high-priced, "But," he writes, "I thought to myself there must be something good about it or it would not be that price. Its effect was marvelous. I had a disease all over my body; in two weeks I was a new man; not a blemish or a pimple on my body."

Poslam is now universally used for all skin disorders, because it actually bears out the claims made for it in stopping itching at once, healing quickly and restoring the skin to normal condition. Use Poslam first in preference to anything less dependable for any form of eczema, acne, tetter, salt rheum, piles, barbers' and all other forms of itch, and, as well, for clearing the skin of minor blemishes, such as pimples, rashes, red noses, inflamed skin, etc. Poslam is sold in two sizes (trial, 50 cents; regular jars $2) by all druggists, particularly The Owl Drug Co. For free sample write to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

Telegrams From Toronto Indicate Tide More in Favor of Getting Big Convention Here.

Telegrams received from Toronto at Y. M. C. A. headquarters yesterday indicate that the chances are growing better for Los Angeles getting the next international convention.

A message from D. F. Luther said: "Strong presentation of the claims for Los Angeles for the next convention by President Letts enthusiastically received today. From present indications we have every assurance that we shall have the privilege of entertaining the 1913 convention, thanks for magnificent effort made by our members and friends."

President Letts telegraphed along the same lines.

ACCUSES COLORED WOMEN.

Arizona Mining Man Reports to Police That Two of Them Robbed Him of Large Sum.

James Ralph, said to be a mining man of Phoenix, reported at Police Headquarters early yesterday morning that while walking on East Fifth street, near the Arcade Station, he was held up by two negresses and robbed of about $450. Ralph did not report the robbery until several hours after he said it happened and no clew to the identity of the women was obtained.

Ralph stated that he was walking toward the depot and noticed that the negro women were following him. He said he quickened his pace and they then ran up to him and after thrusting a large revolver into his face demanded his money.

HONKERS BEWARE.

Only When Necessary Can the Sirens Screech—Discriminating Chauffeurs Above Par.

Autoists who delight in frightening pedestrians by sudden and shrill blasts with sirens may take warning, for Lawrence Flatau, a chauffeur, who was charged with blowing his auto horn more than necessary on Broadway, yesterday morning, was fined $10 by Police Judge Fredericksen.

Flatau was fined under the traffic ordinance and the police have been instructed to arrest all automobilists who "honk" more than necessary.

Just when it is necessary to "honk" has not been determined by the court, but it is permissable to "honk" when necessary, so the autoist who can distinguish between the right and wrong times need fear nothing, but may go on his way "honking."

Don't Be Bald.
Almost Any One May Secure a Good Growth of Hair.
You can easily find out for yourself. If your hair needs nourishment, if it is thinning, getting dry, harsh, brittle, or splitting at the ends, you simply have to pull a hair from the side of your head and closely examine the root. If the bulb is plump and round, is all right; if it is white and shrivelled, your hair is diseased and needs nourishment.
We have a remedy for hair troubles that cannot be surpassed. It has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 93 out of 100 cases when used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. It will erase dandruff, hair on bald heads if the scalp is not glazed or shiny. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should decide until they have put our claims to the actual test.
We are so sure that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will completely eradicate dandruff, prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair, that we positively give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for Rexall "93" Hair Tonic in every instance where it does not do as we claim or fails to give entire satisfaction to the user.
Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so pleasant to use as clear spring water, is perfumed with a pleasant odor, does not grease or gum the hair, and we have it in two sizes, priced 50 cents and $1.00. We urge you to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic on our recommendation and with our guarantee behind it. You certainly take no risk. CAUGHT FAR FROM HOME.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Nov. 1.—Sam L. Barinds, secretary of a detective agency here, said today that Addison J. Trunky, who was arrested in Salt Lake City yesterday, was employed by the McDonald Hay and Grain Company of this city as a bookkeeper. He left Memphis August 31 and shortly afterwards an examination of his books showed an alleged shortage of $3500. He is under indictment here on a charge of embezzlement.

TO BUILD CHURCH IN DAY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 1.—In order to erect a building, in which services can be held by members of the Parkway Christian Church during the winter, ministers and laymen will don their working clothes and on Thursday become carpenters. A call was read for volunteers in all Christian churches here on Sunday. Since last May the services of the church have been held in a tent but the cold weather makes a warmer place for worship necessary.

FAMILY OF TRAGEDIES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 1.—When Mrs. P. M. Guiou was killed at the Nevada asylum yesterday, tragedy stalked into her family for the fifth time within the last six months. April 30, last, Louis Hilson, an admirer of Mrs. W. P. Guiou, a daughter-in-law of the woman killed yesterday, murdered William Kinder in order to obtain a gun with which to kill the woman he loved. Later he shot and killed her and then killed himself. On August 10, W. D. Guiou shot his 16-year-old wife and dangerously wounded her, because, he said, he "loved her so." He is now in jail charged with an attempt to commit murder.

MAN AND WIFE LAND IN JAIL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Halloween had an unpleasant ending for Arthur Hugg and Mrs. Anna Hugg, his wife, both under 20, who started out to join in the merrymaking. Mr. Hugg attired himself in Mrs. Hugg's best dress, and Mrs. Hugg wore a suit of her husband's clothes. They were arrested and taken to the Harrison Street Station, despite tearful protests. They took their arrests as a joke, but they were placed in cells until friends arrived to give bail for them. They are charged with disorderly conduct. "I had no idea when we started out together from our home, dressed in each others' clothes, that we would be arrested, or we would not have gone out," said Mrs. Hugg. "Still, I don't care, but I can't say this is the happiest moment of my life to be locked up in this place."

DISCUSS GOOD ROADS BONDS.

STATE PROPOSAL TALKED OVER AT BOARD OF TRADE.

Democratic Rally—Councilman Surprises Mayor and Colleagues by Sending in His Resignation. Friends State He Has Worried Over Work Too Much.

PASADENA, Nov. 2.—The open meeting held in the Board of Trade rooms last night to listen to the arguments on the proposed State good roads bonds was attended by twenty-six business men. C. D. Daggett and J. M. Eddy, secretary of the State Good Roads Association and secretary of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce, argued for two hours against the proposal to create an indebtedness of $18,000,000 for State good roads. Daggett said the proposed measure is faulty, because it does not provide an adequate method of handling the work. While Eddy declared that the estimate of $6000 per mile is not enough. He stated that it will take ten years to build the roads and that the State engineer is already too busy to undertake the work. H. G. Cattell, assemblyman from the Pasadena district, defended the bill by stating that the measure is the best that can be proposed and makes ample provision for all necessities. He said that Gov. Gillett has no other interest than that of a good citizen because, when the bill is finally adopted, he will not be governor and will have no voice in the distribution of the funds.

A Democratic rally was held in Maccabee Hall last night by forty of the faithful who came out to hear the policies of the party enunciated by Prof. Lorin A. Handley, candidate on the ticket for Congress.

COUNCILMAN RESIGNS.

Councilman J. D. Morsereau sprung a surprise on the Mayor and fellow members yesterday morning by sending in a written resignation and declining to attend the meeting. He gave no reason for his withdrawal simply saying that the Council has extended to him 1001 favors and he wanted it to make it 1002 and accept his resignation. Morsereau was appointed from the Third Ward three years ago to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Councilman Forrester. His friends state that he has also had the move in mind for some time; that the work annoyed him very much causing him many sleepless nights worrying over measures which he has been unable to get through. He has been a hard worker and had charge of many important measures. He fostered the anti-Sunday theater measure and was greatly disappointed in having the Mayor and three members of the Council disagree with him, thus causing the bill to fail to pass. He has also been chairman of the Municipal Lighting Committee and the fight which he has carried on to make a plant a financial success has caused much worry. It was rumored yesterday that Morsereau resigned from the Council in order to devote his entire time to his candidacy for Mayor of Pasadena at the coming election. However, sometime it has been reported that he would be a candidate, although it is said he constantly refused to have his name used.

An effort was made at yesterday's session of the Council to have that body go on record as against the proposed Amendment No. 1 to be voted on at the general election next Tuesday,

PASADENA, Nov. 2.—The open meeting held in the Board of Trade rooms last night to listen to the arguments on the proposed State good roads bonds was attended by twenty-six business men. C. D. Daggett and J. M. Eddy, secretary of the State Good Roads Association and secretary of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce, argued for two hours against the proposal to create an indebtedness of $18,000,000 for State good roads. Daggett said the proposed measure is faulty, because it does not provide an adequate method of handling the work, while Eddy declared that the estimate of $6000 per mile is not enough. He stated that it will take ten years to build the roads and that the State Engineer is already too busy to undertake the work. H. G. Cattell, assemblyman from the Pasadena district, defended the bill by stating that the measure is the best that can be proposed and makes ample provision for all necessities. He said that Gov. Gillett has no other interest than that of a good citizen because, when the bill is finally adopted, he will not be governor and will have no voice in the distribution of the funds.

A Democratic rally was held in Maccabee Hall last night by forty of the faithful who came out to hear the policies of the party enunciated by Prof. Loris A. Handley, candidate on the ticket for Congress.

COUNCILMAN RESIGNS.

Councilman J. D. Mersereau sprung a surprise on the Mayor and fellow members yesterday morning by sending in his written resignation and declining to attend the meeting. He gave no reason for his withdrawal simply saying that the Council has extended to him 1001 favors and he wanted it to make it 1002 and accept his resignation. Mersereau was appointed from the Third Ward three years ago to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Councilman Wooster. His friends state that he has had the move in mind for some time; that the work annoyed him very much causing him many sleepless nights worrying over matters which he has been unable to get through. He has been a hard worker and has had charge of many important measures. He fostered the anti-Sunday theater measure and was greatly disappointed in having the Mayor and three members of the Council disagree with him, thus causing the bill to fail to pass. He has also been chairman of the Municipal Lighting Committee and the light which he has carried on to make the plant a financial success has caused him much worry. It was rumored yesterday that Mersereau resigned from the Council in order to devote his energies to his candidacy for Mayor of Pasadena at the coming election. For sometime it has been reported that he would be a candidate, although it is said he constantly refused to have his name used.

An effort was made at yesterday's session of the Council to have that body go on record as against the proposed Amendment No. 1 to be voted on at the general election next Tuesday, which provides that all railroads and public service corporations shall be taxed directly by the State, thus withdrawing the properties of such corporations from taxation by counties and municipalities. Auditor Kellogg made a short address opposing the amendment while Councilman Cattell, who is also an Assemblyman, spoke in favor of the measure. The argument grew so spirited that Councilman Hotaling moved to adjourn and Mayor Earley stated that he did not believe it was within the province of the Council to endeavor to attempt to prejudice the minds of the general voters one way or the other.

Thomas Holmes of No. 523 South Fair Oaks avenue applied to the Council for a permit to build an aeroplane stable for housing a bird machine he expects to build. With a view of fostering an infant industry and promoting the construction of flying machines in Pasadena Councilman Hotaling moved the permit be granted.

The National Lumber Company made a temporary winning before the Council yesterday in getting a permit to construct a temporary lumber shed on North Broadway street in face of the opposition offered by the angry neighbors. The City Attorney has been meditating for several months over a proposed fire limit ordinance and until he makes up his mind regarding what should be done the lumber company will be allowed to proceed.

The Building Inspector announced yesterday that the building permits for October this year exceeded those of any other October in the history of the city. The total value for the month was $216,536 as against $138,000 for October, 1909, which was the largest for any previous year.

Michael Doherty, a messenger boy who lives at No. 602 North Los Robles avenue, was severely injured yesterday afternoon by falling from the rear platform of a moving street car. He struck the back part of his head on the cement pavement, cutting a long gash and being rendered semi-unconscious for two hours. His wounds were dressed at the Emergency Hospital after which he was taken to his home.

PURSUED BY CAVALRY.

William Lewis bolted into the Police station late yesterday afternoon and demanded protection from a regiment of cavalry which he alleged was trying to kill him. He stated that his home was in Riverside and that he had run all the way. The Chief of police of Riverside came and took him home last night.

The Valley Hunt Club tennis tournament opened yesterday. The forenoon was devoted to woman's singles. Miss Markham won over Miss Cordelia Lee 6-2, 6-3; Miss Martha Wilson won from Gladys Gardner 6-1, 6-3; Miss Markham won from Miss Pattie Lee 6-1, 6-2. The afternoon was devoted to men's singles in which Gansenhorn won from Roy Hull 6-4, 6-3; Henry T. Fuller won from Ralph S. Macdonnell 6-1, 6-2. Women's doubles will be played this morning while the afternoon will be taken up with men's doubles.

One of the largest and most elaborate weddings of the season was that of Miss Fay Compton, daughter of Mrs. P. L. Compton, No. 701 Fair Oaks avenue, and Roy Pyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pyle of Lake avenue, which took place at the Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Smith officiating. The church was prettily decorated by the sorority of which the bride is a member. The ushers were Misses May Huddleston, Willa Zediker, Flossie Showmaker, Ruth Wilgrubham. The bridesmaids were Misses Hannah True, Ethel and Bertha Randall of Monrovia, honor was Miss Edith Fontleroy man was Fontleroy of the bride. Following the wedding the bridal couple left for their ranch near Bard, Cal.

Another church wedding of last night was that of Miss Earnestine Topliff of Pasadena and William G. Wheatley of Glendale, which took place at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Elder H. J. Hubbard officiating. Miss Mable Loggie was bridesmaid and Roy Ransome of Los Angeles best man. Following the service the wedding party went to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Topliff, where a reception and wedding supper was given.

A pretty home wedding of last night was that of Miss Stella Van Cleave and George L. Hilbert, which took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hougham, No. 34 Galena avenue. Rev. F. G. H. Stevens performed the ceremony. A wedding collation was served.

SANTA BARBARA.

SUPPORT JAMES AND TELL WHY.

CHANNEL CITY LAWYERS STATE REASONS.

"Knowing That He Is Eminently Fitted, Both in Character and Training, To Hold the Position He Is Now Filling," They Give Him Their Heartiest Indorsement.

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 1.—Attorneys of Santa Barbara have joined in working a non-partisan indorsement of the candidacy of William P. James, who is before the voters for election to the unexpired term as Associate Justice of the District Court of Appeals. Members of the Santa Barbara bar are in favor of returning Judge James to the Appellate bench. A statement issued to the voters follows:

"Your attention is called to the matter of the selection of an Associate Justice of the District Court of Appeals for this district. Associate Justice Taggart died this year and a successor was appointed in the person of Judge William P. James, who for many years has been a Judge of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county. Judge James resigned his position as Superior Judge upon being appointed to the District Court of Appeals and also withdrew as a candidate for the Supreme Court Justiceship.

"At the time this appointment was made is was believed that the appointment of Judge James would hold until the election of 1912, but upon further consideration of the law affecting such matters it was deemed best by the Governor to include the office in the proclamation for the election this year. As no party nominations had been made for the office and as it was too late for any such nominations to be made, it became necessary for Judge James to become an independent candidate to succeed himself for the unexpired term. His name will appear in the independent column only, as will also the name of one other candidate for the same office.

"Having had an opportunity of observing the work done by Judge James during his long service on the bench, and knowing that he is eminently fitted both in character and training to hold the position he is now filling, we do give him our most hearty indorsement and recommend that all voters, irrespective of party cast their votes for him at the coming election. We know that Judge James is an unbiased and able judge whose services on the bench the people cannot afford to lose. He is entitled to the support of every citizen who believes in a non-partisan judiciary, and who believes in retaining on the bench men who have rendered and are rendering fearless and efficient service."

The statement is signed by Louis A. Roseberry, W. S. Day, District Attorney; R. B. Canfield, J. W. Smith, B. F. Thomas, E. A. Rizor, William C. Day, Henley C. Booth, Ralph W. Schoonover, Jesse P. Osborne, Fred H. Schaner, G. W. Meals, W. P. Butcher, City Attorney; W. C. Gammill, G. H. Gould, J. J. Perkins, H. M. Buck, Jarrett T. Richards, Charles F. Carrier, John J. Squier, C. A. Thompson, James L. Barker, J. F. Conkey, James Gooden, Henry P. Starbuck, J. F. Frick and William G. Griffith.

DEATH OF PIONEER.

Late Veteran of Santa Monica Eccentric About Beard Which Was Five Feet Long.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 1.—Marcus D. Feather, a pioneer resident of this city, died suddenly Sunday night at his home on Oregon avenue. He had been a resident of Santa Monica for twenty-five years, was 70 years of age, and had been enjoying good health until last night.

Mr. Feather was a native of Virginia and during the Civil War served with a regiment in the Confederate Army. Throughout his life he was the friend of dumb animals and his home was always the rendezvous for friendless pets that had paid him a visit while sick or hungry.

He was eccentric in the matter of growth of beard, and a generation has passed since he trimmed his his whiskers. His beard he wore closely knotted and rolled in a tight coil beneath his chin. It was five feet long.

He leaves an adopted daughter, Mrs. Frank Wright of this city, and a nephew, Elliott Feather of Comanche, Ariz.

COMMISSION PLAN.

Santa Monicans who favor the commission form of government are still giving consideration to proposed amendments to the freeholder charter. These they expect to complete and submit to the people in time for ratification by the Legislature in January.

The plan is to replace the present Mayor and seven Aldermen with a commission of three men, who will receive salaries of sufficient size to permit the commissioners to devote their entire time to the management of city affairs.

PLAN BOULEVARD.

The City Council last night received a petition for the permanent improvement of Seventh street northward from Nevada avenue to the canyon. This is one of the very few streets running through the city from north to south, and the improvement is to make a first-class boulevard, which is now lined on either side with a double row of stately eucalyptus trees. Through the Palisades the trolley line has a franchise, but the desire is to transfer this to Eighth street, to the end that the trees may be preserved.

LONG BEACH.

DOES A TURN AS HE FALLS.

FORMER ACROBAT SEVERELY INJURED BY DROP.

While Acting as Lineman He Grasps Live Wire With Gloved Hand but Gets a Terrible Shock. Shoulder Blade and Rib Broken by Striking on a Cross Tie.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 1.—His former training as an acrobat today proved useful and probably saved the life of Charles Hetz, a lineman in the employ of the Pacific Electric, who lives at No. 954 1-2 Central avenue, Los Angeles.

Hetz was at work on the wires for the new Seventh-street line at the Southern Pacific crossing west of town when he grasped a live wire carrying 550 volts. He wrenched loose with such vigor that he lost his balance and fell from the tower wagon to the ground, a distance of twenty-five feet, and, striking on his left shoulder on a cross tie, had the shoulder blade broken and also one rib, beside bad bruises on the shoulders.

The man was until recently a professional acrobat with a traveling circus, and when he fell he did a double turn backward in the air, an old stunt used in falling into a net, thereby breaking the force of his fall and avoiding a drop on the steel rails.

After being given temporary attention Hetz was sent home. He is married and has one child. Hetz was using gloves, but received a shock despite this protection.

JUNK DEALER HURT.

Samuel Josephson, a junk dealer of No. 716 East Washington street, Los Angeles, was injured this morning in a runaway. Josephson was climbing into his wagon when his horses became frightened and ran away. Josephson was thrown to the pavement and run over, the wheels passing over his right hand and left ankle. One finger is cut off, the ankle bone is broken and, in addition, the victim has a bad scalp wound and numerous bruises. Josephson is under medical care at a residence near the accident. The horses in their flight tore down a fence, and a woman thought she saw her babe under the wreck. The section of fence was lifted and then it was found that another woman had seized the infant and carried it into her home out of harm's way.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday ordered the improvement of American avenue from Hill-street north to Willows, where it will connect with the boulevard. Tomorrow the Long Beach board of public works will order the improvement of the thoroughfare from Anaheim to Hill street, which will give an improved roadway into the city from the Long Beach-Los Angeles boulevard.

FINDS DEADLY CLUB.

Chief Moyer this morning, searching the shack and barn of J. S. Ranous, the old man murdered a month ago and whose body was found last week in a manure pile, found a club which may have been used by the slayer. It is two feet long and an inch and a half thick, and very heavy. Deputy sheriff Aguirre was in the city this morning in consultation with the chief and this afternoon the officers went to the scene to investigate evidence that may lead to another arrest and still further implicate Apodoco, the Mexbut released after the inquest, is at DeVoe, Ranous' son-in-law, arrested but released after the inquest, is at home preparing to remove to Bakersfield where he has a hauling contract.

Owners of booths and concessions on the Westminster site, just west of the pier, who were notified some time ago that they might have to vacate today to make room for the big nine-story block to be erected by W. L. Porterfield and New York associates, received no hurry orders today and will remain. Porterfield has until the last of this month to redeem the property which was sold under mortgage foreclosure a year ago for $85,000.

Postoffice receipts for October were $4,360.09, a gain of $210.57 over October, 1909, or 5½ per cent.

Edolia A. Biglow, aged 23, died last night at the home of her parents on East Seventh street. She was a native of Missouri and had resided in Long Beach four years.

H. Freitsch, a peddler from Los Angeles, arrested yesterday for disposing of his wares without a license and given twenty days in jail, this morning asked Sergt. Kutz for permission to chop wood in the jail yard for exercise, which was granted and for about five minutes the ax was heard swinging lustily, then silence. Investigating the sergeant found that Freitsch had taken French leave but left the ax. No effort will be made to find him as he was a troublesome prisoner and it was costing the city 60 cents a day to feed him.

Walter Ratliffe, chief clerk and assistant manager of Hotel Virginia resigned today effective at once, and will enter the automobile business in Los Angeles. Ratliffe was popular both with the guests and the management. For the present Cashier Johnstone will act as chief clerk and assistant manager.

COMPLETES PHONE SERVICE.

SOUTH PASADENA, Nov. 1.—The installation of telephones in the Santa Fe depot completes the service for dispatching trains by phone on all lines west of Albuquerque. This service has been in use east of Albuquerque for some time. The Baraca class of the Methodist Church elected the following officers: Edwin Cooper, president; John C. Jacobs, first vice-president; Carl Cooper, secretary; Dr. H. B. Stonebrook, treasurer; Rev. John Oliver, teacher, and Charles E. Carver, assistant teacher.

Facts For Sick Women

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Minneapolis, Minn.:—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women, I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman.

"I want this letter made public to show the benefits to be derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. John G. Moldan, 2115 Second St., North Minneapolis, Minn.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Veg-

Sample Skirt Sale

Fine Tailored Cloth Garments, Priced . . . $6.95

Back of this sample sale is the reputation of one of New York's prominent manufacturers—a reputation which means extremely much in the tailoring and the material, and in the style of every garment turned out by this maker.

The road and floor samples are the pride of every manufacturer. Concentrated attention is given to every detail. And now, since you know the merits of samples, consider that—

That these cloth skirts are in the identical styles which Los Angeles women would be eager to choose at full prices.

That there are panamas, mohairs, serges and mannish mixtures included in black, blue, gray and brown.

That these garments would ordinarily bring $8.50, $10, $12.50 and even $15. An extraordinary event, to be brief, Wednesday at $6.95.

Special— Our buyer just entered the Advertising Department to see the display we were going to give him on this sale. Upon examining more of the skirts he found that they were better than he even expected. The women of Los Angeles should certainly appreciate this sample sale at $6.95.

GOOSE EGGS FOR BEAVERS.

HITT ALLOWS THE CHAMPIONS BUT THREE SWATS.

GREGG LOSES ANOTHER GAME THROUGH BUNTS.

ROSS AND CARLISLE FURNISH FIELDING STUNTS.

Vernon, 2; Portland, 0.

All talk of the Coast League teams "laying down" this year was knocked silly yesterday when the Vernons played their heads off to beat the Champions, and did it because Hitt was in his best form and made them look like the Cubs when the Athletics turned themselves loose.

McCredie roared and ranted and fussed and fumed on the bench, but none of his men got as far as third base, for Hitt had them sewed up from the start. The three hits made off him were very scratchy ones and were really infield Texas leaguers or the high bouncing kind that makes a fielder sore to think of missing 'em. These three singles, two sacrifices and an error permitted the three men to get to second base, but all of them died there.

When the fans found that Gregg was to pitch they immediately jumped to the conclusion that he would give the Hapa a close shave, but they treated him to one. He was in hot water twice before they got their runs and they would have made more but for three fast double plays by the Beavers.

The Vernons started to score in the sixth when Burrell opened the inning with a single which was a hot liner which Olsen managed to stop with his left hand. In attempting to bunt a sacrifice, Ross popped a fly toward third base which Sheehan could not get in time to throw Ross out at first. Both advanced a base on Roy Brashear's grounder which Olsen threw to first for an out and when Hosp hit a grounder to Casey which was juggled, Burrell scored.

In the eighth with one out Burrell singled to left and ran to third when Ross bunted another safe hit toward third. Burrell easily scored after the catch of Roy Brashear's long sacrifice fly to left.

The real feature of the game, if it had one, was the fine pitching of Hitt who made things to suit himself. In six innings none of the Beavers got to first base, and in the other three innings the hits were made. Hitt fanned but three men, but he made the others pop the ball up or send it along the ground and never was in danger.

In the line of spectacular catches in the field Ross's run to center for Sheehan's fly in the fourth, and Carlisle's catch of Murray's fly in right field were the best. The pitching, however, was too good for much in the circus line.

The score:

CUT DOWN OAKS.

SEALS HELPING BEAVERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] What Portland could not do to Vernon in the South, San Francisco did to Oakland today. Although they had to go over a distance to accomplish it, the Seals spiked the guns of the Commuters more effectually even than if both leaders had been on top at the end of the day's play.

It was a hard fight that the Seals made to win in the eleventh by a 3 to 2 score and the credit is to be scattered among the players, not only for their batting that finally sent the victorious tally across the plate but for as sharp a bit of fielding as has been seen and that cut off an Oakland tally in the eighth when it would have been an extremely expensive score to the champions of last year and likewise to the Beavers.

Sutor pitched like clock-work for two innings while the Seals hit Willis from the jump. In the first inning, Shaw beat out a grounder to short but when McArdle sacrificed, Hunky was caught at third on a double, the ball being relayed back to Wolverton. Wares fumbled Melchoir's grounder and the right fielder tallied on a two bagger by Bodie, the latter being caught trying to stretch his two-sacker into a triple.

That run lasted until the wildness of Sutor presented the Oaks with their tally in the third. With one out, Pearce walked, went to second on Willis' single, to third on an out by Maggart and home on a wild pitch. Wares and Hogan walked but with the bases full Cameron fanned.

The first real excitement and the best fielding work of the game was in the eighth. Maggart, safe on McArdle's poor throw to first, went to second on a sacrifice. Hogan lined a single to right and Maggart started for home. Quick as a flash, Melchoir sent the ball to Sutor who whirled in on the plate and Maggart was out.

There was still more trouble in the ninth. Cutshaw doubled to left and was sent to third on Carroll's sacrifice. Wolverton walked and Pearce dumped the ball on the ground just in front of him, for a scratch hit that scored "Cutty."

Willis got into hot water in the same inning. Bodie singled to left and Tennant sacrificed. Vitt's single to center scored Bodie, although the ball was back to the plate in jig time. A passed ball and Willis was benched in a hurry and Lively struck out Berry and Mohler sent a high one to center.

The wind-up came in the tenth. Sutor drew four balls and Shaw sacrificed. Madden was sent in to run for Sutor and when Melchoir put a hot liner to Wares that went right through the short-stop for a double, Madden tallied. The score:

CRIGER TO BLAME.

THROWS THE BALL AWAY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It was a very calm, peaceful game that Criger tossed off at Buffalo Park this afternoon, allowing Graham's crew to take the opening game of the last series of the season of 1910 by a score of 3 to 2.

The members of both teams are getting "track-sore," as it were, and but little "pep" was injected in the matinee until about five innings had been played.

Both Criger and Arrellanes toiled along for two innings. Arrellanes being the steadier, without allowing a run to be put across.

In the third inning the Angels scored when Smith scampered across on his single which was trailed by Daley's single and Bernard's infield out.

Sacramento tied the score in its half of the third when Al Heister led off with a smashing double to center, was sacrificed to third by Eddie Burns, and scored on Brigg's infield out. Neither side scored until the eighth when the Angels made one run and untied the score.

In this frame Smith, who led off, skied to Burns, and Criger hit through Arrellanes, Eddie Burns making a wonderful stop in back of second base throwing Criger out at the initial sack. Daley hit to Burns who booted and then stole second and third, scoring on Bernard's drive which went between Spiesman's legs. Bernard stole second but died when Howard grounded out to Danzig.

Sacramento came right back in their half of the eighth and some timely slugging, coupled with errors by Criger and Nagle, allowed them to put the game on ice.

After Danzig had fanned out, Boardman doubled to left and went to third when Walter Nagle booted the ball. Lalonge dumped the ball along the first base line and Criger and Dillon made a rush for the globule while Howard covered first. Criger got hold of the ball and made a high toss to Howard, the ball carooning off his glove to the bleacher fence while Boardman scored and Lalonge went to third base.

Spiesman drew a walk and Arrellanes hit a drive through short scoring Lalonge and went to second base when Nagle again juggled the ball in left. Heister skied to Delmas and Burns ended the inning by flying to Howard. Los Angeles was knocked down in one, two, three order in its half of the ninth. Th escore:

LETTER OF THE LAW.

Sacramento Chief of Police Says He Will Stick to the Governor's Orders.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Local prize-fight promoters were again turned down today by Chief of Police Ahern when they endeavored to ascertain whether or not they could open up the boxing game in this city after the fashion of San Francisco, for ten and fifteen-round bouts.

Ahern says the instructions given him by Gov. Gillett last summer, shortly after the executive stopped the Jeffries-Johnson, Kauffman-Langford bouts and all other fighting in California, still stand good, and that anybody who pulls off bouts where admission is charged and rewards offered will be arrested.

Amateur bouts for three rounds will not be interefered with.

LINGENFELDER TO RACE.

Matched With Whittier To Meet at Coliseum in Next Sunday's Programme.

Eddie Lingenfelder and F. E. Whittier have been matched to ride a race at the Coliseum next Sunday, the race to be ten miles or more.

Manager Ernest Pye has sent to Salt Lake to secure T. M. Samuelson to ride in the open professional events. He is brother of William Samuelson who rode a match with Whittier last Sunday.

Pye is negotiating with a number of riders to come here with new machines. The scarcity of machines is a handicap, but the management believes it can secure a number in addition to those used by the big riders.

EIGHT TEAMS LEADING.

All Tied for First in Second Day of Six-day Bicycle Race at Boston.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—Four hours of steady grind without a spill or a spurt of any consequence marked the six-day bicycle race at the Boston Arena at 10 o'clock tonight, the sixth hour of the day's speeding, and the sixteenth hour of the event.

Eight teams were tied for first place with 369 miles and 7 laps. The Mitten-Walker team to-night was but one lap behind, while the Scheller-Jokus combination had made 369 miles and 2 laps. The latter team gained and lost a lap during the late afternoon.

JACK ATKIN WINNER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LATONIA, Nov. 1.—Jack Atkin demonstrated his racing qualities today by picking up 128 pounds and defeating about the best of the six furlong horses at the track in the feature race of the day. In the last furlong he caught the leaders and won handily by two lengths. Summary:

Five and one-half furlongs: Love Note, won; Freckle, second; Dottie B., third; time 1:07 2-5.

Six furlongs: McIvor, won; Detect, second; Grover Hughes, third; time, 1:13.

Six furlongs: Jack Atkin, won; Ethel D., second; Melisande, third; time, 1:13 2-5.

Mile and seventy yards: Joe Morris, won; Samaria, second; Tom Bigbee, third; time, 1:44 1-5.

Mile and three-sixteenths.—Romp, won; First Peep, second; Star Port, third; time, 1:59 3-5.

Results at Norfolk.

NORFOLK (Va.) Nov. 1.—The meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club to continue until November 19, began here today. The Norfolk Handicap for all ages, at seven furlongs, which had a purse of $1000, was the main attraction of the day, and it went to Guy Fisher, with High Private second. Results:

Six furlongs: Leah won, Cuttyhunk second, Via Octavia third; time, 1:15 1-5.

Nine furlongs: My Gal won, Algronel second, Wenna third; time, 1:57 2-5.

One and three-fourths miles: Lizzie Flat won, Westover second, Dr. Heard third; time, 3:50.

Seven furlongs: Guy Fisher won, High Private second, J. H. Houghton third; time, 1:28.

Five furlongs: Corinth won, Trustee second, Indora third; time, 1:02.

Mile and twenty yards: Takahira won, The Golden Butterfly second, Harvey F. third; time, 1:44.

Coast League Meeting.

Hap Hogan of the Vernon team and Henry Berry of the Angels are to leave this evening for San Francisco to attend the annual meeting of the Coast League. Rumors have been current for some time that there may be a scrap in the meeting over the election of secretary and president and also on the double umpire system for next year. The McCredies think that Graham and Longs are bad actors and hundreds of fan have an idea that "the gang," as a San Francisco paper calls them, have been in control too long. Berry said yesterday that he would make no fight on the double umpire system this year. He says that it has proven a very good thing and that the fans want it. One umpire cannot run a game and see everything and the attendance will surely be effected if but one is used. The league will surely make a mistake if it does not hire six men.

HURLEY BEATS BERCHER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Battling Hurley gave Willie Bercher the severest trouncing tonight that the East Side champion has ever received during his career as boxer. Twice Hurley had Bercher within a step of dreamland, but the gong saved him and robbed Hurley of the honors of a knockout.

DOUGHERTY WINNER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jeff Dougherty of New Haven won all the way over Harry Powers of Brooklyn in the star bout of ten rounds at the Reno A. C., of Brooklyn, tonight. Dougherty sent Powers to the mat twice in the sixth round with a right and left to the jaw.

BOUT GOES DRAW.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frank Madden of South Brooklyn and Joe Seiger of Denver fought ten fast rounds to a draw in the star bout at Brown's gymnasium tonight.

Amateur Billiards.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 1.—A. D. Strasser, of this city, carried away the second game from Kansas City tonight in the tournament of the amateur three-cushion billiard league, when he defeated Richard Norgrove, of the Western city. Strasser's average was .58, and Norgrove's .28, the latter being able to run up but 24 against Strasser's 50, which required 86 innings for the latter.

FOR SALE—

PUBLIC NOTICE.

I have decided to let the early buyers of lots in my Arlington Square Tract reap a rich harvest. Right now you can buy lots for $675 up; you need only $25 cash, December 1st every unsold lot will be advanced $50 in price. And there will be further advances from time to time. They will come, take it from me; they can't help it, as the lots are being sold far below the price of adjoining property. You ought to see Arlington Square. A clean, healthy place, just south of the West Adams district. Served by three car lines, with 5c fare. Gas, electricity, cement walks and curbs, paved streets, beautifully planted parkings; an ideal place for your home; where you will be sure that your property is constantly improving. See Arlington Square this week. Come to my office or see Mr. Potter at 2113 W. Jefferson st. He has an automobile there and will show you about.

FOR SALE—
THE BEST ACRE BUY,
$10 CASH—$10 MONTHLY.
CLOSE TO THE CITY.

Select an acre close to town; in the line of the greatest growth and you will find it a money maker in more ways than one; the city will be growing up to you all the time, and your acre will steadily increase in value; further you can turn your belongings into a source of profit—chickens, bees, garden, and fruit trees; you won't have to give up your work here in town. If you live at Somerset—and that is where this acre is located; it is 30 minutes' walk to Pacific Electric; it is a rich sandy loam; abundant water is furnished free; schools here, stores, telephones, and the usual suburban conveniences; I will sell you a single acre cheap. See me, then see Somerset. Excursions every hour daily and up to 2 p.m. Sundays.

FOR SALE—
THIS LAND HAS EVERY ADVANTAGE
INCLUDING LOW PRICE.

Seldom you can find land that had EVERY advantage. In nine cases out of ten there is something wrong with every piece of acreage offered. I offer you in my Fresno Valley Tract land that actually DOES have every advantage—and I invite you to investigate for yourself—you'll be more than satisfied. This property lies just south of the city of Fresno, crossed by the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe Railways, each having stations at the tract. Ditch water costs but 75c per acre per year. Water for pumping can be had at only 16 feet, from point that I install free of charge. Successful crops are alfalfa, corn, tobacco, peaches, apricots, walnuts, figs, vegetables and berries. Conditions are perfect for general farming, dairying, poultry and hog raising. With a good town right at the property—with schools, stores, telephones, free rural delivery, etc., your family can have all the advantages. Yet this land can be bought at only $40 an acre up. Just make a small cash payment and put your place under cultivation. It will soon pay for itself. Come in and get my booklet, and see my handsome exhibit of products, showing the possibilities of this soil. Learn about my FREE EXCURSIONS.

A COMPARISON—
If you were offered a brick business block at a moderate valuation on terms of only a sufficient down payment to insure your good faith, with long enough time on the balance to pay for the property out of its established rental earnings, you couldn't wait to "trump it."
That is practically what we offer, except that it is not a brick block, but an investment that brings a much greater percentage of return.
We offer first-class 10-year-old full-bearing orange groves, in any size, in a fruitless section near Riverside, carrying the best and cheapest water right in Southern California, at the moderate price of $1250 per acre, including crop now on trees, on terms of $250 down. The crops will more than cover the balance of purchase price, which is payable in 8 annual installments. Deed and certificate of title at first payment.
The purchase price of a 10-acre grove would be $12,500. Amount required, $2500. Yearly payment $1250. It is a poor 10-acre orange grove that will not yield from $2500 upward per year. Making it a 100 per cent investment.
Thus you secure an income property of proven earning capacity on such terms that the income itself can be depended upon to pay for it inside the purchase time, besides each year bringing a larger yield and an added value.
To the skeptical this may appear like a pretense at "business philanthropy." It is really business, nevertheless. A large company is merely paying a premium on first business in order to improve an extensive, undeveloped adjacent holding.
Is the question of financial independence worth a little of your time?

LIFE'S SEAMY SIDE.

CHICAGO SWEPT BY CRIME WAVE

FOURTEEN MURDERS IN SIXTY DAYS, IS RECORD.

BURGLARIES AND HOLD-UPS ARE NUMBERLESS.

"UPLIFT" MOVEMENT MAKES MEN WALKING ARSENALS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chicago is cursed with a saturnalia of crime without parallel since the old feudal days when every man was compelled to carry arms for self protection. Within the last sixty days there have been fourteen murders, more than a hundred burglaries and numberless street holdups and other crimes and the wave of crime is constantly increasing. There have been few arrests and no convictions.

The police are vigilant and efficient but the trouble seems to be the inability to convict a criminal in Chicago. Some of the judges apparently go to the extremes to set free any criminal, so that they may have an excuse to go before some woman's club and lecture on the humanitarian work they are doing. This "uplift" business may be all right in theory, but it does not work out well in Chicago, the hotbed of the most vicious criminals in the world.

CRIMINALS GO FREE.

Even if a judge desires to punish crime it is next to impossible to get a jury that is not "fixed" and when a criminal is finally sent to the penitentiary or sentenced to die, the Supreme Court or the Pardon Board will upset the verdict and turn the man loose upon Chicago again.

The parole system is the curse of Chicago. Any criminal with influence can secure a parole and at once resume his calling. A large percentage of the crimes are committed by paroled convicts who count on their perfect organization to get them out of trouble if they are caught. This organization maintains high priced lawyers, jury "fixers," detectives, blackmailers, false witnesses and all the machinery necessary to confound and nullify the laws.

CITIZENS CARRY GUNS.

The laws forbid the peaceable citizen to go armed. As the law works in Chicago it ties the hands of a law abiding man while the thieves and murderers work their pleasure upon him. Notwithstanding the edict, Chicago is a vast armed camp, where every man must take care of himself. This is the haven of murderers, burglars, pickpockets, blackmailers, "dips," "strong arm" men, "confidence" workers and every other worker in the world of crime.

ADMITS COMMITTING FORGERY.

Man With Alias Pleads Guilty to Using Name of Reputable Citizen in Cashing Checks.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

REDDING, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A man arrested in Dunsmuir, September 19, under the name of J. O. Boyd, for passing a forged check for $70 in Redding, pleaded guilty on a forgery charge today. When he was arraigned he said his true name was Albert Fairbanks. Today he said his right name was Albert LaFlauer. The prisoner will be sentenced Friday. A Berkeley woman who was here a month ago identified LaFlauer as a man wanted in Alameda county for passing fourteen checks signed J. O. Boyd. The real J. O. Boyd is Bradstreet's representative in Sacramento. He lost his check book and bank book and the finder made good use of the money. LaFlauer is said to have been discharged dishonorably from the navy at Vallejo.

JAIL OLDEST SUSPECT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

GRAND FORKS (N. D.) Nov. 1.—Probably the oldest man ever arrested in the United States was imprisoned at Fort Totten today by Deputy Marshal H. P. Weed, when he placed in custody C. M. Ziebach, aged 107 years, on a charge of introducing liquor on the Indian reservation. Ziebach's case will be considered by the next Federal grand jury and in the meantime he will be allowed freedom under bonds.

PORTLAND WILL PROTEST.

Northern City, Accused of Padding Census, Will Demand Recount if Cut Is Too Big.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It became known today that Seneca C. Beach, Supervisor for the Portland District, quietly left Portland Sunday night and is now on his way to Washington to protest to Director Durand against the reduction in the local census, which, it has been announced from the national capital, is to be made. It is probable that if the Census Bureau insists on so heavy a cut as it has been intimated is in prospect, this city will demand a recount.

When special Agent Urban Hester concluded his investigation here it was rumored a cut of 14,000 would be made in Portland's census. Yesterday Durand intimated it would be considerably greater. Beach, who Hester admitted was not guilty of any intentional padding, is confident that the figures as originally submitted are approximately correct.

It is contended locally that Hester made sweeping reductions in the census of Chinese and Japanese as well as Italian laborers which was not justified.

DAMAGES FOR STOLEN SPOUSE.

Divorced Daughter-in-Law Gets $16,000 Verdict Against Former Butte Mayor.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

YAKIMA, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sixteen thousand dollars damages for the alienation of the affections of her former husband by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Mullins of Yakima, is the verdict rendered by a jury in favor of Mrs. John Mullins. The trial, which occupied an entire week, attracted much attention on account of the prominence of Mullins, who has a great deal of property at Yakima. The young couple, married June 10, 1905, were separated soon after the birth of their baby in 1906. Mullins obtained a divorce on the grounds of cruelty and desertion and then married Miss Mullins was employed as a stenographer by her former husband. Mullins is reputed to be worth a million. He was formerly a resident of Butte.

PROOF AGAINST CHLOROFORM.

Mrs. Larkin Escaped Death Eight Times and Gets Divorce From Playful Husband.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Administering chloroform to his sleeping wife is one of the pastimes of Lowden Larkin, according to the testimony of Mrs. Olive Larkin, given today at the trial of her divorce case.

Larkin had eight times administered the drug, said Mrs. Larkin, and one time the dose was so strong death was only averted by the prompt assistance of a physician.

These allegations were included in Mrs. Larkin's charge of cruelty preferred against her husband, and were substantiated by their 17-year-old daughter. The latter said her father aroused her at midnight and in a terror-stricken voice said her mother was dying and told her to summon a physician. This was done and the doctor declared that Mrs. Larkin was under the influence of chloroform.

The next morning the daughter confirmed this statement by discovering an empty bottle which had contained the drug and also the saturated handkerchief which had been used.

The divorce was granted with alimony. Larkin is worth $20,000.

WALKS INTO SEA ASLEEP.

Alaskan Miner Drowns Off Nome. New Diggings Net $1,000,000 in a Year.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 1.—Claus Lundell, a miner from the Kougarek District was drowned at Nome shortly before the steamer Northwestern departed for Seattle. He was a somnambulist and walked out of a lodging house into Bering sea.

A. L. Zepf, transportation manager for the Northern Navigation Company, reports that records of the pursers of his company show that they handled $800,000 of Iditarod and Innoko dust during the season just ended. Allowing the moderate sum of $200,000 for gold carried out by miners in their pouches, the total output for the new camps first season was $1,000,000.

Jack Le Samis, discoverer of the Clary Creek diggings, and later discoverer of the Squirrel River district in the Kobuck country., washed out $12,000 in nine days on Squirrel River with a partner's aid, the men having only the crudest implements.

HALLOWEEN PRANKS KILL TWO.

New York Girl Is Crushed Under Car. Truck Slays Second—Rag Doll Saves Tot's Life.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Halloween horse play resulted in the death of two youthful celebrants in New York city. A third child was saved in a sixty-foot fall by a big rag doll she was carrying.

Jennie Liss, aged 8, dancing through the streets in a long bridal gown, which she wore as a costume in a Halloween procession, tripped and fell beneath a street car. The trucks passed over her, crushing out her life.

Wesley Myers, a young Brooklyn boy, was pushed by a playmate whom he had hit with a stockingful of flour, and fell in front of a truck. His skull was fractured and he died later in a hospital.

Bertha Kalleck, aged 4, was more fortunate. Blindfolded, she was engaged in a search for a big rag doll which had been concealed against the wass, as a prize at a Halloween party. She found the doll, but at the same time fell through an open window to the pavement, three stories below. The rag doll landed beneath her, breaking her fall and saving her life.

NIP PERUVIAN REVOLT.

Government Officers Arrest Leaders in Threatened Uprising Caused by Boundary Dispute.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

LIMA (Peru) Nov. 1.—With the arrest of the leaders today, the government nipped in the bud a rebellious movement that appears to have been planned pretty thoroughly.

At Cuzco, a city of 30,000 population in the department of Cuzco, government agents uncovered plans last night for simultaneous uprisings in different places throughout the republic. The organizers were soon in custody and the government took action to insure tranquility.

The Peruvian boundary dispute with Ecuador resulted in friction in the ministry of Peru and for several months the domestic political situation has been disturbed. A Cabinet satisfactory to the people and able to cope effectively with international affairs, has been sought by President Leguia, but with so little success that the President recently threatened to resign.

On July 27 the Cabinet resigned because the Premier, Dr. Prado Ugartche, was opposed to the resignation of diplomatic relations with Ecuador, and policy advocated by other ministers.

One week later a new Cabinet was appointed with Salvador Cavero as Premier and Miniter of Justice.

FLYNN BEATS BARRY.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The stalling methods of Jim Barry of Chicago in the early rounds of the fight, lost him the decision in his bout with Porky Flynn of Boston at the Armory Athletic Association tonight. Though Barry scored three knockdowns during the fight to Flynn's one, the Boston heavyweight's aggressiveness brought him the decision.

CUPID WAITS.

LAUCK'S DAUGHTER TO WED WHEN DIVORCED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two of the best-known families in the State will become connected in matrimony, as soon as the Superior Court of this county hands down a decree confirming the interlocutory divorce obtained November 16 last, by Mrs. Vida L. Lawson. This will be two weeks from tomorrow.

The marriage of Mrs. Lawson to Simon J. Lubin will be celebrated immediately after the court frees the bride from the bonds of her present union. Mrs. Lawson admitted tonight her engagement to Mr. Lubin, but refused to state the date of the forthcoming ceremony. From other sources the information is obtained that it will not tarry after the divorce is granted.

Mrs. Lawson is the charming daughter of J. B. Lauck, adjutant-general of the State of California. She has a very wide circle of friends. The groom-to-be is Secrtary of the Weinstock-Lubin Company of San Francisco and Sacramento, one of the largest concerns in its line in the West. He is a son of David Lubin, organizer of the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome, Italy, and a phalanthropist of international reputation.

Mrs. Lawson was granted her interlocutory decree November 16 last on the grounds of failure to provide. Her husband, George J. Lawson, is a member of the firm of Lawson, Miller and Jardine, prominent contractors of San Francisco.

By prearrangement with Judge Post, the case was heard privately and every effort was made to keep it from the press. Gen. Lauck was the sole witness besides his daughter. Lawson was not represented by counsel. They were married in 1904. Four years later the wife came to Sacramento to her father.

Mrs. Lawson acknowledged tonight that it was currently reported she had met her future husband before she applied for a divorce from Lawson, but she denied that this was true. She asserted that their acquaintance had begun since the interlocutory divorce. She admitted that the wedding would take place shortly after the confirmation of the divorce.

Mrs. Lawson is a very handsome woman and a great favorite in social circles in both San Francisco and Sacramento. After leaving her husband she was seriously ill and her life was despaired of for a time.

NO DIVIDENDS.

OFFICERS SUED IN ST. LOUIS SHIP COMPANIES' BOOKS FROM STATE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 1.—Two days after receivership proceedings were instituted against the After-Thought Copper Company and its parent, the Great Western Gold Company, the directors of the concerns voted that their books and records should be removed at once from St. Louis to Indianapolis, according to testimony at the hearing before Special Commissioner Joseph A. Wright which was resumed today.

Thomas S. Henderson, vice-president of the company, it was testified, took the books under his arm and, accompanied by other officers, gave them to a hotel porter who was instructed to ship them immediately to Indianapolis. Henderson testified that he supposed the books were at Indianapolis where the companies opened offices a month ago.

The receivership was brought by John C. Grafing, who alleged he paid $3000 for 12,000 shares of stock. His petition alleged he never received a dividend and was assessed one and one-half cents a share. He refused to pay the assessment.

Henderson testified that the Great Western Gold Company was organized in 1901 with a capital stock of $10,000,000, none of which was ever paid. Stock to the value of $500,000 had been sold to 7000 persons, he said, but no dividend was ever paid and the companies are now $92,000 in debt.

F. Tennyson Neely of New York was the witness who testified about the removal of the books. Neely said he came here in September to reorganize the companies and negotiate a $50,000 loan. His plans were frustrated by Grafings suit.

CZAR APPROVES NEW "PALE."

Jews Will Be Permitted To Live in Heretofore Restricted Places as Result of Petition.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 1.—Emperor Nicholas approved today a resolution adopted by the Cabinet opening up new sections for the residence of Jews. Heretofore legal residence of Jews has been restricted to that section of the Polish provinces and the Ukraine delimited by the original Jewish segregation law and known as "the pale."

From time to time exceptions have been made in the case of scholars and Jews engaged in certain professions and trades.

Recently a campaign was made to drive back within the "pale" all Jews who were unable to establish a legal right of residence outside its confines. Imperial consent is now given to unrestricted residence of Jews in twelve districts in the provinces of Vitebsk, Volhynia, Mohilest, Poltava, and Kherson and the town of Yekaterinodar, the capital of Kuban.

The places affected are suburbs or towns within which Jews have already been permitted to live. The action of the Cabinet resulted from petitions of the inhabitants of the newly opened localities who desired the admission of Jewish residents as a means of improving local business conditions.

SAN FRANCISCO GIRL ELOPES.

Madeline Powers Quits College To Wed Banker's Son in East—Start West for Blessing.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON (Mass.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Madeline Powers, the 17-year-old daughter of Frank H. Powers of San Francisco, a student at Wellesley College eloped today with L. Seth Ulman, the 20-year-old son of a Lynn, Mass., banker. The couple quietly stole away to Nashua, N. H. the Gretna Green of New England, and were married, after which they started for San Francisco to seek forgiveness of the young bride's parents.

Young Ulman's parents were surprised when they learned of the marriage. "I can scarcely believe it," said Mrs. Ulman with astonishment. "We know Miss Powers and she is a very nice young lady, but we had no idea they were going to get married.

"What am I going to do about it? What can I do? I suppose we will have to forgive them, but I think they should have told us. We would have made no objection to their getting married if they loved each other, though they are both rather young."

TAYLOR TO RETURN HOME.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MORGANTOWN (Ky.) Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For the first time since the turbulent days of the Goebel-Taylor contest at Frankfort, former Gov. W. S. Taylor will return here, his old home, to speak during the remainder of the campaign in the interest of William Henry Jones, Republican candidate for Congress, from this district. He is scheduled to arrive here in a day or two and will lend his influence to Mr. Jones to try to carry the district which is threatening to go Democratic this year.

For ten years Mr. Taylor has stayed away from his home on account of the indictment being held against him charging him with being accessory to the murder of Gov. William Goebel. It has been reported that since he has been pardoned by Gov. Willson, ex-Gov. Taylor would return to Kentucky to stay, but it is now believed that he will make Indiana his home. By many the former Governor is held as a political martyr, and the Republicans believe that his presence will have a great effect on members of the party that have gone wrong in this section.

Sent away with hearty cheers and good wishes, the battleships Minnesota, Vermont, Idaho and Mississippi left the Philadelphia Navy Yard yesterday to join the twelve other ships of the fleet that is to make a European tour.

SKIRTS A-FLUTTER.

BEATS MA IN RACE FOR LOVE.

PARENT TRIES TO STOP GIRL FROM ELOPING.

Daughter Leads in Chase Through Stores and Yards in Redlands and Leaps into Auto in Which Youth Takes Her to San Bernardino Where License Is Obtained.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 1.—One of the most sensational elopements occurring in this section in years caused a big flutter at Redlands this morning, when Miss Mary L. Maier, 18 years old, a High School girl of that city, gave her mother an exciting chase through the business district, their course taking them through several stores, and to an automobile, in which Martin Tisdale, 19 years old, of Colton, was waiting.

The girl beat her mother to the big machine, into which she leaped, and away the lovers sped to this city, where the boy's father was in waiting with the necessary marriage license. He climbed into the machine, and they sped to Colton, where the marriage was formally solemnized.

The lovers became acquainted at the Redlands High School, which young Tisdale also attended. The girl's mother objected to the courtship, fearing what has occurred, and desired the girl to graduate before entering upon the serious responsibilities of wifehood. The lovers grew impatient, and secretly planned the elopement, with the aid of the youth's father.

When the young girl left the family home this morning, ostensibly to attend school, she took with her many of her personal belongings. These were later missed by the mother, who, becoming supicious, immediately went in search of her daughter, meeting her on the principal business street.

In the surprise of the moment each blurted out hot words, and quick as a flash the girl turned and fled, followed in hot haste by the elder woman. "Stop that girl," cried the mother to pedestrians, frantically. "Stop that woman," yelled the girl, on the verge of hysterics.

The girl led the way through several business houses and across private yards, finally reaching the automobile, when the mother was forced to give up the hopeless pursuit.

DEATH STOPS DIVORCE.

Fred J. Esler of the wholesale liquor firm of Ingersoll & Esler of this city, died this morning at San Francisco, while undergoing an operation. The news of his death comes on top of information from Reno, Nev., that Esler had just filed a second action for divorce against his wife. During the summer, Esler filed an action for divorce, which his wife contested, and it was dismissed. She filed a cross-complaint, naming a Mrs. Deets, widow of a former theatrical man, as co-respondent. Esler was intensely infatuated with the Deets woman, following her to Europe, and on their return both were injured when a Southern Pacific train near Ventura crashed into their automobile. It is believed here a property settlement, arranged two years ago between the deceased and his wife will prevent any action on her part should Esler have left his estate to Mrs. Deets.

Judge Oster handed down judgment for W. H. Robinson this morning in his suit against James Bledsoe to secure an interest in Flowing Wells, one of the famous stock-watering places on the Mojave Desert. Bledsoe holds a deed from the State, having bought as school lands. Robinson set up a claim to partnership, and this is sustained.

BAKER TIRES OF LIFE.

Ties Funnel Over Gas Jet and Roomer Is Found Asphyxiated by Landlady.

E. Pierson, a baker, 23 years of age, killed himself with illuminating gas in his room at No. 444 1-2 South Spring street. His body was found last night by Mrs. Josephine Mozet, the landlady, who opened his door to learn the cause of a strong odor of gas.

No cause for the young man's suicide is known. He seemed a robust chap, and though he had been out of work for some little time, he could easily have secured employment.

His preparation for death, however, showed deliberation. With a happy smile he approached Mrs. Mozet Monday evening and asked for a bit of string to tie a bundle of laundry. It was found that he had used this string to fasten a paper funnel over a gas jet near his bed. The funnel was so arranged that it remained in position, with the gas pouring over his face even after he had become limp and unconscious.

Pearson leaves a sister, Mrs. C. Light, of No. 900 Genahl street, and a father and mother who live near Seattle. The body was sent to Bresee Bros. morgue.

STIRRING THE SLEEPERS.

Evangelist Gets Busy With High Verbal Explosives in Pews of Nodding Churchmen.

Everybody sat up and took notice when Dr. Peters got busy with some of his giant powder from the divine arsenal, at the Broadway Christian Church, last night. Patience had ceased to be a virtue with the doctor when he had counted the same number of sleeping deacons on the front row, and no increase in the congregation of sinners.

Even the "devil's roost" was empty, so the evangelist began to light some short fuses, which were attached to the real stuff. It not only made a noise, but tore out in all directions, principally down the easy pews of sleeping churchmen.

Dr. Peters served notice last night that he would turn his entire attention to hypocrites and non-believers the ensuing ten nights, during which he will remain at the Broadway church.

WILL PROSECUTE HIM.

Deserts Wife Because He Objects to Offspring, and Is Traced to Eastern City.

Deputy Sheriff Sepulveda left yesterday for New Jersey to bring back William Speck, a Los Angeles mechanic, who is wanted here for wife desertion. A warrant for his arrest was given by Justice Baird, and Governor Gillett yesterday issued requisition papers calling on the Governor of New Jersey for the return of the prisoner.

Mrs. Speck, who is only 19 years of age, charges in her affidavit that Speck abandoned her February 17 last, shortly before she became a mother. She says that he objected to her bearing children, and when threats did not avail, he abused her. He even said he would destroy himself.

Unable to intimidate her, Speck left the city and was not heard from until a few days ago when the District Attorney's office was advised of his arrest.

Governeor Gillett telegraphed Dist. Atty. Fredericks, asking whether the prisoner would be prosecuted if brought back. Capt. Fredericks replied that the prosecution would be insisted upon and that the father of hte abandoned girl-wife is eager to see Speck punished at any expense.

PAINTER IS CRIPPLED.

Both Legs Are Crushed by Wheels of Freight Car in Sight of His Home.

P. C. Chamberlain, a painter, 65 years of age, of No. 417 Sunset Boulevard, lost both legs under a Los Angeles Pacific freight train, last night. He was walking down the boulevard on his way home and while crossing the tracks in front of the car barns, at the corner of Sunset Boulevard and North Broadway, almost at his very door, a freight train backed into him, knocking him down. The wheels of a car passed over his right leg just below the knee, and crushed his left leg a little above the ankle.

Chamberlain was sent to the Receiving Hospital where he arrived in such a low condition from shock and loss of blood that it was some time before he could be prepared for the double amputation.

As he was being attended to another amputation case was brought in. Leno Andrada, a Mexican section hand from Camp No. 4 of the Pacific Electric Company, at Saugus, missed his hold while climbing aboard a moving car and the toes of his left foot were crushed.

COMPLETE POLYTECHNIC.

Notable Addition to School Equipment of Fullerton Daughters of Veterans Organize.

FULLERTON, Nov. 1.—The Polytechnic High School of the Fullerton Union High School district has just been completed by the contractors, Dawson & Daniens, of Pasadena and will be ready for occupancy next Monday. This is an unusually fine school building for a town no larger than Fullerton.

The work of building was commenced June 18, since which date there has been quite a force of men engaged there. The structure stands at the rear of the High School building. It is 48 x 12 feet in size, is a wooden structure of two stories, has cement plaster on the outside and a composition roof. There are twelve large class or work rooms. The cost of this building will be $20,000.

RIDES ON WALK.

Miss Lena Ingraham, a teacher of art in the high schools here, was arrested last evening by Marshal Stone and was taken before Judge Kinney who fined her $20 for riding a bicycle on the sidewalks of the city. She has been warned by the town officer about the practice of riding on the walks, but failed to heed the admonition. Her fine was suspended during the time she forgets to ride on the walks.

Julia Ward Howe Tent, Number 7, Daughters of Veterans, was organized in this place last evening with twenty-four charter members. The instituting work was done by Mary A. Logan Tent of Orange and at its conclusion there was a spread which all enjoyed.

Give Your Stomach A Nice Vacation.

Don't Do It By Starving It Either—Let a Substitute Do the Work.

The old adage, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," applies just as well to the stomach, one of the most important organs of the human system, as it does to the man himself.

If your stomach is worn out and rebels against being further taxed beyond its limit, the only sensible thing you can do is to give it a rest. Employ a substitute for a short time and see if it will not more than repay you in results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a willing and most efficient substitute. They themselves digest every bit of food in the stomach in just the same way that the stomach itself would, were it well. They contain all the essential elements that the gastric juice and other digestive fluids of the stomach contain and actually act just the same and do just the same work as the natural fluids would do, were the stomach well and sound. They, therefore, relieve the stomach, just as one workman relieves another, and permit it to rest and recuperate and regain its normal health and strength.

This "vacation" idea was suggested by the letter of a prominent lawyer in Chicago. Read what he says: "I was engaged in the most momentous undertaking of my life in bringing about the coalition of certain great interests that meant much to me as well as my clients. It was not the work of days, but of months, I was working night and day almost, when at a very critical time my stomach went clear back on me. The undue mental strain brought it about and hurried up what would have happened later on.

"What I ate I had to literally force down and that was a source of misery as I had a sour stomach much of the time. My head ached. I was sluggish and began to lose my ambition to carry out my undertaking. It looked pretty gloomy for me and I confided my plight to one of my clients. He had been cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and at once went down to a drug store and brought a box up to the office.

"I had not taken a quarter of that box before I found that they would do all the work my stomach ever did; and as a rest or vacation was out of the question for me, I determined to give my stomach a vacation. I kept right on taking the tablets and braced up and went ahead with my work with renewed vigor, ate just as much as I ever did and carried out that undertaking to a successful issue. I feel that I have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to thank for saving me the handsomest fee I ever received as well as my reputation and last but not least my stomach."

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Persimmons, the puckering pear, as they are sometimes called, are ripe. They are arriving daily in large quantities from all parts of the state, and the demand for them is good. At present they are still pretty hard, and those which are received must first go through a curing process which removes the pucker producer partly, and which mellows the fruit greatly. The price on persimmons at present is quoting 5 cents a pound. They are packed in four-basket crates for shipment and retail purposes.

A good demand for citrus fruit was apparent and the price on grapefruit advanced to $3.75 a box. There was also a good demand for any oranges obtainable. There are at present not many oranges arriving. It is the quietest season of the year on this variety of fruit, owing to the fact that all shipments of Valencias have about finished and arrivals of Navels are still too small to make any showing. Prices on first-class oranges range from $4.50 to $5. Lemons are still holding at $5 per box.

The price on local eggs advanced 1 cent, making new quotations of candled 40 cents, and on case count 45 cents a dozen. Fancy pullet eggs which average 4 pounds less weight than the egg of the matured hen jobbed at 41 cents. Receipts of local eggs totaled only 69 cases.

Only the very heavy receipts of butter featured the market. They were 51,091 pounds. The demand for second grade stock was especially good. There were few changes in the notable butter situation.

Cheese receipts were 220 pounds. A decline in several of the eastern varieties was reported. Singles and longhorns were the best sellers, with northern fresh in good call also.

Potatoes continue to firm up more each day, and a further advance in the quotation on Highlands was announced in the morning. Receipts of spuds were 2510 sacks.

A better feeling was also noticeable in onions when no receipts were reported. There were a few sales of beans, but they were small and prices were steady. Receipts were only 50 sacks.

Sweet potato arrivals were 302 sacks. The demand for them was good, and the prices were steady, with an upward movement reported.

Apples were plentiful in the morning's arrivals. Total number of boxes received were 25,114. The demand was not limited to any particular variety.

An upward trend was reported in vegetables. Some of the bunch varieties increased a few cents per dozen. There was also a better tone prevalent in tomatoes, cucumbers and similar salad products.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE.

Bears Rule the Market, and Most of the Stocks Take a Decided Slump in Price.

The market on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday was signalized by a slump all the way along the line. The morning call was particularly bearish. California Midway was down 3 or 4 points, Consolidated Midway was down 2 points and the whole list was more or less effected. On the afternoon call, however, the recovery was rapid in California Midway, but Consolidated Midway was still at the low point. Mexican Commercial was also off, but Associated was stronger. Union was quite active and was somewhat stronger.

SAN FRANCISCO STOCKS.

Goldfields Consolidated Weak and the Tonopahs Also Have That Falling-Off Feeling.

[Special Service to The Times by B. F. Taylor, No. 112 West Third street, Los Angeles.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Goldfield stocks were weak, Cons. sold down to 6¼ and closed 6¾; Florence was offered at 5 at the close, but during the afternoon was offered as low as 4.90, closed 4.95, off 25. Tonopah Extension, naturally affected by the action of Florence, sold at 2. One lot, 1,000 City Electric, was sold with the dividends. Belmont losing 75 cents, closing at 3.75. There was nothing of importance doing in the Rawhides or Bullfrogs. Jumbo was off 5 cents at new low; Round Mountain Mines, 5 cents lower; Round Mountain Silver, 5 cents lower. Mines Gold Hills gained 10. Hills of the new New York curb that market opened for business on the leading Comstocks. Yellow Jacket was unchanged at 55 cents. Crown Point sold unchanged at 60 cents. Ophir was off 1. The production of the Tonopah mines last week showed a decrease of 3000 tons, valued at $300,000. There was a decrease over the week previous, as reports regarding the physical conditions of the Tonopah properties report the first-class. The production of the Tonopah Co. last week was valued at $60,000, from a 50 per cent. mill. The operations of the Tonopah Extension Company from February 1 to September 30 (seven local receipts of $381,113, total expenses for the same period $129,127, or a net profit of $251,986 for five months; the present cash on hand of the company amounts to $1,200,000; on January 1, 1911, the company anticipates a cash on hand in the neighborhood of $1,500,000, a portion of which will be applied to the building of the Montana Tonopah. The Montana Company has $250,000 in treasury.

The following is this week's prevailing Old Tonopah Curb quotations: 220 bids, Belmont 175; Montana Tonopah, 2½; MacNamara 30, West End 68½, Midway 10, Midway 35. The following bid and asked quotations:

THE WEATHER.

LOCAL OFFICE, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Nov. 1.—[Reported by A. B. Wollaber, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.10; at 5 p.m., 30.04. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 55 deg. and 61 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 97 per cent.; 5 p.m., 45 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 4 miles; 5 p.m., west, velocity 6 miles. Maximum temperature, 72 deg.; minimum, 54 deg. Rainfall for season, .87 of an inch; seasonal average, July 1 to July 30, 15.73 inches. Character of weather, 5 a.m., cloudy; 5 p.m., clear. Barometer reduced to sea level.

WEATHER CONDITIONS. — The pressure continues high over the Rocky Mountain region and the Pacific Slope, and over the Atlantic coast. Separating these two high areas is a moderate depression, which extends from the lake region southwestward to Texas. This disturbance has caused cloudy weather in the vicinity of the Great Lakes, portions of the Mississippi Valley and the Northwest, and light precipitation in Minnesota, South Dakota, Wyoming, extreme Western Montana, Eastern Washington and Southwestern Oregon. Elsewhere in the United States fair weather continues, with local cloudiness (high fog) along the Southern California coast. Temperature changes have been slight and unimportant. The indications are for fair weather in Los Angeles and vicinity tonight and Wednesday, possibly with some cloudiness or fog late tonight or Wednesday morning.

FORECASTS. — Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair tonight and Wednesday; light, variable winds.

Pasadena, Redlands, Riverside and San Bernardino: Fair tonight and Wednesday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Forecast:

San Francisco and vicinity: Fair Wednesday; not so warm; cloudy at night; light north wind, changing to southwest.

Santa Clara Valley: Fair; not so warm; light north wind.

Sacramento Valley: Fair; not so warm; light south wind.

San Joaquin Valley: Cloudy; light west wind.

Southern California: Fair; light north wind, changing to south.

Arizona: Fair Wednesday and Thursday.

PAINS THAT RACK A TIRED BACK

KIDNEY TROUBLES are too little understood. Many a backache, many an obstinate rheumatic pain, is only a hint that the kidneys are out of order and need repair. The kidneys are the blood-filters—the sewers of the body. Sound kidneys mean good blood; weak kidneys mean bad, poisoned blood—backache, dizzy spells, swellings of the limbs or joints, too frequent, scanty or painful urination, brick-dust sediment, gravel, lame back, weak back, tired back. If you have any of these troubles, don't dally. Give the weakened kidneys quick help—use Doan's Kidney Pills for quick relief and a lasting cure.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURE SICK KIDNEYS

"Every Picture Tells a Story"

YOU hear a great deal about uric acid trouble. This is only a form of kidney sickness. When weak, the kidneys pass off only a part of the uric poison. The rest remains in the body to irritate the nerves and disturb the organs. Uric acid causes heart trouble, sick headache, bad digestion, rheumatism, neuralgia, gout, dropsy and gravel. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve uric acid troubles by restoring perfect action of the kidneys. Sediment disappears, passages become free and regular, kidneys well. As you will see by reference to the opposite lower panel, we prove it by home testimony, and home testimony proves the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills everywhere.

LOS ANGELES PROOF

Lewis F. Hartgrove, 1212 E. Fourteenth Street, Los Angeles, Cal., says: "For some time I was annoyed by too frequent passages of the kidney secretions and I have every reason to believe that my kidneys were disordered by a fall I received. Finally I had my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills and after taking a few doses, I could see an improvement. This medicine went directly to the seat of my trouble and the contents of one box restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I have been free from every symptom of kidney complaint since."

Mrs. J. H. Armstrong, 371½ San Julian St., Los Angeles, Cal., says: "In May, my name to be used in recommendation of Doan's Kidney Pills, after they had been of great benefit to me. For a long time I suffered from sharp pains in the small of my back and it was difficult for me to stoop or lift. I also had headaches and attacks of dizziness and a difficulty existed with the kidney secretions, the passages being too frequent. My strength and energy left me and I was in bad shape when I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They acted promptly and before long had restored me to good health. I take pleasure in confirming all I have ever said regarding Doan's Kidney Pills."

HOME TESTIMONY

8,000 MILES OF GOOD WORDS FOR DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

At the home offices of Foster-Milburn Co., in Buffalo, upwards of 50,000 home testimonials are stored in a fire-proof valut. 4,000 different cities and towns in the United States are represented. Wherever there is a good daily or weekly paper to tell the story, home testimonials are published. Set in type, these testimonials average three to five inches. This type, placed in a continuous row, would reach to the top of the highest mountain in the world and nearly a mile down the other side. The lines of type placed end to end, would reach a distance of over 8,000 miles, equaling the diameter of the earth. 8,000 miles of good words for Doan's Kidney Pills, told by 50,000 tongues! That tells a wonderful story. And this does not include the good words told in other tongues, in other countries all over the civilized world.

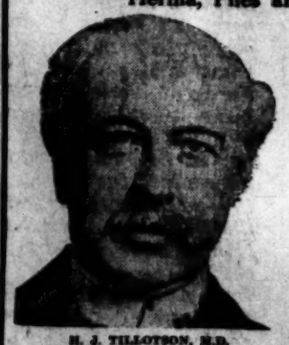
If the Pain is There it's Your Kidneys

CURED IN FIVE DAYS

Hernia, Piles and Varicose Veins



H. J. TILLOTSON, M.D. Established 10 Years.

Many Cures Cured Permanently in One TREATMENT. Ideal Time-Saving. Best Natural, Most Modern Detention from Occupation, Family or Home. A Radical and Permanent Cure. I Will Give $500 to Any Charity as a Guarantee That Every Statement in This Announcement Is True.

I cure rapidly, painlessly and at small expense. I will demonstrate actual results in your case. I will give conclusive evidence of my merit which is obtained and maintained by ability. I invite you to come to my office; I will explain my treatment for Hernia, Piles, Fistula, Varicose Veins, Rectal Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Kidney, Bladder and Rectal Diseases. I will give you free a physical examination; if necessary, a microscopical and chemical analysis of secretions to determine existing pathological and bacteriological conditions. Every person should take advantage of this opportunity to learn their true condition. Certainty of cure is what you want.

Varicose Veins

In the cure of Varicose Veins, Rupture and Associate Diseases of the Pelvic Region, I am successful in bringing to bear the curative power of Nature's forces in such a manner to supplant the old-time, wide-open surgical operations. Only it required several weeks to cure these conditions and the method which some still use is such as to endanger the life of the patient and requires a long period of convalescence. Now an absolute cure can be accomplished in a few days and with perfect safety.

TRUSSES SELDOM CURE RUPTURE.

Disregard for existing Hernias has cost many lives. The smallest hernia are the most dangerous to life, because of the increased liability to strangulation. I am aware that a great deal of fraud has been practiced on the public in connection with the alleged cure of Rupture, and when I say positively that I cure Rupture, to stay cured, I do not expect any one to accept my statement without investigation of my professional work. My claim to your confidence is based on absolute facts, accomplished results. A personal consultation. I will make a free examination and can explain every detail of your Hernia and demonstrate to you the curative value of the method I have discovered. I invite the careful investigation of any person who sincerely desires to be cured. I cure Rupture, in selected cases, with perfect safety, and entail no suffering, and do not detain you from occupation under Written Guarantee. Many cases cured to stay cured by one treatment.

PILES, FISTULA, RECTAL DISEASES.

These diseases are very common; most frequently found in persons of middle or advanced age; are exceedingly annoying, often very painful, and sometimes very dangerous, and frequently unfit one for pleasure or occupation. My treatment and successes are the result of years of experience; my treatment is kindly applied. I cure Piles without cutting. Some cases are cured by one or more treatments. If I do not cure your Piles, Fistula and other Rectal Diseases, my treatment does not cost you anything. Gentlemen in treatment for these troubles, treating many cases, so I guarantee a cure of Piles, Fistula, Fissures, Ulcers and all curable Rectal Diseases.

LIFE'S BLOOD STREAM.

The great clearinghouse of a person's body is the blood stream. Your blood cells are your bank account. Your only defence against disease is by and through blood corpuscles. My blood-making, blood-purifying remedies have been tried and proven. My blood-cell remedies nourish, strengthen and increase the blood cells and nourish the nerve centers. I want to prove to you at my expense that my blood-making, blood-purifying remedies give power to weak brains and life to nerve centers.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES.

With these diseases you may have more complications than are presented by any other diseased organs. By my searching illumination of the bladder I determine accurately the diseases and by my microscopical examination and urinalysis I make sure of the condition of the kidneys, thus laying foundations for scientific treatment.

WRITTEN GUARANTEE.

Dr. Tillotson's written guarantee means a cure or no pay for services. I guarantee to cure certain diseases or refund every dollar you have paid me for my services. My services cost you nothing unless I cure your Varicose Veins, Hernia, Piles, Fissures, Ulcerations, or any disease I guarantee to cure. My terms are reasonable and no more than you are willing and able to pay.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Lark Ellen Annual.

The annual meeting of the Lark Ellen News and Working Boys' Home Society will be held at 2 p. m. today, at the home at No. 428 East Whittier street.

Death of Mrs. Homer.

Mary A. Homer died yesterday at the residence at No. 614 Bonnie Brae street, aged 67. She was the mother of Clara B. Homer, who has been secretary of the Church Federation five years. Mrs. Homer was a widow. She came nine years ago from Ohio, where her son lives.

First in From Aqueduct.

Lester Mores, with a large white Locomobile flying a blue flag, was the first to return from the Times-Chamber of Commerce excursion along the Los Angeles aqueduct, according to all reports, having returned about 7 o'clock last night. Half a dozen more cars came in later.

Police Hold Chickens.

Despite the fact that poultry prices are at their best, five plump chickens are roosting in the basement of the Central Police Station awaiting an owner. They were turned over to the police yesterday by Joe Hynes, who conducts a bakery at No. 1111 Santa Fe avenue. He found them in a sack in an alley near Sacramento and Le Grand avenues early yesterday morning.

Red Cross Officers Elected.

For Conductor's Family.

"C. J. S." handed $20 to The Times yesterday for the relief of the family of Joseph Ostrow, the Pacific Electric conductor who lost both legs while trying to save a drunken man from a similar fate. "A Friend" sent $1 to The Times for the same purpose. This makes a total of $56 received by The Times for this family. Thirty-five dollars of this has been sent to Ostrow through the Pacific Electric, and the remaining $21 will be delivered today.

Anti-Suffragists to Meet.

A meeting of the Southern California Association Opposed to Women's Suffrage is announced to be held at the residence of Mrs. L. N. QUILT CONTES.

Prizes Awarded at the Broadway Department Store to Los Angeles Ladies.

More than 160 beautiful quilts were entered in the local Revolutionary Quilt Contest which closed yesterday at the Broadway Department Store. The three prizes given by the Los Angeles store were awarded to Mrs. L. B. C. Brundige of No. 715 West Forty-seventh street, Mrs. Robert M. Yost of No. 950 Euclid avenue and Mrs. J. D. Haskins of No. 2515 West Jefferson street.

The contest was planned by the manufacturers of the Reddisode Cotton Batts and each of its local distributors received and displayed all quilts entered during the past week. A committee appointed by the Broadway store yesterday afternoon awarded the local prizes of $25, $15 and $10.

This trio of quilts will be photographed and the historic and artistic value of each together with the age will be sent to the Reddisode Co., where they will be entered in the national contest and considered with the others received from the different cities.

The judges appointed by Goodin, Redd & Co., will award the money prizes amounting to $500, after November 15.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial trouble," writes Mrs. L. B. Arnold, of Denver, Colo. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief." For sale by all dealers.—[Adv.

WEALTHY MAN AIDED FRIENDS.

ACTED IN THE CAPACITY OF BANKER TO MANY.

Late Richard O'Neill, Whose Estate in San Diego County Has Been Appraised, Assisted Numerous Persons—County Highway Bonds Meet Good Demand.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 1.—The report of appraisers of the estate of the late Richard O'Neill inventories property not willed at a valuation of $400,692.48. This amount is exclusive of the Santa Margarita ranch and properties in the wholesale district of San Francisco, each being worth at least $1,000,000.

The appraisers' report shows that the wealthy rancher in a way acted in the capacity of banker to many persons in this county. Among the assets of the estate are two promissory notes, one for $35,000 and one for $60,000 given by Chas. S. Hardy, secured by a mortgage on Hardy's business property. Also a note and mortgage given by Johnson & Connell aggregating $21,000; a note and mortgage for $11,000 given by J. Chauncey Hayes and a note and mortgage for $10,000 given by the Simon Levi Company.

The report also shows that the estate received from James L. Flood, as final settlement of a former partnership, the sum of $140,369. The value of the Santa Margarita ranch is not included in the inventory.

With the close of this week's engagement attractions of the Orpheum circuit will no longer visit San Diego. Manager J. M. Dodge, of the Garrick theater, where the Orpheum acts were booked, states that because of lack of support he is obliged to cancel the bookings. Subscribers to seats, Dodgeavers, failed to keep their agreements. It is stated that in the near future the Garrick will pass into the hands of Sullivan & Considine.

BANK SELLS BONDS.

The Bank of Commerce & Trust Company has sold to N. W. Halsey & Co. $100,000 worth of the San Diego county highway bonds at a net profit of $4.30 over the premium paid the county. Financiers say the demand for local bonds is evidence that bond firms regard California securities among the best sellers on the market. To date the Bank of Commerce & Trust Company has taken up $600,000 of the $1,250,000 issue for good roads. Coupons returned to the county treasurer show that investors in all parts of the country are in possession of a block of the bonds.

Local firemen who took part in extinguishing the fire in the hold of the freighter Alaskan are to be rewarded with a cash donation to the relief fund. The presentation is to be made by officials of the company at a date when the Alaskan will next be in port.

The City Council has confirmed the appointment of J. M. Newkirk as auditor to succeed F. F. Woodford resigned.

The San Diego Chapter of the Red Cross elected Lyman J. Gage as a delegate to the National meeting to be held at Washington next year. Officers elected are: Chairman, Mrs. Geo. H. Ballou; vice chairman, Dr. Marie Averill; secretary, Mary J. Gale; treasurer, L. A. Bleckman; members executive board, Ernest E. White, Julius Wangenheim, M. German, Dr. Emma Reed, Mrs. W. B. Brust, Mrs. W. H. Holcomb.

UNIQUE AND OLD.

W. W. Todd of No. 600 West Vernon avenue possesses an unique paper which is almost one hundred years old. It is the original administration powers taken out by Mrs. Mary Watkinson for the estate of her husband, Stacy Watkinson of Burlington county, New Jersey, who was the grandfather of Mr. Todd. The seal of the county and the writing are very legible. Accompanying the old paper is a silken badge which showed that Stacy Watkinson was a member of that ancient organization called the George ... ington Benevolent Society.

MANY STORIES.

NORTHERN WITNESSES FOR THE GRAND JURY.

Carload of Them Leaves San Francisco for Los Angeles to Tell the Special Inquisitors About Dynamite Conspiracy. More Coming Later.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A carload of San Franciscans left tonight and this afternoon for Los Angeles to give their testimony before the special grand jury that is investigating the dynamiting of the Times Building, one month ago today. All the witnesses subpoenaed did not leave tonight, some being accommodated with later dates.

The principal witnesses are the officials of the Giant Powder Company, the owners of the launch Pastime, the Mission district residents of the Lavin and Ingersoll houses and the unionite officials.

Of the four groups the unionite one is interesting because it includes Olaf A. Tvietmoe, secretary-treasurer of the State Building Trades Council, Antone Johannsen, organizer for the building trades, Erick B. Morton, a laborite writer and agitator, H. H. Maddox and J. D. Graham. They were all friends of "Cocky" Schmidt and David Caplan, two of the men sought for complicity in the wrecking of the Times Building and the murder of twenty-one persons. With Mayor McCarthy and "Andy" Gallagher they represent the head and front of unionism in San Francisco.

The group from the powder works includes Bruce McCaull, sales clerk at the San Francisco office in the Kohl building here, who had most of the dealings with the trio of dynamiters; R. H. Rennie, sales agent, who also dealt with them; George H. Phillips, manager of the plant at Giant, Contra Costa county; Manuel Silva, who delivered the ten cases of gelatine sticks to the trio; William Flynn, who also participated in the delivery; Miss Caroline Briggs, who received the formula for the order in the chemical laboratory of the plant; Miss Paulsen and Miss Minor, who packed it, and Dr. H. E. Miller, chemist for the company.

What are termed "the launch group" will include Douglas Burrows and E. Howard Baxter, owners of the boat; Capt. John Stanley, who rented her to Schmidt and Caplan and Brice, Harry Piper, the jockey who was on board her and saw the burlap and bale ropes that were afterward found in the dynamite house on Nineteenth avenue and who also talked with both Caplan and Schmidt on board the launch, which had been renamed the Peerless. Witnesses from the Joost Hardware Company where the dynamiters bought the aluminum letters that disguised the boat are also included in "the launch group."

The Mission group includes Mrs. Belle Lavin, now in jail in Los Angeles, at whose house Schmidt lived for five months and with whom he went frequently to visit the Johannsens and Mortons; Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll, chum of Mrs. Lavin, at whose house Brice lived while preparing for his final work in the conspiracy; "Jack" Lofthouse, unionite mill worker and a part of the Lavin household; Mrs. W. H. Brown, who was the friend of Mrs. Lavin and perhaps some others of lesser importance.

The Ingersoll house and the Bryant terrace will probably be identified for the grand jury by photographs along with the Lavin house. Mrs. Ingersoll lived at 3656A Twentieth street, in a second-story flat, shown by a star in the photograph. Brice occupied a back room. The Bryant terrace building, where Morton lived, is shown by a cross, and his flat was the meeting place several times in September of many of the unionites with Schmidt and Caplan.

Group of Important San Francisco Witnesses,

OBSERVE SAINTS' DAY.

Appropiate Services Held in Various Catholic Churches— Reasons for Celebration.

"All Saints Day" was fittingly observed in the Catholic churches of the city yesterday. The usual Sunday services were conducted in most of the places of worship where several low masses were followed by high mass and in the afternoon and evening Vesper services.

At the Cathedral and St. Vincent's solemn high masses were the order of the morning. Father Haggerty, who recently arrived at the Cathedral, delivered the sermon in the morning. He chose his text from the Apocalypse of St. John, telling of the thousands who were in heaven. "Travel in any country you like and you will find statues erected to the heroes of that country. In France it is Napoleon, in England Wellington, in the United States Washington, and countless others, whether they be eminent statesmen, musicians, artists or of other lines.

Why should it be unusual for the Catholic church to venerate its heroes, to look up to its martyrs, its philosophers and wonderful church fathers? They hold the same place in the church that the heroes of the various countries hold for the nation and are revered in the same way. They should be the models of the remaining members of the church models after which we can all afford to pattern our lives."

Prof. Colby presided over the music at the Cathedral and Prof. Wilde had charge of this feature at St. Vincent's where Father Glass preached the sermon along lines similar to those of Father Haggerty's discourse.

FOUGHT INDIANS.

DEATH TAKES OSCAR MACY.

HE SERVED AS SHERIFF AND COUNTY SUPERVISOR.

ONCE PROPRIETOR OF THE BELLA UNION HOTEL.

In the passing of Oscar Macy yesterday morning at the family residence, No. 519 Plymouth street, Boyle Heights, at the age of 81 years, the city loses one of its few pioneers of the early 50's, and one who was prominently identified with the early life and development of Los Angeles. Macy succumbed to an attack of bronchial asthma from which he has been a mild sufferer many years.

Oscar Macy had been a resident of Los Angeles since 1852. During that time he held many responsible positions, among others city treasurer, county supervisor, and county jailer. During his term as supervisor the old county jail, which was recently razed to make way for the Hall of Records, was built. The structure at the time was an architectural triumph, and was known throughout the West as a model institution.

Like all the pioneers of the early 50's, Macy crossed the plains via the ox-team route in company with his father, mother, several relatives, and more than fifty families. The Macys came from Indiana, and nine months were consumed in the trip. The party was attacked by Indians several times en route, but managed to arrive in Los Angeles without casualties.

The first place that the Macys resided in Southern California was El Monte. Early in 1853, however, the family removed to Los Angeles, and ever since have resided here. The elder Macy shortly after his arrival became proprietor of the Bella Union Hotel on North Main street on the present site of the St. Charles. The hotel under the management of Mr. Macy became famous in the southland, and all the pioneers whose names are linked with early California history were guests of the Belle Union while in Los Angeles.

Among the relatives who survive Mr. Macy are one son, Oscar Macy, Jr., three daughters, Mrs. Irene Whitney, Misses Alice and Stella Macy, one brother, William Macy, Medford, Or., and four sisters, Mrs. Ellen Foy of Los Angeles, Mrs. Uranis Cheeseman, Medford; Mrs. Taliesin Evans, Oakland, and Mrs. Nancy Woodruff, Nevada City.

Mr. Macy was a member of the pioneer's society, and of other fraternal organizations. The funeral arrangements have not been made as yet, and will be announced later.

ENGLISH CASH INVESTED HERE.

REAL ESTATE AND OIL PAYING PROPOSITIONS.

Chief of British Marine Insurance Company States California Holdings Among Most Profitable His Concern Possesses—Surplus Funds To Be Sent Here in Large Amount.

Further investments for one of the largest marine insurance concerns of the world are the purpose of the coming of John Davies, of Liverpool, to Southern California. He is chief underwriter of the Underwriters' British & Foreign Marine Insurance Company, and with his wife arrived at the Alexandria last night.

"Our company has already a number of real estate investments here, and is also interested in the oil fields near Bakersfield. It is to inspect, to advise improvements, and further investments that I am here.

"I can truthfully say that our California holdings are among the most profitable we possess and are also among the most stable, so that it is not surprising that other insurance and English investment companies are placing so much capital in this part of the world."

Mr. Davies stated that his company has a reserve fund above ordinary reserve funds of nearly a million pounds sterling or about $5,000,000, a good share of which may come to this section of California.

"It is thirteen years since I visited Los Angeles and the growth is so astounding that I am not at all surprised at the fabulous tales that have reached me across the water. It is marvelous, marvelous," and Mr. Davies rubbed his hands with satisfaction for being partly instrumental in its development by reason of the capital he has put out here.

"And the Grand Canyon," he held up his hands much in the manner of the French tourist rather than the Englishman, while his wife stood plucking his coat, quietly informing him that it was time to dress for dinner. Before he would leave he had to express his opinion on the canyon. "It is certainly one of the greatest wonders of the world." Mr. Davies will remain here indefinitely.

OPPOSE SUNDAY LAWS.

"Sunday Laws, as Related to Civil Government," "Sunday Laws, as Related to Divine Government" and a "Review of Dr. Locke and Others on Sunday Laws," will be the subjects discussed at Blanchard Hall this evening. The constitutional objections to religious legislation will be considered by the Hon. Will D. Gould. President Andross, of the Southern California Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, will speak of the divine law, and W. M. Healey, secretary of the Religious Liberty Association, will review the attitude of Dr. Charles Edward Locke and other advocates of Sunday laws. There will be good music and everybody is invited to be present. The meeting begins at 7:30.

PAY-AS-YOU-ENTER CARS.

Coincident with the absorption of the Pacific Electric local lines the Los Angeles Railway Company yesterday put in operation the West Thirty-ninth-street line, carrying the sign above the regular "University" board. One-half of the University cars are routed to include West Thirty-ninth street Pay-as-you-enter cars were put in operation yesterday on the West Eleventh-street line, making three lines now using the new type of cars—Central avenue, West Ninth street and West Eleventh street.

SLEEPING AT LAST.

Old Man, Suffering from Insomnia Jumps from Second Story of Home and Dies.

A fear that insomnia, to which he was subject, would eventually drive him insane is believed to have been the reason for T. D. Hammon, seventy-five years old, taking his own life, early yesterday morning, by jumping from the second story of the residence of his son, M. F. Hammon, No. 1181 East Thirty-sixth street.

R. P. Crum, living at No. 1225 West Thirty-sixth street, chanced to pass the Hammon home at an early hour and he saw the body of the old man lying face down upon the lawn. He hurried to the spot thinking perhaps the old man had been injured, but he found that he was dead. Coroner Hartwell after hearing evidence decided the case to be one of suicide.

M. E. Hammon declared that his father had often said that he would eventually become insane, as he could not sleep. This belief so preyed upon the elder man's mind that he became mentally weak, it was said. It was not known, however, that his condition was such that there was danger of his harming himself. The remains were removed to the undertaking establishment of Peck & Chase.

WIFE IN SUIT ACCUSES WIDOW

SUES FOR A DIVORCE NAMING HER CORESPONDENT.

Complaint Sets Forth in Asserting Language Alleged Gay Doings of Prominent Automobile Dealer and Relict of "Lucky" Baldwin—Sensational Charges.

An action in divorce was filed in the Superior Court, yesterday, by Anna M. Howard, wife of William D. Howard, proprietor of the W. D. Howard Motor Car Company, at Pico and Flower streets, involving serious charges against her husband and Mrs. Lilly Bennett Baldwin, the surviving widow of Elias J. ("Lucky") Baldwin.

The Howards were married in Salina, Kan., September 12, 1901, and it is alleged as a part of the complaint that Howard, while they resided in Portland and Marshfield, Or., and in Medford, Oakland and Los Angeles, did not properly provide for the plaintiff, failing to furnish her sufficient clothing, etc.

The allegations of the complaint set out various acts of failure to provide and cruel conduct on the part of Howard, but the sensational allegations have to do with the alleged conduct of Howard and Mrs. Baldwin.

Mrs. Howard charges that during July, 1909, and prior thereto, her husband became infatuated with Mrs. Baldwin, continuously telephoning to her from his place of business, and meeting her on Main and Flower streets, associating with her night and day. It is also declared that Howard visited Mrs. Baldwin in rooming houses, hotels, and at the beaches, spending much time at her home, at the corner of Twenty-third street and St. James Park, totally abandoning the plaintiff, except to furnish her with a small amount of money.

It is alleged that in May, 1910, Howard went to Cleveland, and on the trip he was at the Congress Hotel, Chicago with Lilly Baldwin, and was seen by the friends of Mrs. Howard. It is further declared that during Portola week in San Francisco, in 1909, that Howard made a trip to that city, and was associated with Mrs. Baldwin. In December, 1909, it is alleged that Howard made a journey to San Diego, where he remained twelve days, and on that trip he met Mrs. Baldwin and associated with her.

The most sensational statement made by Mrs. Howard in her complaint is in regard to the alleged relations of her husband and Mrs. Baldwin, is that during the auto show at Hope and Pico streets, in 1908, Howard met Mrs. Baldwin and was often seen in her company. After the exhibition one night, Mrs. Howard says she went to the home of Mrs. Baldwin and at 11:30 p. m., she saw her husband and Mrs. Baldwin enter the place, where, she asserts, they remained until 3 o'clock the next morning.

The plaintiff alleges numerous instances in which she has sought to win her husband back to her, only to fail on account of the infatuation of the defendant for Mrs. Baldwin. She asks that she be given a decree of divorce. An order was issued restraining Howard from disposing of, or incumbering his property in any way pending the trial of the action.

TURN ASHES INTO GOLD.

Island Volcano Is Made To Yield Cash Returns and Without the Aid of Alchemy.

"Since we have learned that the ashes of a volcano may be turned into gold our sunny islands have doubled in prosperity."

This happy view of a volcano which is always in action is taken by C. C. Von Hamm, president of the Von Hamm-Young Company, owners and operators of the largest hotels at Honolulu and having other large building and commercial interests in the islands.

"It is not by any process known to alchemy that we turn ashes into gold," said Mr. Von Hamm. "Our good fortune lies in the fact that the Kilauea volcano is one of the few great eruptive mountains in the world which can be viewed with safety from the crater's edge. Visitors may lean over its ashen rim and stare into its fiery depths wherein its lava is always boiling.

"Fountains of fire leap from the lava beds and this is a scene so striking that it is the means of attracting thousands of tourists to the islands in the winter time. The government of the United States retains two or three scientists on the grounds to study the upheaval.

"This fiery mountain is four thousand feet in altitude on the island of Hawaii and twelve hours' steamer ride from Honolulu. The crater can be reached by a half hour's drive from the town of Hilo.

"Our second great attraction is Waikiki Beach. The bathing here is the finest in the world and the sport of canoeing is at once so delightful and so secure that it is entered with zest by almost every visitor. Persons row to sea for five minutes and return to on the crest of the waves in one minute. In their reflection of a flawless tropical sky the waters are forever a serene blue."

DOUBTFUL FIRE CAUSE.

Fire early yesterday morning partially destroyed the house being built by L. H. Mitchell at No. 666 South Bonnie Brae street. The loss is estimated at $300. Firemen summoned to extinguish the blaze could not account for its origin and reported that it might have been a case of incendiarism.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

After repeated hearings and unlimited discussion, the City Council yesterday denied the petition, asking that Burials in Hollywood Cemetery be restricted to the thirty acres under improvement.

Deputy District Attorney Robinson yesterday stated to the City Council that he has a plan for creating two industrial districts, and he was asked to present it to the Public Welfare Committee on Thursday.

Before granting an appropriation for the improvement of the heating system of the Eastside Police Station, the Council wants to know who was responsible for the expensive blunder that now calls for the expenditure.

The deposed directors and officers of the All Night and Day Bank began an action in Judge Hervey's court yesterday, to secure possession of the property of the institution.

AT THE CITY HALL.

DUAL PLAN FOR INDUSTRIES.

MANY CAPITALISTS WAITING FOR ACTION OF COUNCIL.

Postponed To Hear Solution of Troublous Question From City Attorney—No Restriction of Burials in Hollywood Cemetery—Defective Heating System To Be Probed.

A large number of industries of various kinds and of varying magnitude, are awaiting the decision of the City Council on the matter of enlarging the industrial district of the city.

The present proposition is to extend the limits south from East Third street to Eighteenth street, east to the Los Angeles River, and west to 150 feet of San Pedro street, the latter provision being made in order to permit industrial establishments on both sides of San Pedro street.

Deputy City Attorney Robison was present during the brief discussion of the subject yesterday, and stated that he had been in consultation with other attorneys with the idea of presenting an ordinance dividing the city into three classes of territory, and he was requested to present his plan to the Welfare Committee on Thursday, and that committee promises a report to the Council on November 9, when the next session of that body will be held.

Mr. Robison's plan is, in brief, to create an industrial district, where all kinds of motive power will be admissible; a semi-industrial district, for small establishments which use electrical power; and residence districts, where industrial establishments of no kind whatsoever will be allowed.

Councilman O'Brien stated that twelve applications for permits are now lying in his committee awaiting decisive action.

HOLLYWOOD CEMETERY.

NO RESTRICTION OF BURIALS.

"You appear to be the attorney for the other side," snapped N. A. Dunning at Councilman Andrews, during the hearing of the Hollywood Cemetery question yesterday.

Dunning is a real estate man from Hollywood, and was one of the citizens who appeared in the interest of having burials restricted to thirty acres of the cemetery. He was about to make a speech to the Council, when he imagined that "Uncle Jerry" was trying to choke him off, and he plainly told him so. A few minutes later, however, Dunning made a hot speech from his point of view, following Stewart Cole, who made the general presentation of the subject on the part of the people against the cemetery.

Dunning declared that inside of a year or two, there will be nowhere else for the high-class residence district to go to except toward Hollywood and Colegrove, "and," he shouted, "you won't be able to get there on account of this infernal cemetery." The effort is to have the City Council prohibit burials in the 100 acres lying west of the present improved portion of the cemetery. A number of other persons spoke in favor of the restriction asked.

R. J. Dillon, attorney, appeared as representative of the Hollywood Cemetery, and presented their side of the case. Really, nothing new was presented on either side, as this is the third or fourth time the matter has been heard by the Council and the Welfare Committee. After the fullest consideration and some little acrimonious discussion at the close, the petition to restrict was denied, by a vote of six to one. The "ayes" were Andrews, Betkouski, Gregory, O'Brien, Whitten and Williams. Washburn voted "no." Stewart is absent and Lusk is acting Mayor.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

HEATING BOTCH TO BE PROBED.

Something of a stir was created when the report of the Finance Committee was read, recommending the appropriation of $7500 for the improvement of the heating systems in the Central and Eastside Police Stations. Objections were interposed by several members of the Council to the effect that it was impossible to understand how so much money could be required for the Eastside Station, which calls for the bulk of the appropriation. It appears that when that bastile was built for the accommodation of the chain-gang prisoners, some wiseacre succeeded in having the radiators hung up to the ceiling, and while they may look very unique in that position, they are absolutely of no use so far as heating the building is concerned, and it was stated that they could be lowered at a cost of about $5 each.

Instead of making the appropriation, the recommendation was referred to the Building Committee, and the City Attorney was instructed to investigate the contract under which the heating system was installed, with the idea of discovering who is responsible for the botch job.

CITY HALL BRIEFS.

FIREMEN NOT YET SURE.

Instead of directing the preparation of an ordinance, authorizing the appointment of fifteen more firemen and two lieutenants, for the business district, as recommended by the Finance Committee, the matter was referred to the Supply Committee. Councilman Betkouski said he was in favor of the fifteen firemen, but that he considered the two lieutenants as absolutely unnecessary, and asked that his committee be permitted to look further into the matter.

The resolution of intention to widen the roadway on Twenty-third street, between Estrella and Union avenues, to forty-six feet and construct sidewalks four and a half feet wide, finally passed the Council yesterday.

The Bureau of the Los Angeles Aqueduct was authorized to dispose of discarded machinery and other materials, along the line of the Aqueduct, without first receiving the approval of Council, inasmuch as the delay frequently interferes with the sale.

The Automobile Exposition Association will be permitted to cover Fiesta Park with a tent, for the coming automobile and electrical shows, by paying the expenses of advertising an ordinance to that effect. No license fee will be exacted from the association.

The matter of the construction of a public tunnel, parallel with the Los Angeles Pacific tunnel, on Hill street, was referred to the Streets and Boulevards Committee, in response to the City Engineer's recommendation that it be built.

There will be no meeting of the City Council on next Tuesday, on account of that being election day, but the regular meeting will be held on the following Wednesday. The hearing of what is hoped to be the last of the Agricultural Park confabs, was postponed until that day, at 11 o'clock.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

SEYMOUR WIDOW RECEIVES HALF.

ORDER DISTRIBUTING ESTATE IS ISSUED.

Remainder Is To Be Divided Between the Two Children—Contest Was Instituted by the Son but This Has Been Withdrawn—Compromise Brings Parties Together.

Judge Rives issued an order yesterday distributing the $300,000 estate of Col. Frederick H. Seymour. The property has been in process of settlement in the Superior Court more than three years. Mrs. Myra Seymour, the widow, now residing at Redondo Beach, receives one-half and the other half is divided between the two children, Gordon C. Seymour and Mrs. A. B. Newell, of Nashville, Tenn.

The distribution is the result of a compromise. When Col. Seymour died he left property in England, Mexico and this country. The bulk of his estate was in the Torres & Prietas Railway, a short line operated in Sonora, Mex., and it was recently sold by the state to the Mexican government for $250,000. By the terms of the will all of the property was left to the wife during her life-time, when it was to descend to the children.

A contest was then instituted by the son, Gordon C. Seymour, and it was partially heard from time to time. This has now been withdrawn.

VARIED PROPERTIES.

DISTRIBUTED TO HEIRS.

A petition of Emma C. Rich, widow of Henry Rich, for the probate of his will was filed yesterday, but the will was not furnished with the petition. Rich died October 25, leaving an estate estimated to be worth $82,000, of which $70,000 is in personal property and $12,000 in a residence, No. 2248 Harvard boulevard.

The will was drawn in October, 1897, and Anna Dewey Chapin, whose relation to Rich does not appear, is nominated as executrix. The heirs are the widow and Robert Rich, a son.

The will of Christena A. Stephens, who died October 11 at La Mirada, Orange county, leaving an estate of $20,000, was filed for probate yesterday. The testator leaves her estate to Ruth and Charles A. Dallman, children by a former marriage. Accompanying the will is a statement of the husband, Otto T. Stephens, that he surrenders all right and interest in the estate, if he ever had any, to the beneficiaries under the will.

One of the features of the will of Maria Katherine Bender, filed for probate yesterday, is that she makes her two sisters living in Germany, and married, heirs of her $2000 estate, but she says she does not know their names, although their given cognomens are Mary and Wilhelmina. A brother, Conrad Bender, shares in the property with the sisters, the latter living in Huttingeraaas-Grais-Hessen-Nassua, Germany.

QUESTION OF HEIRSHIP.

LAWS OF ADOPTION ARGUED.

In Judge Rives's court yesterday the demurrer of the guardian, Leo J. Maguire, to the answer filed to the petition for the partial distribution of the Baldwin estate was argued and the matter was submitted.

The action involves the right of Beatrice Anita Baldwin, the alleged daughter of "Lucky" Baldwin, and afterward adopted by William B. and Lillian A. Turnbull of Boston, to inherit a two-ninths interest in the Baldwin property.

The question about which the matter revolves has to do with the provisions of the Massachusetts law relating to adoption. Mrs. Turnbull is the mother of the petitioner, and it was alleged on the part of the Baldwin heirs that under the laws of Massachusetts the daughter could not inherit except as the heirs of the Turnbulls.

This claim, it seems, was rather unfortunate, for the law of that commonwealth was quoted to the effect that no child could lose the right to inherit from its natural parents or kindred; that an adopted child loses nothing of its rights by such adoption. It was also argued that a mother could not adopt her own child, and that the petitioner could not be the natural daughter of the Turnbulls, for nature could only do that.

ANOTHER CHAPTER.

ALL NIGHT AND DAY BANK.

The interminable litigation involving the All Night and Day Bank and its warring stockholders broke out in a new place, yesterday. It was supposed that with the order of the court placing L. C. Brand and his associates in the seats of power in the institution, the contest would cease, but it seems that the law will be invoked by the ousted officers and directors indefinitely to secure a return of the property of the bank.

Two cases were on the calendar in Judge Hervey's court yesterday, J. L. Conner, against The All Night and Day Bank, and The All Night and Day Bank against Alden Anderson, State Bank Examiner. The cases are almost synonymous, both being to the end that the ousted officials may get back. In the Anderson case the matter went over on account of the illness of the defendant, who was unable to appear.

The action brought by Conner, who was formerly secretary of the bank, is to oust the present board of directors and officers, and install the set that were thrown over the breastworks by the decision of Judge Bordwell ten days ago.

Much of the evidence was to show that by the minutes of the board of directors, the stock that had been hypothecated by Skinner and his associates was the property of other parties. It will be recalled that President Skinner and other officers of the bank borrowed about $50,000 from L. C. Brand and others, the stock put up as collateral was sold, thus making the reorganization of the bank possible.

CHANCE IN PRISON.

MUST START IN FRESH.

Abram Porss, a young man who has been in Judge Willis's court on numerous occasions, charged with felonies, was sentenced to San Quentin for eighteen months yesterday. Porss was finally caught on an information charging that he had disposed of mortgaged property, having escaped in some way from allegations involving the use of bad checks and other forms of lawbreaking.

In passing judgment the court admonished Porss to quit trying to do business on nothing; that he should go to school in the prison, and after he got out get a job and lead an honest life. His experience during the past year has certainly taught him that it is pretty hard to do very much business on nothing more tangible than a shoe string.

Porss promised the court that he would turn over a new leaf when he got behind the bars, and when he has served his time try to be a credit to the community.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

FOUND GUILTY. In Judge Willis's court yesterday, C. A. Quintard, charged with passing a bad check, was found guilty. He will be sentenced this morning.

OCTOBER FIGURES. The receipts in the office of County Clerk during the month of October amounted to $7624.45; from the following sources: Probate: $1015.25; civil $4810.50; miscellaneous, $1116.10. The receipts are to be divided as follows: Law Library, $1046; salary, $5978.45. The aggregate is about $800 more than during the corresponding month of last year.

MRS. HAAS WINS. In the divorce action brought by Dr. Gustave W. Haas against Bessie Maud Haas, Judge Church denied the prayer of the plaintiff for a decree and awarded it to the defendant on her cross-complaint alleging extreme cruelty. The plaintiff had charged his wife with adultery, but failed to produce the necessary proof.

BUNNELL ESTATE. In Judge Rives's court yesterday an order was entered staying for thirty days the execution of the decision made by the court some days ago, by which William Probasco of South Bend, Ind., was adjudged the beneficiary of $10,000 under the will of Theodore P. Bunnell of Santa Monica. The order was made on the petition of William B. Probasco of Asbury Park, N. J., who still claims to be the heir referred to by the will.

DAMAGE ACTION. An action in damages for $5000 was brought in the Superior Court yesterday by Mamie V. Rawles and P. L. Rawles, her husband, against the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation. It is alleged in the complaint that on October 1, 1910, the wife fell into an excavation at the corner of First and Broadway made by the defendant corporation, and was badly injured, he says.

BUILDING RESTRICTIONS. Suit was begun in the Superior Court yesterday by Richard Livingston against S. C. Gillespie, who alleges that the defendant purchased a lot in the Livingston tract, where the restrictions did not allow the erection of a cheaper structure than $2000, and it is alleged that he erected one whose cost could not have been in excess of $400.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the Superior Hand Laundry Co., capital stock, $10,000, incorporators, H. W. Lewis, Anna M. Lewis and R. H. Carder, subscribed, $300. Federated Cleaning and Dye Works, capital stock, $200,000, incorporators, E. F. Cappe, J. P. Donovan, B. M. Cobb, William E. Mildner and A. B. Hassel, subscribed, $250. New Process Oil, Refining and Manufacturing Co., capital stock, $20,000, incorporators, C. E. Capen, W. P. Bending, C. E. Stoner and J. A. Frampton, Jr., subscribed, $4.

ANNULMENT ASKED FOR. Bettie Roberts, who was married to M. S. Roberts, at Henryetta, Tex., in 1899, filed a complaint yesterday in the Superior Court, asking that their marriage be annulled. The petitioner states that at the time of the union she was already a married woman, but that she had not heard of her first husband for more than five years and she had reason to believe that he was dead. She says that her husband threatens to remove the furniture from their home at No. 556 Maple avenue, and asks the court to restrain him from doing so.

YOUNG MURDER CASE. A jury in Judge Willis' court is hearing the evidence in the case of Fred Young, who is charged with killing Charles Smith, at the rooms of the Italian-American Club, at Ninth and Lemon streets, June 28. The two men had an altercation in the place, and it is alleged on the part of the defendant that he shot and killed Smith only after the dead man had attempted to knock him down with a bottle.

SUES FOR DAMAGES. An action was brought against the Southern Pacific yesterday by Harry D. Fox, for $20,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been received while at work as a signal-man in the employ of the defendant corporation at Florence Station, February 10 last. He says he was operating a gasoline engine, when it back-fired, sending a mammoth wheel against him with terrific force, and making him a cripple.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

NEIGHBORHOOD ROW CROPS UP.

WOMEN OF NORMANDIE AVENUE ACCUSE EACH OTHER.

Lots of Trouble Between Families and Many Charges Made, Including the Turning of a Horse by One "Lady" upon Another—This Time It's War of Words.

"The Normandie-avenue scrap," as the series of petty prosecutions constantly recurring in Police Court has been called, had another chapter added yesterday morning, when Mrs. Kate Huber was brought into court on the complaint of Mrs. Nina Price, who charged her with disturbing the peace.

The essence of the charge this time is that Mrs. Huber called Mrs. Price names and tried to fight and quarrel with her. When she appeared in court Mrs. Huber insisted on calling sufficient witnesses to go back into the history of the trouble, but the court declared he cared nothing about history, and that when she was ready for trial it would be upon the happenings of the day in question only.

Mrs. Huber lives at No. 1722 Normandie avenue, while Mrs. Price lives next door, No. 1725. About a month ago Mrs. Price was cited to appear in court on the charge made by Mrs. Huber that she had torn down the Huber chicken coop. Mrs. Price declared that the chicken coop protruded upon her lot, and that when she tried to remove it, Mrs. Huber turned the hose upon her.

The case was continued to give both sides time to secure witnesses. No date has been set for the next calling of the case.

CASE IS POSTPONED.

CHARGE IS GHOULISH ONE.

C. M. Feider, charged with battery in connection with the dastardly assault made upon the workmen who were carrying the body of Louis Jeffries from the Alexandria Annex, a few minutes after Jeffries was killed in an accident, appeared for trial in Police Judge Williams's court yesterday morning, but the trial was set over to the 10th inst.

Feider has been a trouble-maker since the iron workers started their strike, and has been arrested for picketing on several occasions. He gave his occupation as "traveling auditor for the Barber's Union," but the barbers say he's lucky to have the job, as they wouldn't have him in their shops if he was the last barber on earth.

B. F. Connors was the last unionite to be tried for battery in Police Court, and he was fined $50. As the evidence against Feider is ready in abundance, the prosecuting attorney is confident of his conviction.

COMPANY MUST SHOW.

PROSECUTION POSTPONED.

The first step in the examination of William Straube, charged with stealing about $3000 worth of printers' supplies from the American Type Founders' Company, began in the Police Court yesterday morning. Attorney Horace Appel for Straube showed that the examination would be bitterly fought and as an initial step secured the continuance of the case until the 15th inst. on the grounds that the company had not shown that it was a corporation and qualified to proceed with the trial.

Attorney Appel said he would not question whether or not the company was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey, but he declared it would have to be shown that the company had been registered in California. Police Judge Rose is hearing the case.

TO AWAIT RESULTS.

SERIOUS CHARGE HELD UP.

Henry Valley, charged with assault with intent to murder, appeared for examination in Police Judge Fredericksson's branch of Police Court yesterday morning, but must appear again on November 4, as the case was continued. He was remanded to the City Jail without bail.

Valley is accused of stabbing William Cobbloff, October 27. Valley is a driver for the Diamond Coal Company, and the fight took place in the company's yard at Jackson and Alameda streets. Cobbloff is in the County Hospital in a precarious condition.

REFUSES TO REDUCE BAIL.

Attorney Accused of Receiving Stolen Money Pleads With Unihat States Judge in Vain.

Attorney Fred Thompson, who is under arrest on a charge of having received money which he knew was stolen from the mails, yesterday made a tearful appeal to the United States Attorney to consent to his bail being reduced from $15,000 to $10,000.

The tears failed to move Horton and Thompson was led back to the County Jail. Mrs. Thompson, who is charged with her husband, is still at liberty under $10,000 bail, Attorney LeCompte Davis remaining as one of her bondsmen.

The couple were taken before Judge Wellborn of the United States District Court to plead yesterday. At their request they were granted until next week to confess or deny that they are guilty.

Attorney Davis had promised that he would have a bondsman to take his place yesterday or he would surrender Mrs. Thompson to the custody of United States Marshall Youngsworth. He told the court that the person whom he desired to have go on the bond was sick and would not be able to qualify for some time.

It is apparent that the Thompsons are going to fight for their liberty on technicalities. The United States Attorneys expect to be compelled to contest each step which they take in their endeavor to convict the couple.

The trial will cost the government thousands of dollars, in addition to $25,000 which has been expended in gathering the evidence, as it will be necessary to bring many witnesses from afar.

There is no denial of the fact that the government officials intend to make an example of Thompson for other attorneys who are retained by persons who commit offenses against the United States.

Horton declared when the prisoners were first taken before Judge Wellborn that the government considered the offense charged to Thompson much more serious that of Orlando F. Alteorre, who stole the money which Thompson is accused of having knowingly received from him.

KEEP ON GOING.

Backward Bucking Automobile Hits Car, but Justice Refuses Damages to Owner.

Persons who are "bucked into electric cars by ill mannered automobiles are not entitled to recover from the railway companies, according to a decision of Justice Stephens that was handed down yesterday.

James Scott had just crossed the tracks when his machine had an attack of colic. First it stopped short and then began to go backward by jerks. An electric car had pulled in behind it after it passed over the tracks and the auto backed into it.

Scott brought suit against the Pacific Electric for $299, alleging that his machine had been damaged that much because the car was in the way when the auto started back across the tracks. The magistrate decided in favor of the defendant.

UNUSUALLY HEAVY BAIL.

Man Accused of Horrible Crime Remanded to Jail Pending His Preliminary Trial.

Jack Shaw, who says his true name is Henry Shaw, was taken before Justice Steiglitz, who is sitting for Justice Summerfield yesterday, on a charge of having terribly wronged his half-sister. His examination was set for the 14th inst. He was committed to the County Jail in default of $25,000 bail.

The amount of surety required is much greater than usually required in the justice court for any offense which is bailable. It is high because of the allegation of the wronged girl that the prisoner killed her brother, who was found dead in the elevator shaft on September 29.

DIFFERENT THIS TIME.

Manuel Plumas was taken before Justice Baird yesterday on a charge of having failed to provide for his wife. He was in similar trouble several months ago, but was released under promise to care for his spouse. The magistrate sent him to jail in default of $1000 bail.

FIVE DOLLARS' WORTH.

FOREST OF DERRICKS VISIBLE AT COALINGA.

[Special Correspondence of The Times.]

COALINGA, Nov. 1.—One of the recent additions to the city of Coalinga and what gives the busy oil town a metropolis-like appearance is the beautiful three-story pressed brick structure that occupies the corner of Fifth and C streets in the heart of the city. The building was erected by Zed L. Phelps, who became prominent in the oil world through his connection with the renowned Silver Tip well, in which he was a stockholder.

The building is now the first place in the city or field which is visited by the stranger who desires to become acquainted with the field and city. From its roof can be gained an excellent view of the West Side of the Coalinga field with its forest of oil-blackened derricks. The visitor who mounts the stairs and gains the roof to view the field becomes amazed at the wonderful panorama that greets his view. Stretched out before him is a huge semicircle of derricks and to him can be pointed out 130 drilling wells representing an estimated expenditure of not less than $1,000,000; 321 producing wells, costing an average of $25,000, or $13,025,000; forty new derricks, costing not less than $2000 per rig, or $80,000, making a total investment before his unbroken view of approximately $14,225,000.

The estimated land value of this absolutely proven territory of not less than 12,800 acres, is $35,400,000, making the magnificent total of $52,625,000.

Beyond, over the East Side divide, lays another rich field. Through this expanse can be seen fifty-nine drilling wells, a value of not less than $590,000; 276 producing wells representing an expenditure of $6,900,000. From these wells is produced the light oil of this field that never has lacked a market; fifteen new derricks costing not less than $30,000 bring up the total expenditure to approximately $7,520,000, with 3320 acres of absolutely proven territory worth conservatively $18,960,000, bringing the East Side field up to $26,480,000, not including the Coalinga anticline territory which breaks away from the Coalinga-Mohawk territory to the south which is not absolutely proven. Combining the figures of the East and the West Side fields brings a total of $79,105,000.

READY FOR DRILLING.

ATLANTA OIL COMPANY.

The Atlanta Oil Company has had delivered at its property on Sulphur Mountain the heaviest set of derrick and floor timbers ever taken into the Santa Paula oil district. The ground has been put in shape for the site of the first well, which will be drilled close to the boundary line of the Puritan Oil Company.

The Santa Paula district has no great gushers, but it is producing immense quantities of high gravity oil worth better than a dollar a barrel at the wells. On the south side of the Atlanta property the Union Oil Co. has more than forty producing wells, and not far to the north of it the Bard and Asphalt Co. has sunk 32 holes with never a dry one yet. Geologists who have made a study of Sulphur Mountain all agree that there is plenty of oil in it at a depth of 2000 to 3000. But an expert is not needed to examine the fact; the most heedless observers traveling the mountain sides can not fail to note the many oil seepages that blacken them.

SECOND ANNUAL DINNER.

UNION OIL EMPLOYEES.

H. S. Botsford, district manager of the Union Oil Company, entertained about thirty members of his staff at the Sierra Madre Club Saturday night. It was the second annual gathering of the kind, and was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Botsford addressed those present on the necessity of team work in handling the work of the Union Oil Company, and short addresses were made by John Topham, Mr. Rust and others.

OIL MEN TO MEET.

IMPORTANT QUESTION

A call for a meeting of all oil men of California to be held in Bakersfield on November 12 has been issued. The call is signed by Norman Bridge for the Western Oil Producers' Association, Chas. P. Fox for the California Oil Men's Association, C. A. Barlow for the Kern County Board of Trade and R. L. Peeler for the Coalinga Chamber of Commerce.

The call states that the object is to arrive at the best method to pursue in an effort to induce the government to take immediate remedial measures in behalf of those operating in good faith upon government lands.

GOOD SANTA PAULA WELL.

PYRAMID OIL COMPANY.

The Pyramid Oil Co. No. 2 well on its Santa Paula property, after several days test, has shown itself to be a steady producer of 200 barrels per day of high gravity oil. The well was finished at a depth of 1800 feet after penetrating almost 1000 feet of continuous oil sand, some parts of which carried a very heavy flow of gas, strong enough at times to throw the oil and water that was in the hole up over the top of the derrick. This is a quite unusual production and showing for the Santa Paula district, and assures the Pyramid company a substantial production from this property for the future.

Wells Nos. 1 and 2 on the Pyramid's Prosperity property, in the Kern River field, were cemented off about a week ago. This is the second cementing job on No. 1, the first trial not having proved successful. These wells will be drilled in within the next week. The usual production of this part of the Kern River field, of from forty to sixty barrels per day is expected.

The personnel of the patrolmen assigned to the East Side and University Divisions will be announced today.

The personnel of the Central Police Station, as announced by Capt. Lehnhausen late yesterday afternoon, is as follows:

Morning watch, Lieut. Sebastian and Sergts. Spellman and Toolen. Afternoon watch, Lieut. Murray and Sergts. Hartmeyer, Curtin and Hackett; night watch, Lieut. Williams and Sergts. Long, Willett, Kennedy and Mart.

Sergt. J. W. Tyler is assigned to duty as desk sergeant in place of Sergt. Heath, who has been promoted to lieutenant. Driver J. C. Hill is appointed chief driver in place of Mart, who has been made sergeant. Patrolman W. L. Walls is assigned to duty as driver. Patrolman H. V. Henderson becomes wagon conductor.

Patrolman C. E. Berry is transferred from patrol duty to work with the metropolitan squad. Patrolman J. W. Cline is transferred to the traffic squad at his request. Patrolman G. T. Williamson is made captain's secretary. Patrolmen Bowman, Groft and Currie are transferred from night to afternoon watch. Patrolmen Frost, Ellis and Bunker will be assigned to the night watch. Patrolmen J. B. Owens and C. G. Gilpin have been assigned to duty on motorcycles at the Hollywood substation.

Next Monday the matrons in the jail will fix their own hours so that they will have one day off every three weeks. Three hundred first aid to the injured outfits will be distributed to the officers today.

DRAWN BY RED.

Boy with Plenty of Money Insists on Having What He Wants, no Matter What It Costs, and Threatens to "Never Play Again" if His Wishes Are not Gratified.

A little black-eyed, mischievous-looking boy tugged and pulled at the hand of a stolid, stately moving Indian in the lobby of the Alexandria yesterday while many looked on and commented.

For once the rule of collarless men not allowed in the lobbies was suspended in the case of the Indian. He did not need a collar. In the dress of his ancestors, his paint and feathers he was sufficiently and artistically decorated, satisfying even the fastidious hotel people who were unable to decide the problem on the spur of the moment.

The Indian was the guest of the little dark-eyed boy, Pepito Arriola, the child pianist of Berlin. Pepito had read of Indians with avidity in his first visits to this country. He saw a few on his trip through Arizona and he expected to see many more when he arrived here. In this he was disappointed. The only place in which they appeared during his first day around the city was in the pictures that unwound themselves from a rapidly moving film at a moving picture show.

In his impulsive boyish way he demanded that his manager find him some real Indians and this the latter proceeded to do, for even at this early stage, Pepito displays many of the vagaries and the rages of the real grown-up artist. Manager Keck located the Indian Village and to that place he proceeded with his protege.

With almost unlimited means at his command, little Pepito showed himself a generous buyer. He purchased rugs, pipes, beads and anything else that happened to strike his fancy until it became necessary to hire a special delivery wagon to convey all his purchases to the hotel.

Then he romped with the quiet, slow moving Indian braves. He taunted the younger boys and only for the interference of his companions, would have provoked a real fight, which is one of the joys of Pepito's life. And then came the climax. He wanted one of the Indians to take with him. Would any of them go?

"I'll buy one," he offered in his quaint English to the manager of the village. "But they are not for sale, you can't buy an Indian," was the answer. Pepito's eyes sparkled, he demanded, cajoled and finally succeeded in obtaining the consent of the manager to take one of the braves downtown to his hotel for dinner.

When the ill-assorted pair arrived, the clerks stared, guests gasped and everyone in the neighborhood was made aware of the peculiar situation. "I like the Indian" declared Pepito in German.

"What I like I can have." And then he told of his Scotch collie which he had seen one day in one of the eastern cities and which he wanted. He would have the dog at any price and that price was finally agreed upon as $1000 between the boy and the owner.

Pepito's manager said that was too much. His mother also thought the figure too high. Pepito didn't care. "Get me that dog or I shall never play again." And since Pepito, with the continued line of Latin ancestry, can fly into fearful rage and can keep his word when he threatens, the dog was purchased and is now his inseparable companion.

DOUBLE TRACK LINE.

Santa Fe Begins Operation of Last Section of This Kind Between Chicago and Kansas City.

The Santa Fe Railroad began the operation of the last section of double track between Kansas City and Chicago yesterday. With the exception of the Chicago & Northwestern, between Chicago and Omaha, the Santa Fe is the only railroad operating two tracks to the Missouri River. Not only has the Santa Fe a double track to the Missouri River, but there is also in operation two, and for occasional distances, three tracks, between Kansas City and Albuquerque.

Early this year work was begun to extend the double track system from Albuquerque to the Pacific Coast. The double track between Kansas City and Chicago cost $18,000,000, including three big steel bridges.

Woman's Nature

It is the nature of women to suffer uncomplainingly, the discomforts and fears that accompany the bearing of children. Motherhood is their crowning glory, and they brave its sufferings for the joy that children bring. No expectant mother need suffer, however, during the period of waiting, nor feel that she is in danger when baby comes, if Mother's Friend is used in preparation of the event. Mother's Friend relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the different ligaments, overcomes nausea by counteraction, prevents backache and numbness of limbs and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. Its regular use fits and prepares every portion of the mother's system for a proper and natural ending of the term, and it assures for her a quick and complete recovery. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

Reports from Lisbon are to the effect that Minister Henry T. Gage, the Angeleno, is having the time of his life saving for the interests of Uncle Sam. But he is doing it well.

That telegram from Jimmie Garfield endorsing Hiram Johnson indicates that he has at least partially recovered from the swift kick administered by President Taft, when he was barred from another term in the Cabinet.

If a bill collector interrupts you at Levy's with the remembrance that you owe him something, merely hand him the money and tell him out loud so that your sweetheart can hear it that you are delighted to oblige him with a small loan.

The awful hurricane in Italy that was fiercest at Iachia and Capri, recalls the lines of Thomas Buchanan Read's "Drifting:"

"Here Ischia smiles
O'er liquid miles;
And yonder, bluest of the isles,
Calm Capri waits
Her sapphire gates
Beguiling to her bright estates."

WHERE THE STATE OWNS.

Rioting in tumult, France has seethed so much of late that there has been newspaper talk of another revolution. The eyes of the world have changed their direction from Lisbon to Paris, from the new republic to the old. The present excitement in France started with the strike on the Western Railway. The men adopted the tactics of unionites in the United States. They derailed trains, they chopped down telegraph and telephone wires, they pulled up rails, they sought to maim and kill both men who had remained faithful to the service and passengers who were bold enough to travel. At the same time they struck a great blow at the nationalization of railroads.

The Western Railway is a government-owned line. It has often been argued, both here and abroad, that if the state took over systems of this character there would be much less liability of strikes. The French government has owned this Western Railway for about eighteen months, and in that time it has proved that a bureau in the country's capital is not the place from which to manage a great railway system.

In the first place the employees of the railroad, far from benefiting from government ownership, found conditions so unsatisfactory to them that they railed for months at their lot and finally started the strike where they alienated public sympathy by their disgusting tactics. The people had sympathized with them, knowing that under national ownership they were not getting what Americans would call the square deal, but when they resorted to the methods of murderers in their efforts to beat the government they put themselves "out of court."

The workmen were not the only dissatisfied people. The passengers complained just as loudly. Some of them no longer can raise voices in angry protests for they were killed in the accidents which appeared to grow more frequent with government ownership. Others who escaped with their lives in disasters on the line still bear the scars of the wounds they received. Of course, we know in this country that accidents occur under private ownership, but it is safe to state that the calamities which brought the Western of France into disrepute under government ownership would have been prevented by the alert managers of a private company.

It is a well-known fact that in France government ownership means graft, decay, mismanagement, dissatisfaction. They have municipal telephones over there. Ask any traveler the name of the city which has the worst hello service in the world, and he will answer, "Paris, of course." People in this country often complain against the telegraph companies, although there are none better, if the truth is known. In France the government owns the lines, and we have it on the authority of Americans who have resided in Paris for some time, and who have occasion to use the lines frequently, that the "telegraph is slower and more unreliable than in any other country in Europe." If further testimony against government ownership were needed, it would be necessary only to refer to the French experiences with the state tobacco and match monopolies. Both, to use a short and ugly term, are swindles. They have been so described by American newspapermen who have had experiences with graft in this country, and who know a swindle when they see it, whether the operators be a government or private individuals with an elaborate suite of offices but no morals.

It is probable that both the Republican and Democratic nominees for Congress will decline to be governed in their official action by the supplementary proceedings of the State conventions in seeking to cram down their throats the doctrine of Pinchotic conservation, or rather confiscation, for the use of unborn generations of oil lands, homestead lands and mining claims.

MARTIAL LAW IF NECESSARY.

The self-appointed organ of the bomb-throwers is the worst enemy that honest labor-unionists have. If by it they shall be led into the disorder and lawlessness, and open rebellion against law and destruction of property and of life which it insidiously suggests, there may be such an uprising among the loyal and fearless citizens of Los Angeles as will sweep inciters to murder into the sea. A Vigilance Committee such as cleaned San Francisco half a century ago, and dangled the corpses of the leaders in crime from the windows of Fort Gunnybags will not be needed at this day, for if the civil authorities prove unable to preserve the property and lives of peaceful and law-abiding citizens from the thugs, there is such a thing as martial law, with its accompaniment of drumhead court-martials and prompt dispatch of murderers, and Gov. Gillett has the nerve to declare martial law if it should be necessary.

Mr. John Gales is peevish because Capt. Fredericks and Minister Gage and Mr. Foley together charged so large a contingent fee for recovering the King estate for the heirs at law. Why didn't Mr. Gales employ some cheap lawyers like Woolwine and his "me too" satellites? They might have lost the case for him with certainty and celerity, and then he would have had nothing to pay.

THE END OF A TRAGEDY.

Word comes from British Columbia that the Le Roi mine at Rossland is for sale, together with its smelter at Northport, Wash. The announcement practically marks the end of a tragedy. The name of Whitaker Wright is still familiar to the people of this country as that of a brilliant but somewhat unscrupulous promoter of companies, who, when found guilty of fraud in connection with the Le Roi mine, committed suicide in that stately pile, the Law Courts of London.

Le Roi, the king mine of Rossland, killed Wright, and it has brought misery to hundreds of other people as well as benefit to some. Money received from the sale to the Whitaker Wright "crowd" went to build at least one handsome home in Los Angeles and to buy a splendid orange grove near San Bernardino. But the cash which Whitaker Wright and his friends obtained from the English public when they in turn sold, came, much of it, from the slender purses of widows, from the small bank accounts of underpaid parsons and from the hard-earned and even more hardly-saved wages of city clerks, who trusted too much to the glittering statements in prospectuses written by experts in the art.

The mine was once the most famous property in Canada. It was managed by men who rank among the higher-ups. One of its managers went direct from Rossland to Spain to take charge of the world-renowned Rio Tinto mines. Others lost their reputations when the property failed to come up to expectations. The plant cost nearly $1,000,000, and a vast sum has been spent in diamond drilling and in exploratory work in the hope of uncovering ore of the kind which first aroused attention. There seems to be no more rich rock, however, and the million-dollar plant is for sale "at a bargain."

Tommy Woolwine's fate next Tuesday is mirrored in Bret Harte's "The Society Upon the Stanislaus:"

"Then Abner Dean of Angel's raised a point of order, when

The campaign in Indiana is of the strenuous sort, the fight being between Senator Beveridge, who asks for re-election, and the gentleman with the whiskers who was not elected Vice-President of the United States in a recent campaign. Can you recall his name?

Man has at last beaten the pigeons flying, but the billing and cooing of the former has been lengths ahead of the birds for many moons, according to the biased view of milady.

It will be necessary to offer some inducement more enticing than a steamship rate war, to induce any considerable number of Angelenos to go to San Francisco.

CHANGES IN CALIFORNIA NATIONAL FORESTS.

By Walter J. Ballard.

After careful field examinations by the United States Department of agriculture, the president has signed a proclamation eliminating 58,732 acres from the California National Forest and adding 4784 acres, also from the Stanislaus National Forest, California, 3084 acres have been eliminated and 6070 acres added.

The unappropriated portions of the 61,816 acres thus eliminated will be restored to entry and settlement after they shall have been advertised in the local papers by the Secretary of the Interior, thus opening the way for many more settlers in the State.

The eliminations from the California National Forest comprise areas found upon examination to be not chiefly valuable for National Forest purposes, being covered with brush or grass and unfit for tree planting. The largest area released is at the northwest corner of the Forest, north of the Round Valley Indian Reservation. The acreage added is located entirely in the southern portion of the forest and comprises lands which, while not heavily timbered, are susceptible of forestation and are important from a watershed point of view. Portions of the area have been burned over and are reforesting naturally with commercial species.

In the Stanislaus National Forest the area eliminated comprises a strip of chaparral land on the west side of the North Fork of Tuolumne River, lying southwest and south of the town of Tuolumne. The area added comprises several isolated tracts of heavily timbered lands to the north and northwest of Mount Provo, in the vicinity of Sugar Pine and Confidence.

BOTHERED BY THE "FLIES".

Real Goblins.

Once there was a little girl
Who tried to smuggle things,
And when the dock inspectors came
She up and hid her rings;
And when they asked her what she had
She just said, "Nuthin', sir!"
Although she knew it wasn't true—
She had 'em all on her.
And when they had her searched—oh, my!
They found 'em in her hair!
And the custom men'll get you

Then there was a little boy
Who bought a lot of clothes,
And handkerchiefs and shirts and things,
And underwear and hose;
And as he landed on the dock
He looked just like a saint.
When asked if he'd bought things abroad
He said, "No, sir, I ain't!"
But when they opened up his trunks
The things they found in there!
And the customs men'll get you

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Ladies, Don't Read This.

Los Angeles, Oct. 31. To the Editor of The Times: I am a visitor in Los Angeles and am delighted with your enterprise and "push," as a city. Permit me to commend the good judgment of the many ladies who stand up on the front end of the street cars, instead of occupying one of the many vacant seats on the inside of the car. By so doing they have the advantage of inhaling the cheapest kind of cigaret smoke and the odor from the rankest of pipes, such as they cannot secure in the home.

A VISITOR.

"After Heine."

Los Angeles, Oct. 28. To the Editor of The Times: The verses "One, Two, Three," which you reprinted from Ainslee, should have been credited "After Heine." I wrote the credit on my copy, and Ainslee omitted it. I do not care to be accused of plagiarism. This is a translation made by me in college days of the greatest of German poets.

Going on Same Train.

J. Adam Bede, of Minnesota, the humorist of the House while he was in it, and whose humor still bubbles, despite the fact that he was elected to stay at home, tells the following on a friend of his who travels for a carpet firm:

"My friend," said Bede, "is of a saving disposition, and he recently had to make a longish jaunt with two trunks. Arriving at the station he approached a stranger standing on the platform and said: 'Are you going to Chicago on this train?'

"'I am.'

"'Have you any baggage?'

"'No.'

"'Well, friend, you can do me a favor and it won't cost you a cent. I've got two good-sized trunks here and they always make me pay express for one. You can get one checked on your ticket and save me some money.'

"'Yes, but I haven't any ticket.'

"'But you said just now that you were going on this train.'

"'So I am. I'm the conductor.'"—[San Francisco Examiner.

"So you were gagged and bound by bandits? Quite like comic opera."

"No, indeed; there was nothing of the comic opera about them. The gags they used were new."—[Lippincott's.

BY WILLIAM H. GREENFIELD.

Those delightful pictures painted by youth and well intended for perpetuity seldom endure beyond middle life. Their colors fade, their sharp lines grow indistinct, and as the years wear on nothing is left but a blurred and indistinguishable mass upon the canvas of memory.

The imagination of the young is perpetually creating ideals which the relentless hand of age and experience ruthlessly destroy. Once the descent of the road—not all too long, indeed, at best—begins those ideals which were fondly formed to indure through all its windings disappear, and realisms, harsh and lacking grace, usurp their pedestals.

The romance of the sea has always had a strong hold upon the imagination of the young. The ideal sailor was a gay and hearty fellow, attired in the very loosest and easiest garments, who was forever piping about his lovely Sal, and when he wasn't hauling ropes was hitching up his trousers and dancing hornpipes.

From early dawn to the going down of the sun this ideal Jack Tar was declaring to the entire world that his heart was true to Poll. Poll, by the way, was supposed to be a ruddy-faced young woman in short petticoats, who spent the greater part of her career upon the dock, waving an extremely white handkerchief to departing ships.

Her sailor lad, true to the traditions of the ideal, was clinging to the shrouds and kissing his hand to this gyrating young female ashore. If the real Jack had attempted any such nonsense he would be promptly cracked over the skull with a belaying pin in the hands of the mate and commanded to get to work, while Poll very possibly would be taken in charge by the harbor police of the port as an insane person or for disturbing the peace.

Dibdin, that glorious bard of the sea, used to turn out ideal sailors by the bushel for our delight and admiration. They were an extremely musical crowd, whose happiness consisted principally in sailing in the teeth of a stiff northwester, singing the praises of their bully ship and getting very drunk between decks toasting sweethearts and wives.

The type of sailor we meet today does not recall by any means those ideals. Plump, bronzed, good-natured gentlemen they are, wearing well-fitting clothes, not always turning their quid like Barney Bunting, and not reasoning their conversation with the pathos of the poop. If they see a companion's handkerchief protruding from his pocket they will not tell him that he has a rope's end towing overboard, and if they happen to be going toward the doctor's or dentist's office they will not shout out that they are "hove down for repairs."

In fine, then conversation is not seasoned with those salty phrases which we found indispensable in the ideal. They are reasonable, ordinary, everyday persons who care nothing for the cutlass drill, and who do not hold forth upon howling gales and monsters of the deep. They never, when surprised, shriek out "Shiver my timbers;" they do not call taking a drink "splicing the main brace," and the greater part of them would much rather be ashore than at sea.

Such a class would have no place among Dibdin's creations, and black-eyed Susan would fly in dismay from these unromantic mariners—speaking in a marine sense—and would strain her eyes in vain for a glimpse of sweet William clinging to the weather shrouds.

Pale, thin, with flowing locks and flashing eyes, the poet leans from the picture gallery of the ideal. This inspired being must be forever in a fine frenzy. The material things of earth should concern him little. His seat is on the edge of the silver-lined clouds. He is always bathing in the moonlight and obtains his substance from the odor of fragrant flowers. He is in eternal pursuit of an intangible thing which he is pleased to call fame, and is always lamenting that this swift-footed creature escapes him just as he is about to grasp the ruffle of her gown.

Alas, very few sweet singers come up to the ideal. The majority of modern poets, at least, have fat, well-nurtured bodies, and some of them are given to over-indulgence in strong drink.

Some years ago an enthusiastic gentleman visited a newspaper office where worked one of the sweetest singers of the South. He was introduced to a fat, red-faced man, who, with his toes resting against a well-filled demijohn, was at that very moment turning out a delightful lament for the Lost Cause. He greeted the visitor cordialy, offered the demijohn with a hospitable hand and talked freely about his rhymes, while the stranger was counting the pimples on his nose. Here was a shattered idol. No pale, lofty-browed patriot this, but a good-natured, easy-going fellow, who, though he may have felt, certainly failed to show any enthusiasm in his work.

One of England's most celebrated sentimental novels was "Clarissa Harlowe," by Richardson, a London printer. When the lackadaisical young women flocked to see the author of this great work, the creator of this suffering beauty whose fortunes they had followed with streaming eyes through every page of the novel, they were not pleased with his appearance.

He was a little fat man, this magnificent genius. We have Harry Warrington, the younger of the Virginians, meeting him at Turnbridge Wells and bowing profoundly to him.

"The great author was accustomed to being adored. A gentler wind never puffed mortal vanity. Enraptured spinsters flung tea leaves around him and incensed him with the coffee pot. Matrons kissed the slippers they had worked for him. There was a halo of virtue around his nightcap. All Europe had thrilled, panted, admired, trembled, wept over the pages of the immortal, kind, honest little man with the round paunch."

A distinguished statesman relates in his autobiography that his first love was the lion queen of a circus. She was the ideal beauty of his boyish dreams. He grew positively ill with passion for this exquisite being, who, clad in the gauziest of garments, walked every day in the lion's cage and thrust her head between the jaws of that ferocious animal. He envied the monarch of the desert, and longed to be an inmate of that cage himself.

Finally this lovesickness grew so alarming that his father took him to that mysterious tent which shelters all the brilliant creatures of the sawdust ring, and there he was introduced to the lion queen. But oh, what a disillusion it was! This fairy whose beauty subjugated the raging beasts from Nubia was a scrawny, paint-daubed old woman whom even a lion could not regard as an appetizing morsel. The cure was violent and immediate, and the lesson was a salutary one.

Few have passed from youth to middle age who have not met their queen of lions and been as rudely awakened from as sweet a dream.

In "The Old Curiosity Shop," when Kit and Barbara and Barbara's mother and Kit's mother go to Astley's, they enjoy an ideal performance. The dutiful Christopher has received his quarter salary and treats the crowd. Everything is a dazzling vision, and the innocent party enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. But the next morning Barbara has a headache, and Barbara's mother is disposed to be cross, and she underrates Astley's and thinks that the clown was older than they had taken him to be the night before. Kit himself has a misgiving that the inconstant actors in that dazzling vision had been doing the same thing the night before last and would do it again that night and the next, and for weeks and months to come, though he would not be there. Such is the difference between yesterday and today; we are all going to the play or coming home from it.

Possibly the greatest sufferer from the inexorable transition of the ideal to the real is the lover who passes his leisure hours writing sonnets to his mistress' eyebrows. How fair and gentle, how kind and good, the ideal sweetheart is. Her breath is as fragrant as the perfume of violets and her voice as low and sweet as the cooing of the turtle dove. What tender solicitude for those about her crowns every act of her daily life! How she relieves mother of the burdens of the household task, and is herself maternal in the care for her little brothers and sisters! Father's slippers are set before the blazing fire long ere the good man's return from his work. She is queen of that circle, the goddess of home, who diffuses a gentle and genial atmosphere in which all the flowers of the domestic garden flourish.

But when the adorer's back is turned mother is marshaled to the pots and pans, little Willie's ears are pulled until the poor child screams, and father's slippers are kicked into the dustpan.

So, ere the honeymoon has waned, the ideal woman has taken wings unto herself and flown, and the real substitute is apt to be a young person extremely fond of her own comfort, requiring a large amount of attention from everybody and resolved to jog through this world with the least possible expenditure of effort.

The bell rings, the curtain goes up, and the queen of the ballet bounds upon the stage. No fawn startled from leafy glade is more graceful than she. Her lips rival in hue the coral from ocean's depths, her skin is white as the driven snow, and her teeth have the sheen of the rarest pearls.

Her smile is a dream and the graces of the immortal gods abide in every dimple. Upon what food, asks the dazzled admirer, should such a being be fed? Who would dare to proffer her anything less delicate than nectar and ambrosia? But see her after the dance is done, drinking beer and eating Frankfurters in her dressing-room, using language not infrequently sprinkled with profanity, and the ideal lies as dead as the last year's bouquet of her admirer, and the real is a very coarse and very hackneyed creature of the stage.

Everyone is the proprietor of a graveyard of more or less extent where these ideals lie buried. Some go down to the grave early, some attain a respectable maturity, but few, indeed, can boast of a good old age. The industrious sexton, Common Sense, is ever busy with his spade and shovel, laying away those pleasing creations of too fond a fancy. The long procession is ever moving to that resting place of those dreams for which there is no immortality.

Chaplets of rue are laid upon the graves of some with no ungenerous hand. The departure of others cause but a passing regret and, though spacious the field where those ideals lie, it is ever increasing in area, for this race of the unreal, which are among the dearest things of life, will cease to exist only when their creator himself lies down beside them in the long and dreamless sleep of death.

Seaweed's Many Uses.

Seaweed gathered along the shores of Prince Edward Island has recently developed into a rather important industry of that locality. The formation of the coast line of the island is extremely favorable to the accumulation of seaweed, and after every tide there are great quantities to be had with very little trouble. This is dried and pressed into bales and shipped into the United States. In this shape it is worth $7 a ton placed on the cars at Charlottetown. There is a variety of uses for this material which have developed in a few years, notably in the upholstery industry. Furniture stuffed with seaweed is said to be just as satisfactory as any of the other substitutes for hair and has the additional value that the ravages of moths and similar pests are prevented. It is also used extensively for packing glassware, crockery and other fragile articles. Reduced to ashes, seaweed supplies a number of valuable chemicals, drugs and dyes, besides importing a great deal of seaweed, this country sends considerable abroad. About $100,000 worth passes through the customhouse at San Francisco, Cal., destined for China. The Celestials make it up into various useful articles, and in this shape the material is returned to this country.—[Philadelphia Record.

SCIENCE NOTES.

New Nerve Treatment.

Hanging by the neck from a rope has become a recognized form of treatment for certain nervous diseases at the National Hospital for the Paralyzed and Epileptic, Queen Square, Bloomsbury. In wry neck, in particular, "hanging" has given good results, certain cases totally unrelieved by other more conservative methods of treatment responding well to this strenuous cure.

The apparatus used consists of a strong metal tripod, eight feet in height, with a pulley at the apex. Over this pulley is passed a rope attached to two large metal stirrups, well padded with leather, one of which fits beneath the patient's chin and the other beneath the protruding back part of the head. The patient's head is in exactly the same position as that of a person's foot whose toes are resting on the bar of one stirrup iron while the heel rests on the bar of another.

"We begin the treatment," one of the hospital staff explained, "by gently pulling on the free end of the rope until the patient is raised up on his toes. After being kept in this position for a few seconds he is given a few moments' rest. The second time he is raised a little higher, so that more strain falls on the neck muscles. The process is continued every morning for a fortnight, the 'dose' being gradually increased until toward the end of the treatment the patient can stand being suspended clear of the ground for twenty to thirty seconds. Immediately after each morning's treatment the patient is at once put back to bed, where he stays until the next morning's treatment.

"While this hanging cure has given good results in certain selected cases it must not be understood that we treat all wry necks in this way."

Use of Sewage Sludge.

In the distillation of sewage sludge in the course of laboratory experiments A. H. Valentine, British chemist, has obtained 7 to 12 per cent of grease, valued at $60 to $100 a ton. The residue, which burned readily, has nearly as much nitrogen as the original sludge. The chemical and physical properties suggested some value as a fertilizer, and trial on carrots, beets and potatoes resulted in an increase of 15 to 20 per cent in weight of yield.

The Ultra-Violet Rays.

Ultra-violet rays are the latest step in science. They operate unperceived by the eye or any other organ of sense. But they are on the job all the time, getting in their fine work, at once the greatest incentive to vegetable growth and the agency through which the planet will become finally uninhabitable.

A German scientist shows how all the water vapor does not return to the sea whence it came. A proportion of watervapor is decomposed in the upper air by the ultra-violet rays into oxygen and hydrogen. The hydrogen rises to the outermost regions of the aerial envelope.

Thus gradually the earth is losing its water. The German scientist shows how two hundred years ago there were twice as many lakes upon the Alpine plateau of Central Europe as there are today. And he reads in the drying-up surface of the central Asian depression where formerly were cities, fertile plains and an ancient civilization, testimony of the same effect.

The same ultra-violet rays, which are slowly robbing the earth of water, are also responsible for the chief stimulation of plant life. They manufacture the ozone, which is energised oxygen, and ozone is that principle which is responsible for growth and which seems to awaken life.

Yet these imperceptible ultra-violet rays, which are so potent in the work of construction and of destruction, never were known to us until revealed by the spectroscope, an instrument not very old. All our knowledge of the universe, splendid achievement of the mind of man, nevertheless exists in the great mass of our ignorance as a single pebble at the heart of the bulk of the world. What forces unperceived, unguessed, perhaps tremendous in operation, may be at work constantly about us, permeating the universe, decreeing the fate of our globe affecting us ourselves vitally!

New Germ Cure.

Professor H. C. Carel, of the University of Minnesota, for many years head of the department of medical chemistry and toxicology and chemist to the Minnesota Board of Health, has discovered a chemical that will revolutionize the warfare upon germ life, arch enemy of the human system, and bring success in cases where the physician heretofore has been baffled.

The new chemical, which he calls benetol, is eight times as strong as carbolic acid, and yet is not poisonous. Never before have physicians been able to give doses of any disinfectant sufficient strength to kill germs.

"I am so confident in benetol that I am willing to submit myself to cholera infection to prove that it can be successfully treated with my discovery. It may be difficult for the lay mind to realize the great benefits of a powerful germicide which can be taken internally. It means that internal infection can be arrested just as effectually as its use as external infection has been in the past by the old agents.

"As a further illustration in another way, suppose a soldier, parched with thirst after a battle, came upon a pool of stagnant water, in which the deadly typus germ was present by millions. He might dip his cup full of that germ poison and by adding one drop of this new chemical, that water would become harmless and would instantly change from a germ poison to a beneficial medicated drink."

WILLIAM ROCK NOVEL DANCER.

ORPHEUM STAR SHOWS HOW TO RENEW OLD STUNTS.

William Rock, at the Orpheum this week, illustrates to what heights of real "difference" a dancer may rise. As an exponent of Terpsichorean eccentricity we have seen few equals of Mr. Rock, at any time. As a "straight" dancing act his and Miss Fulton's would probably be in the average category, but Rock removes it forever from the average by his novelties. The best of his doings yesterday was a fantastic "old man" dance in which the most excruciating gymnastics were performed, the dancer all the while dancing with apparent heaviness upon a stick. A melodrama to clog steps, in which the villain slays the leading lady to the time of a double-shuffle, while the hero makes the discovery and voices his grief at about the same tempo, put a comedy middle-act to the performance. Mrs. Rock and Miss Fulton pointed a nice moral at the conclusion with a "Devil Dance," in which the Mephistophelian Rock, stepping out of a picture frame, lures the beautiful young Miss Fulton to the final glass by characteristic Satanic temptations, then—while the leaves of the calendar fall from May to December—drives her to perdition on the fugitive strains of "Dio dell'Or," from "Faust," and at last sinks through the floor with his soiled and wilted burden, in a cloud of electric flame and lycopodium smoke.

Maurice Freeman has a sketch entitled "Tony and the Stork," which depicts the pathos and comedy of a poor Italian emigrant, up against our serious institutions with a vengeance on the country's natal day, and made hilariously glad at the end by discovering that he is the father of a bouncing family.

The Neapolitans are singularly united, since the names of the ladies are Ward and Littlefield. A tenor of Santa Lucia persuasion, however, gives the true Vesuvian color to the act. They do the characteristic grand opera material without, we regret to state, any departure from the characteristic vaudeville manner.

Though they are holdovers, Eugene and Willie Howard get all the applause of newcomers. Their innocence is the one who knew Tetrazzini before he "had read the book" is too serious to be forgotten in a week, neither is the Evers-Wisdom team dulled by seven days of residence. Eleanor Wisdom's Marie Dressleriana personality only causes the smile of old acquaintance to grow deeper and broader. "Baseballitis," their act, still runs like a home run.

Also there is Fred Singer in "The Man in Maker of Cremona," and Thomas Smith and "The Three Peaches."

Baseball pictures were promised yesterday, but were delayed, allegedly because of the express strike. The management has hopes for today.

For a first-class all around attractive bill go to Pantages this week, for seven turns which make up the bill that opened there Monday afternoon are all strictly high class and together form a decidedly alluring programme.

The headliner of the week is the Mona Joe company, who in their sketch, "A Glimpse of Prairie Life," by the spectroscope, an instrument not very old. All our knowledge of the universe, splendid achievement of the mind of man, nevertheless exists in the great mass of our ignorance as a single pebble at the heart of the bulk of the world. What forces unperceived, unguessed, perhaps tremendous in operation, may be at work constantly about us, permeating the universe, decreeing the fate of our globe affecting us ourselves vitally!

Professor H. C. Carel, of the University of Minnesota, for many years head of the department of medical chemistry and toxicology and chemist to the Minnesota Board of Health, has discovered a chemical that will revolutionize the warfare upon germ life, arch enemy of the human system, and bring success in cases where the physician heretofore has been baffled.

The new chemical, which he calls benetol, is eight times as strong as carbolic acid, and yet is not poisonous. Never before have physicians been able to give doses of any disinfectant sufficient strength to kill germs.

"I am so confident in benetol that I am willing to submit myself to cholera infection to prove that it can be successfully treated with my discovery. It may be difficult for the lay mind to realize the great benefits of a powerful germicide which can be taken internally. It means that internal infection can be arrested just as effectually as its use as external infection has been in the past by the old agents.

"As a further illustration in another way, suppose a soldier, parched with thirst after a battle, came upon a pool of stagnant water, in which the deadly typus germ was present by millions. He might dip his cup full of that germ poison and by adding one drop of this new chemical, that water would become harmless and would instantly change from a germ poison to a beneficial medicated drink."

ORPHEUM STAR SHOWS HOW TO RENEW OLD STUNTS.

William Rock, at the Orpheum this week, illustrates to what heights of real "difference" a dancer may rise. As an exponent of Terpsichorean eccentricity we have seen few equals of Mr. Rock, at any time. As a "straight" dancing act his and Miss Fulton's would probably be in the average category, but Rock removes it forever from the average by his novelties.

The best of his doings yesterday was a fantastic "old man" dance in which the most excruciating gymnastics were performed, the dancer all the while dancing with apparent heaviness upon a stick. A melodrama to clog steps, in which the villain slays the leading lady to the time of a double-shuffle, while the hero makes the discovery and voices his grief at about the same tempo, put a comedy middle-act to the performance. Mrs. Rock and Miss Fulton pointed a nice moral at the conclusion with a "Devil Dance," in which the Mephistophelian Rock, stepping out of a picture frame, lures the beautiful young Miss Fulton to the final glass by characteristic Satanic temptations, then—while the leaves of the calendar fall from May to December—drives her to perdition on the fugitive strains of "Dio dell'Or," from "Faust," and at last sinks through the floor with his soiled and wilted burden, in a cloud of electric flame and lycopodium smoke.

Maurice Freeman has a sketch entitled "Tony and the Stork," which depicts the pathos and comedy of a poor Italian emigrant, up against our serious institutions with a vengeance on the country's natal day, and made hilariously glad at the end by discovering that he is the father of a bouncing family.

Operahouse stage yesterday morning for the big revival of "Woodland," which will be the fourth production of the present Hartman season.

It can rightly be called the "Chantecler" of musical plays and is without doubt one of the best works of the clever Frank Pixley and the musical Gustav Luders. It was the most satisfying and substantial success of Hartman's last season at the Grand, when it was given for two capacity weeks. Mr. Hartman has the original Henry W. Savage production, including all of the bird costumes and scenery.

Howard Gale, the manager of "The Three Twins," does not love us. We don't blame Mr. Gale, for we called his show an unavoidable eventuality. Therefore, if we meet him, we expect to be slapped; if we are, we shall meekly turn the other cheek, for we undoubtedly deserve it.

Though in substance "The Three Twins" isn't much, it really contains two highly unusual musical numbers—namely, the beautiful "Seven Ages" song, and the eerie "Yama-Yama" number.

"The Three Twins" will play the Mason Operahouse next week, with Bessie Clifford still as Molly Summers, and Victor Morley as Tom Stanhope. A good supporting company is promised.

"The Blue Mouse" continues to crowd the Belasco Theater where it opened its second week Monday night to another S. R. O. house. This Clyde Fitch farce is proving the biggest fun success that has ever been introduced upon the Belasco stage.

To the role of Paulette Divine, Eleanor Gordon has given just the proper touch of Parisian coquetry without making the part in the least suggestive and her performance is a display of finished comedy work, which in contrast with Mr. Stone's somber and sedate secretary makes the piece a fast and hilarious affair.

Mrs. George M. Eaton and daughter, Miss Blanche, have just returned from a six weeks visit in the East.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland E. Thompson of No. 216 West Fifty-second street entertained recently with a dinner party in celebration of the second birthday of their son Maurice. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were used in decorating. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson, Miss Laura Thompson, Wayatt J. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ellsworth Peck and Harland Peck of Pasadena.

Guest of Relatives.

Miss Ruth Mallison Hogan of Minneapolis will be the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bossert, No. 1125 Forest avenue, Hollywood.

Extended Trip Ends.

Mrs. Alice McGuirk and daughter, Miss S. McGuirk, returned recently from an extended trip through Mexico.

Wedding Announcement.

The marriage of Miss Jasamire M. Bates, daughter of Mrs. E. M. Bates, and B. J. Smith of Tulare, was quietly solemnized in this city by the Rev. Charles Murphy. Only immediate relatives were present and Mr. and Mrs. Smith left, following the service, for their home in Tulare.

Double Wedding.

A double wedding of interest was solemnized one evening last week in this city when Miss Mary C. Brown and Alexander Black, and Miss Margaret Flood and James Anderson were married. The brides, who were attended by Misses Nellie Mahoney and Abbie M. Young, were attired in white silk and carried bride roses. They wore fluffy veils fastened with orange blossoms. The maids were attired in pale yellow silk and carried white sweet peas. Rev. D. McCum read the ceremony. Luncheon was served by Christopher.

Evening of Music.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dow Kirk of "Acacia Nook," Colegrove, recently entertained with a musicale. The decorations were particularly attractive. In the living room and den yellow chrysanthemums and ferns were effectively used while red roses filled the dining room with their fragrance.

From New York.

Mrs. Alfred Anderson of New York is settled at No. 417 Kingsley drive, where she will spend the winter. Miss Ruth Hollister has returned from the East and will spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Anderson. They will be at home to friends the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month.

Pleasant Outing.

Guests who are registered at Hotel Arrowhead include: Mrs. R. Schiffman, Miss Anderson and Mrs. J. A. MacLeod, Pasadena; Mrs. A. B. Thomas, San Bernardino; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Perry and Miss E. Cutting, Riverside; Miss G. R. Cutting, Yonkers, N. Y.; Thomas Thorkeldsen, Miss E. Scott, F. C. Valentine and J. J. Hecht, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Thomas, Pasadena; Mrs. W. C. Smith, Portland Or.; Mrs. E. T. Case, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. C. Belmont and C. Ludwig, Los Angeles; J. L. Warwick, San Bernardino; Miss E. D. Williamson and Miss C. Williamson, London, Eng.; Miss J. McLaughlin and Miss E. Kerckhoff, Los Angeles.

Dinner Party.

Mrs. James H. Rollins, who is spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Bowman Rollins, No. 700 West Twenty-eighth street, was hostess last evening at a dinner party. Yellow chrysanthemums formed a bouquet for the center of the table and around this were yellow shaded candles. Covers were laid for Lieut.-Gen. and Mrs. Adna R. Chaffee, Maj. and Mrs. E. F. C. Klokke, Maj. and Mrs. John H. Norton, Gen. and Mrs. Charles D. Viele and Gen. and Mrs. G. H. Burton.

Japanese Luncheon.

Mrs. Roy Shelton of No. 2937 Hobart boulevard, recently presided at a Japanese luncheon. Her guests were members of the D'Accord Club. The appointments were in Japanese effect, and covers were laid for Mrs. H. J. Simmen, Mrs. George Whitney Gilkey, Mrs. Horner Kennedy, Mrs. Godfrey Crackel, Mrs. James McIntyre, Mrs. L. R. Hull, Mrs. Lee Fields and Mrs. Foster Deans.

Wedding Announcement.

Announcement is made of the wedding of Miss Marybel Heath and Frank Brock, which took place at the Church of the Epiphany Saturday. The young people are settled in their bungalow home, No. 3929 Bernice avenue, where they will be at home to their friends after the 15th, inst.

Recent Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lacy Swaine entertained at dinner a few evenings ago a number of friends in honor of Mrs. Lelia Burton Wells and Miss Emma Lowry. Covers were laid for ten.

Pleasant Evening.

Among society folks who enjoyed the opening night of grand opera were Mrs. Charles Modini-Wood, Miss Elizabeth Wood, Miss Florence Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dreyfus, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mitchell, Dr. and Mrs. Granville Macgowan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Horace King, Miss Hazel Runge, Col. J. B. Lankershim, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Newmark, Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Stilson, Mr. and Mrs. David Chalmers McCan, Charles Seyler, Gurney Newlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jackson Whitmore, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Birkel and Mr. and Mrs. William Irving Hollingsworth.

Afternoon of Bridge.

Mrs. A. J. Howard of No. 1340 Wilton place gave a bridge party yesterday afternoon. Yellow and pink chrysanthemums ornamented the home and there were four tables.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

"Human Orientation."

Dr. Robert J. Burdette lectured before members of the Ebell Monday afternoon, choosing for his subject "Human Orientation." The auditorium of the pretty clubhouse was crowded to overflowing for this meeting, for aside from the personal popularity of the speaker, there was much speculation and curiosity on the part of the women as to just what "human orientation" means. After Dr. Burdette, explained that by "human orientation" he means our attitude toward life, the tension of the audience was perceptibly relaxed, and it settled itself comfortably and listened to a very entertaining and interesting lecture.

"Seeking for truth and finding it in the every day battles of life" illustrated in the everyday incidents of life, stated by Dr. Burdette's characteristic manner, was the gist of the lecture.

The Month's Programme.

The November programme for the Ebell announces, "Masterpieces of Art," pictures copied and painted from the originals and exhibited with stereopticon in exquisite colors, by Prof. Haig Arkiin, November 7. There will be a piano recital by Olga Steeb, Monday, November 14. John Vance Cheney will occupy the programme November 21. "Our inheritance here in this Southland, will be the subject of his talk, followed by a reading of original verse in furtherance of the theme. There will be an "Arts and Crafts," exhibit, Monday, November 28, "Arts and Crafts" as they are related to everyday life, will be illustrated by Miss Leta Horiocher; Handicraft in the public schools, will be told by Miss May Gearhart. "The Craftsman of the Future" will be the subject of an address by Hector Alliott. A reception and musical will be given at 8 o'clock the same evening. The exhibition will be open to the public Tuesday and Wednesday, 23 and 29, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

A NEAR SENSATION.

Charges of Free Drinks for Policemen Fail When Facts Are Asked by Police Commission.

The trial of A. J. Barnes, of the Rainier Cafe, for violation of the rules in serving drinks without meals, and serving police officers free, developed several sensations at the meeting of the Police Commission Monday night.

A man named Gyle, who was back of the charges against Barnes, created the first sensation by saying that "it is the custom to serve officers on the beat free," and the commission at once wanted "to be shown."

The best that Gyle could do was to say that it used to be done at the Imperial Cafe, which is now out of existence. Barnes then called a man named Kiant, who testified that Gyle wanted to bet him $1000 that the license of Barnes would be revoked.

It was shown that Patrolman Blaisdell, on several occasions, was served free, and that drinks had been served with a sandwich, which is not considered "a meal."

Both the matter of the revocation of the license, and of the dismissal of Blaisdell, were taken under advisement, and the commission adjourned shortly before midnight.

Twenty-one patrolmen and twelve emergency sergeants were appointed and the emergency patrolmen formerly appointed, but who later failed to pass the civil service examination, were dropped.

The Roosevelt Club, composed of several hundred business and working men in East Los Angeles, was refused a license, and the Southern California Commercial Club, No. 215½ West Fourth street, met a like fate. The Concordia Club, Sixteenth and Figueroa streets, came away with the desired permit.

Eighteen Japanese poolroom keepers applied to the commission to have their licenses transferred to the "Japanese Poolroom Association." They claimed to be doing it for their own protection, but the commission learned that they were each paying $1.50 a month to George Wade to handle the business for them, and they forthwith refused to make the transfers.

They also served notice on the eighteen holders of the licenses to show cause why the latter should not be revoked, unless they withdraw from the association.

The petition of the Southern California Saengerlund, in which the German singing societies applied for a reduction of the monthly liquor license of $25, to a nominal sum to be paid upon occasions when entertainments were given, was referred to the Prosecuting Attorney.

The trial of Detectives F. J. Talamantes, Thomas Rico and Louis Rico, which had been set for last night, was postponed for one week.

SIGNS OF PROSPERITY.

Construction in Pomona Shows Increase in Value Over Past Seasons. Business Man Dies.

POMONA, Nov. 1.—The report of City Building Inspector Cowels for October shows that construction to the value of $60,225 has been done here. The total building operations of the first ten months of this year aggregate $688,903 and it is estimated that the total building operations for this year will equal $900,000. Last year they totaled $677,792, and the year previous $486,070.

BUSINESS MAN DIES.

The death of W. O. Steffa occurred yesterday afternoon at his home on East Holt avenue, after a lingering illness. Mr. Steffa, a native of Iowa, was formerly a member of the grocery firm of Bowyer, Paige & Steffa and sold out to Bowyer & Paige. He leaves a wife and two daughters, the latter Grace and Ethel Steffa. The family came here some years ago from their former home in Iowa.

HALLOWEEN PARTIES.

Mrs. J. G. Boake of West Center street entertained the members of Our Times Club at her home on West Center street yesterday afternoon. The decorations and refreshments were in keeping with Halloween.

The basement of St. Joseph's Catholic church was the scene of a pleasant Halloween gathering given by Rev. Joseph Nunan. The rooms were decorated with black and orange cats, witches, hobgoblins and pumpkin lanterns.

Miss Edith Kidd entertained a company of friends at a masquerade at her home, No. 305 East Piedmont street, last night, the house being decorated for Halloween.

Miss Barbara Greenwood will entertain informally in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hill and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Williams of Claremont.

This is an indefinable something composed from much bathing with the best of soap and perhaps a well chosen bath powder, to which may be added a delicate toilet powder, and if needed a deodorant powder, and even if you are absolutely certain that you can trust your discretion—a hint of perfume. Only a hint, mind you. It will never do to make of this a definite something. Take solemn warning from the sister who moves in a cloud of Perfume—well, it must be as indefinite, as elusive as is that which distinguishes a lady from just a woman. When you begin trying to make definitions about some things it is time to stop—if one may use the blushism. Well, this perfume must be just so, or better stop before you begin. Now there is a new perfume made in California and it has just that elusive, decorous, haunting quality that a perfume should have. It has been said that one must go away from home to learn the news, and I learned about a delightful perfume through a New York Magazine which takes note of the best in toilet accessories. Then I found that this much recommended perfume was made in California. I was doubly interested and hastened to learn where it could be found locally. It comes put up as My Lady's perfume should, in a charming package. First it is in a pasteboard box, then there is a wooden bottle with a cap carefully screwed on, and then comes the bottle containing the perfume itself and this has a beautiful stopper, which proves to have a long capillary tube to be used as a dropper. Only one drop of this delightful aroma will be needed to lend to the garments a fragrance as of living blossoms and comes in the odors of lily of the valley, violet, rose, champaca, orange blossom and wistaria. I have tried them one, and if the others are as delightful as all for fear I would be wanting to use some of each at the same time and then where would that leave that line of demarkation by?

Tip.

Now that the theater season is well on over, the chafing-dish may be called upon to do its share toward the evening festivities.

A can of sardines is an excellent thing to serve after the theater. Cut slices from a long loaf of bread and shape them oval then toast and butter to a light brown. Spread each slice with bottled canape sauce, then with boned and skinned sardine. Put each piece of bread with a dust of salt and cayenne and a squeeze of lemon.

This may be served asparagus either hot or cold and a sauce made as follows: To a French dressing made of oil and vinegar add finely chopped dill pickle and the asparagus tips in

Here is a game of which children never seem to tire and I know of some mothers who are to receive for Christmas a set of these bags made in an entirely new fashion and I am sure they will be delighted and the good old game will be filled with greater interest than ever for them.

There are four bags, each made in the colors of a different country. The United States bag is round and is made in red, white and blue crochet from heavy mercerized cotton. The Spanish bag is square in shape and is in red and yellow. Italy is represented by a square bag in red, white and green. Germany is round and its colors are black, white and red. The colors of other countries could be selected and almost any of the combinations of colors used on flags would be pretty and would add interest to the play.

A House For Fifteen Cents.

At one of the Broadway stores which is just going into the "toy furnishing" business, or rather putting in a toy department it would possibly be more decorous to say—I saw such a cunning doll house of pasteboard made after the manner of the collapsible hat boxes, so that it would go flatly into its thin, square box. Still further there was a whole family of doll pasteboards who went with the home and who took their clothes along. Imagine such a fund of fun for only fifteen cents! Such a lot of cutting up for the tots, in scissoring the clothes and the dolls, all of which come in a flat piece slipped within their own house.

Fashion's Fantasies.

I saw a pretty evening gown made from several sheaths of chiffon and the novel touch given by the trimming which consisted of a moderately wide band of fur at the foot of the skirt and at short intervals, set within the fur half open ten roses. The bodice and sleeves were also trimmed in this novel fashion, the effect being of a bertha or fischu.

A striking and handsome gown recently noticed was made from black satin with a bodice of white satin upon which the black was extended in a trim tailored effect in the form of deep cuffs and a band extending up the front in shirt-waist fashion. From the straight, clerical collar to the hem of the scant skirt extended, small closely set black satin buttons, adding still further to the tailored effect.

Hat shapes are of three sorts—the large, wide-brimmed hat (the most popular,) the cloche, or Charlotte Corday, and the turban.

Jet beads embroider the toes of black evening slippers, gold on gold, silver on gray, or white on white.

OPPOSE AMENDMENT.

Riverside Men Object to the Senate Plan to Segregate State and County Taxes.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 1.—"Resolved, that it is the sense of this meeting that the voters of Riverside county be advised to vote 'No' on Senate Amendment No. 1."

This action was taken at a joint conference of the four political parties of the county, held at the Chamber of Commerce last evening for the purpose of reaching an agreement in regard to the proposed amendment, segregating State and county taxes. W. B. Clancy acted as chairman of the meeting, and leaders of the Republican, Democratic, Prohibition and Socialist parties entered into the discussion.

Local dairymen have taken steps to form a merger for the purpose of securing more economical distribution of milk and cream to their patrons. Assurance is given that the price of milk will not be raised. Those at the head of the plan state that with a central distributing system in operation the expenses of delivery can be reduced one-half.

The new company, to be known as the Riverside Dairy Company, has filed articles of incorporation, with a capital stock of $25,000. The directors are David Ormand, A. J. Stalder, Antoine Peillasier, F. W. Stalder and W. H. True.

A marriage license has been issued to Isaac Houser, aged 65, a native of Pennsylvania, and Rebecca Murray, aged 62, a native of Iowa, both residents of Los Angeles. Justice Holton Webb performed the ceremony, which took place at the court house.

ROBERT HICHENS

The opening chapters of Robert Hichens' new story, "The Dweller on the Threshold," in the November Century, give promise of a story, in some respects, the most remarkable he ever wrote.

This story is written around that strange influence which one human being sometimes exercises over another—an influence belonging to that other world which borders so closely our own and whose phenomena are so little understood.

Robert Hichens' books are for more than the passing moment; they are literature. His new story is worthy of the long series of noteworthy Century serials.

The November number is brought up to an unusually high fiction standard by the addition of short stories by well-known and popular writers, including Alice Hegan Rice and Ellis Parker Butler.

U. S. ENGINEER OFFICE, 721 CENTRAL Building, Los Angeles, Cal., November 1, 1911. Sealed proposals for extending shoreward the breakwater at Los Angeles Harbor, California, will be received here until 11 a.m., December 1, 1911, and then publicly opened. Information furnished on application. W. P. STOKEY, Captain, Engineers.

TRAFFIC RECORD.

TWO VESSELS NOT ENOUGH.

MAY HAVE TO DUPLICATE THE YALE AND HARVARD.

RELIABILITY ESSENTIAL, SAYS EXPRESS COMPANY.

NO PROVISION MADE IN CASE OF ACCIDENT.

The owners of the Yale and Harvard, the steamers designed for fast passenger and freight service between Los Angeles and San Francisco, will have to expand their plans or be disappointed in the hope of securing a contract for handling through express for the American Express Company.

Messrs. Goodall and Bennett, the owners of the Yale and Harvard, made a formal proposition offering to handle the through business of the express company on a schedule which, combined with the eighteen-hours-ahead-of-all-others schedule of the express company from New York to Los Angeles, would put through express into San Francisco in advance of any present rail schedule.

The express company schedule brings the train to Los Angeles over the Salt Lake route at 2:30 p.m. It is proposed to run the express car for the North to San Pedro and load for a 4 p.m. sailing.

The boat must reach San Francisco at 10 o'clock the next morning, and unload and reload to start on the return trip at 4 o'clock the same afternoon.

"We are anxious, of course, to extend our business north and get a foothold in San Francisco," said Robert E. M. Cowie, manager of the American Express Company for all of its lines west of Omaha, at his office in the Pacific Electric building yesterday afternoon. "Despite the fact that we operate on 55,000 miles of railroad, more than any other express company, we only got a foothold in California when we opened our office in Los Angeles September 1.

"But the proposition made by the owners of the Yale and Harvard cannot be accepted unless it is materially changed. The schedule proposed is all right, and we could make it in good shape, provided nothing happened to put either the Yale or the Harvard out of service.

"The schedule provides for an arrival and a sailing for each boat every day. Now there isn't a railroad in the country that doesn't keep in reserve complete duplicate equipment for every train that it operates, and it is the experience of railroading that this extra equipment is in frequent use.

"The owners will have to at least duplicate the Yale and Harvard or abandon any prospect of the alliance proposed. We haven't turned the proposition down yet, and if the suggestions that I have made as to more boats is carried out, the express company may accept it. We have to have a reliable daily service, and we can't depend upon such a service with but two boats in use."

Arrangements are being completed for the Yale and the Harvard to begin service between Los Angeles and San Francisco about December 10. Arrangements were completed yesterday by which the steamship company will use the dock of the Salt Lake Railroad at San Pedro. The steamship company will also have offices in the quarters of the city ticket office of the Salt Lake Railroad at Sixth and Spring streets.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

ITS REMARKABLE DEVELOPMENT.

Jus T. Fargo, of New York, and H. K. Brooks, of Chicago, officials of the American Express Company, are in Los Angeles, inspecting the offices of the company, which were opened September 1. Mr. Fargo is vice-president and treasurer of the company, and Mr. Brooks is western financial manager.

Mr. Brooks has a wide reputation as an authority in foreign exchange. He is the author of four standard books on this subject, one on the general subject of foreign exchange, another, a figuring book, on foreign exchange, and others dealing on French, Belgian and Swiss systems of exchange.

"There is no phase of our financial growth that has had the remarkable development as the methods employed in exchanging money with foreign countries," said Mr. Brooks last night. "Twenty years ago practically all foreign exchange was handled by a few large banks in the principal cities, the smaller banks working through the larger banks.

"In the early eighties, the American Express Company made a thorough study of the situation with the result that the express money order was devised and introduced. It furnished a medium for remitting small amounts of money through the mails, especially to foreign countries.

"The system was so far superior to the one then in use by the government that it came into general vogue, and was adopted by other express companies and since by the government and the banks.

"The express company placed forms of drafts with the banks, enabling these institutions to draw upon correspondents of the express company in 10,000 towns and cities in the old world. Later the express company devised and introduced the travelers' check a medium for carrying funds. It has many advantages over the cumbersome and inefficient letter of credit. It was simple in form, requiring identification by signature only. It also carried upon its face information as to the exact equivalent of the check in all the moneys of the various foreign countries."

Mr. Fargo and Mr. Brooks will remain several days in Southern California, returning East by way of San Francisco.

MAKING RED YELLOW.

THE LOCAL LINE ABSORPTION.

The task of uniting and harmonizing the local lines of the Pacific Electric Railroad, taken over by the Los Angeles Railway Company, is progressing rapidly. Plans are being worked out for extension of the shop and car barn facilities and the erection of new substations for the transmission of power.

The cars, both yellow and red, the latter the Pacific Electric, will be sent to the shops in lots of forty for conversion into the pay-as-you-enter type, which are to be put in use on all lines of the consolidated company. The Pacific Electric cars will be repainted in the orange color to conform with the cars of the absorbing company. One hundred new cars have been ordered from the St. Louis Car Company for delivery within the next few months. All of the lines are to be equipped with automatic switches at intersecting points to facilitate operation.

While universal transfers went into effect yesterday morning as between the lines formerly operated by the Los Angeles Railway Company and the lines of the Pacific Electric, now controlled by the former company, the problem of transfers on school children tickets still remains to be worked out.

The Pacific Electric has discontinued transfers from its interurban line cars to narrow guage lines formerly controlled by this company.

Notices respecting transfers and ordering employees to report to the offices of the Los Angeles Railway Company were posted in the Pacific Electric cars yesterday morning.

The Pacific Electric lines taken over by the Los Angeles Railway Company include the West Adams, University, Boyle, Santa Fe depot, West Temple, Angeleno Heights, Crown Hill, Brooklyn Heights, and the West Sixth. The last named line is to be extended at once from Figueron avenue to the center of the city.

Railroad Notes.

A. C. Wells, general manager of the Pacific Coast lines of the Santa Fe system, headed a party of officials that left Los Angeles yesterday for a tour of inspection of the San Joaquin Valley lines. Besides Mr. Wells the party included John J. Byrne, assistant passenger traffic manager; H. C. Phillips, chief engineer of the Pacific Coast lines; and I. L. Hibbard, general superintendent. The party will be met at San Francisco by C. A. Morse, chief engineer for the entire Santa Fe system.

R. S. Ruble, assistant general passenger agent of the Union Pacific Railroad at Omaha, is in the city.

W. G. Brimson of Kansas City, vice-president of the Quincy, Omaha and Kansas City Railroad, is a visitor in Los Angeles.

R. P. Sherman, general manager of the Los Angeles Pacific Railroad, has gone to San Francisco.

J. T. Fargo, vice-president and treasurer, and H. K. Brooks, western financial manager, both of the American Express Company, will leave for the East tomorrow by way of Salt Lake.

GETTING AFTER SPEEDERS.

Motorcycle Squad Doubled in Size and Auto Drivers Will Have To Go Slow.

The police motorcycle squad was increased to four men, yesterday morning, and from now on the hours of duty will not be made public, the reason being that the police do not want the public, the reason being that the police do not want the public to know during what hours it is safe to speed.

Patrolman Frank Harlan and H. B. Wallace began work on the squad early yesterday and with Coe and Gardner will patrol the avenues and boulevards where the speeders are most common. No regular hours of work are prescribed by the department, the arrangement being left to the squad to be changed every day.

One morning the business men who speed their machines on their way down town will be followed, but the next day they will probably be safe, as the squad will work during the afternoon and evening.

Harry Haymond was fined $25 by Police Judge Frederickson, yesterday morning, for speeding.

SAVED BY MARRIAGE.

R. Neinez, who was arrested on a charge of having wronged Tomaso Vance, 16 years old, under promise of marriage, procured his release yesterday by marrying the girl. The ceremony was performed by Justice Steiglitz.

THE LOCAL STAGE.

The star of the Levy cast is a newcomer—Betty Blake, a character change artist, singer, dancer, and monologist. In a pink costume, a dressmaker's dream, she introduces a novelty, "A Pink Petty from Peter." "Now I Have to Call Him Father," was a second success, but when she sprang "Society," a song of modern instance, and clothed it with a hobble dress, she was at her best.

Signorina Clementina is still the exploiter of Neapolitan musical atmosphere. An aria from "Trovatore" gave her an opportunity to show dramatic ability. Kellog's Arditi Waltz was sung exquisitely, and "Carme," a new Neapolitan waltz song, added to the Clementina laurels.

Virginia Ware still sticks to the American songs and the old-fashioned refrains; all of which are well received. "The Last Rose of Summer" is always welcome and "Loch Lomond" reminiscent, but "Games of Our Childhood Days" was new to all, and a charming innovation.

The Milano Duo are still welcome visitors; Signor Ferrari rendered a brilliant selection from the opera of Carmen, and Mme. Ferrari was equally artistic in a bit of descriptive song, "Gay Butterfly." The comedy duo was a Milano bit entitled "Funiculi-Funicula."

Since the work of rat destruction began at the Port of London in 1901 no fewer than 606,110 rats have been killed.

RY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Announcement of the marriage Thomas Handke, a member of the Thomas Orchestra, brings to light a ger tale of love and sacrifice that rals that of Poet Ruskin.

e divorce of Handke from his first was preceded by his giving her Paul Wunderle, first violin in the Thomas Orchestra. When Mrs. Handke informed her husband that loved the violinist, he promptly reguished his claim to her, and aided April, 1908, in obtaining a divorce. That was rs. Wunderle and Mrs. Handke is now Handke waited until the legal limit a year following the divorce had exed, and then married again.
